This innovative history reveals the untold story of the women s self defense movement and its origins in the Progressive Era In the late nineteenth and early twentieth centuries women began taking up boxing and jiu jitsu in record numbers The new trend was both a reflection of and a response to the broader cultural issues of the time including the women s rights movement and the campaign for the vote While some of these women simply wanted to protect themselves from strangers on the street others sought to reject gendered notions about feminine weakness As women s self defense grew into a movement it challenged longstanding myths about the nature of violence against women provoking discussions about the less visible violence that many women faced in their own homes The movement also forged a new image of women as powerful and self reliant Whether or not women consciously pursued self defense for these reasons their actions embodied feminist politics This book is a fascinating and comprehensive introduction to the movement they created and the ways it echoed through the twentieth century The Warrior's Edge: Unlocking the Secrets of Self-Defense Pasquale De Marco,2025-07-11

HOLLIS COLQUHOUN is currently a Financial Advisor for Waddell and Reed Financial Advisors and has over twenty years of experience in the financial industry. Starting out as an institutional trader and salesperson for a Wall Street brokerage firm, she later became one of its first female partners. Hollis worked in the Corporate Bond Departments of several New York firms, then moved into the distressed securities market where she helped set up a new brokerage operation for one of Wall Street's masters of value investing. Three years later, Hollis stopped working to devote more time and attention to raising her three daughters. She also became very involved in local community projects and a nonprofit education foundation. Two years ago, Hollis was hired by a nonprofit credit counseling agency and received certification as an Accredited Financial Counselor and as a Certified Personal Finance Counselor. Over a two-year period, Hollis counseled thousands of clients who were drowning in debt and in need of financial guidance. She also conducted workshops on budgeting and credit for local community organizations and New Jersey State welfare-to-work programs. Hollis lives near the Jersey Shore and, when not working with local nonprofit organizations or promoting financial education for women, she pursues her interest in martial arts. She has a black belt in both karate and taekwondo.
