Empires In Collision Anglo Burmese Rel:

Empires in Collision Oliver B. Pollak, 1979 The long struggle which led to the British take over of Burma in the 1880s was not a typical one sided colonial conflict It was an epic cultural political economic and military confrontation between two confident and self interested empires one traditional and Asian in outlook the other modern commercial and aggressive This fascinating book is the first scholarly treatment of a critical phase in British Burmese relations Whitaker's Cumulative Book List ,1980 Books in Series ,1985 Vols for 1980 issued in three parts Series Authors and Titles Books in Print ,1979 Collision of Empires A. D. Harvey, 1992-01-01 The only previous war to match the world wars of the twentieth century in scale and impact was the French War of 1793 1815 This book is the first book to compare these conflicts which together shaped the history of the modern world A D Harvey relates the causes conduct and outcome of these wars to the fundamental nature of the societies which fought them Political decisions economic power and social attitudes interfaced with the demands of military technology to determine the outcome of each case Britain is the centre of focus but is seen against a background of the other combatants Harvey s ability to make large scale generalisations is backed up by a wealth of fascinating and carefully documented detail making this outstanding and exceptionally well written book a pleasure to read The author has tackled a huge subject and has not been afraid to face up to either its complexities or its implications By asking new questions and using a range of unfamiliar sources this book provides an unusually profound analysis not only of these wars but also of the nature of modern society and of our understanding of the past Bibliographic Index ,1982

Northeast India Through the Ages Rituparna Bhattacharyya, 2022-07-29 This volume explores the rich pre history history and oral history of the northeast region of India a land locked region that is home to over 350 ethnolinguistic communities Despite its uniqueness and diversity little is known to the outside world The book studies the vibrant and diverse socio political and cultural history of this region through a transdisciplinary perspective covering a wide range of topics such as the pre history medieval and colonial histories of Assam the geopolitics of the creation of independent states from undivided Assam oral narratives from Manipur prehistoric cultures of Meghalaya the Naga National Movement Sikkim s Namgyal dynasty and Tripura s transition from monarchy to democracy It also discusses the invaluable contributions made by Professor Mohammad Taher 1931 2015 who laid the foundation of geography in Northeast India A compelling exploration of this geo politically contested space this volume will be of interest to students and researchers of anthropology archaeology history human geography South Asian studies and minority studies Civility and Empire Anindyo Roy, 2004-11-10 This book addresses the idea of civility as a manifestation of the fluidity and ambivalence of imperial power as reflected in British colonial literature and culture Discussions of Anglo Indian romances of 1880 1900 E M Forster s The Life to Come and Leonard Woolf s writings show how the appeal to civility had a significant effect on the constitution of colonial subject hood and reveals civility as an ideal trope for the ambivalence of imperial power itself Subject Guide to Books in Print ,1993

Arts & Humanities Citation Index ,1982 A multidisciplinary index covering the journal literature of the arts and humanities It fully covers 1 144 of the world s leading arts and humanities journals and it indexes individually selected relevant items from over 6 800 major science and social science journals Books in Print Supplement ,1984 The Saturday Review of Politics, Literature, Science and Art ,1888 Monde du Viêt Nam Frédéric Mantienné,Keith Weller Taylor,2008 Framing China Ariane Knüsel,2016-04-15 Framing China sheds new light on Western relations with and perceptions of China in the first half of the twentieth century In this ground breaking book Ariane Knüsel examines how China was portrayed in political debates and the media in Britain the USA and Switzerland between 1900 and 1950 By focusing on the political economic cultural and social context that led to the construction of the particular images of China in each country the author demonstrates that national interests anxieties and issues influenced the way China was framed and resulted in different portrayals of China in each country The author s meticulous analysis of a vast amount of newspaper and magazine articles commentaries editorials cartoons and newsreels that have previously not been studied before also focuses on the transnational circulation of images of China While previous publications have dealt with the occurrence of the Yellow Peril and Red Menace in particular countries Framing China reveals that these images were interpreted differently in every nation because they both reflected and contributed to the discursive construction of nationhood in each country and were influenced by domestic issues cultural values pre existing stereotypes pressure groups and geopolitical aspirations The Man Who Took the Rap Peter John Dye,2018-10-15 This is the first biography of Sir Robert Brooke Popham a key figure in the early development of airpower whose significant and varied achievements have been overlooked because of his subsequent involvement in the fall of Singapore It highlights Brooke Popham s role in developing the first modern military logistic system the creation of the Royal Air Force Staff College and the organizational arrangements that underpinned Fighter Command s success in the Battle of Britain Peter Dye challenges longstanding views about performance as Commander in Chief Far East and based on new evidence offers a more nuanced narrative that sheds light on British and Allied preparations for the Pacific War inter service relations and the reasons for the disastrous loss of air and naval superiority that followed the Japanese attack The Man Who Took the Rap highlights the misguided attempts at deterrence in the absence of a coordinated information campaign and the unprecedented security lapse that betrayed the parlous state of the Allied defenses Mining Journal, Railway & Commercial Gazette ,1893 The Mining Journal, Railway and Commercial Gazette ,1893 Magazine Abstracts United States.
