Iain Edgar, Andrew Russell

Empowerment And Older People:

Empowering Older People Daniel Thursz, Charlotte Nusberg, Johnnie Prather, 1995-05-30 Empowerment refers to the ability to make informed choices exercise influence make continuing contributions to society and take advantage of services These privileges are taken for granted by most working age adults but often are not available to older persons for a variety of reasons including poverty poor health low educational levels lack of transportation and access to services negative stereotypes about aging and overt or subtle age discrimination Yet empowerment is vital to the quality of life of older persons and the health of society on the whole if seniors are engaged and involved members of it This book takes an international approach by presenting the work of 17 experts in aging Countries represented by the contributors include Denmark the Dominican Republic Ireland India Japan Mexico Pakistan South Africa the United Kingdom and the United States While many works address the issue of empowerment the aging perspective is relatively rare and the international perspective entirely lacking until now Empowering Older People presents views and research written by experts in aging from around the world Contributions look at the need to ensure older people have control over their own lives and discuss any positive measures which are being taken to provide real opportunities and resources for the older populations Empowerment is vital to older people s quality of life and to the health of any society and an international perspective on the issue will inform all who work with older people In this edited volume the countries represented by contributors include Denmark the Dominican Republic Ireland India Japan Mexico Pakistan South Africa the United Kingdom and the U S A Study of Pastoral Care of the Elderly in Africa Samuel Ayete-Nyampong, 2014-08-26 In this book Rev Dr Samuel AyeteNyampong has revealed his passion for the good quality of life for the ageing population in Africa and the development of Pastoral Gerontology courses in Theological Institutions across Africa This book is a resource material for building the capacity of church leaders in the provision of care and support for the ageing population in Africa All who read this book will find it inspiring full of deep thoughts and a challenge to the church and state thereby provoking sensitivity to the needs of the ageing population in Africa This book is highly recommended for church leaders theological students students of Gerontology and to all who have a passion to promote the quality of life of the ageing population Empowerment and Older People Joy Bounds, Helen Hepburn, 1996

Empowering Frail Elderly People Duncan P. Boldy, Leonard F. Heumann, Mary McCall, 2000-11-30 This book provides a unique analysis of provider environment client and societal based obstacles to the empowerment of frail elderly persons in a philosophical framework of social values as well as an applied framework wherein a variety of international case studies by a distinguished board of contributors provide concrete examples of the feasibility of achieving real empowerment Empowerment means different things to different people in the context of housing health and social service delivery This book analyzes the various definitions of the concept and practice of the empowerment of frail older persons and then discusses the definitions in a philosophical framework of social values regarding aging and the older person Each chapter demonstrates the feasibility of achieving increased empowerment of older persons even those with severe physical or mental disability True empowerment of older persons in every country requires time energy money and commitment to the goal This book will be of interest to academic as well as professional audiences in areas of Gerontology Psychology Sociology and Family Studies Caregivers and policymakers will also find this analysis useful Lesbians, Gays, & the Empowerment Perspective Carol Thorpe Tully,2000 The author offers practical applications for the social worker and client at the micro mezzo and macro levels Eye opening case studies are provided for each age group and cover everything from defining problems identifying the underlying issues causing them understanding the role of homophobia and the application of the empowerment perspective Empowering Older People Daniel Thursz,Charlotte Nusberg,Johnnie Prather,1995 Identifies existing barriers and proposes successful means for overcoming obstacles by generating income suitable housing and supportive associations and services for the older citizen worldwide Human Rights of Older People Claudia Martin,Diego Rodríguez-Pinzón,Bethany Brown,2015-07-11 This book focuses on descriptions of the developments in legal frameworks and policies regarding the human rights of older persons First it covers the policies adopted and practices developed at the universal system particularly within the sphere of the United Nations Second it includes a side by side comparison of the work of regional human rights mechanisms which have picked up some momentum in the past decade Through its inclusion of law policy and current processes the widest net possible has been cast to collect a descriptive resource for advocates Overall we hope that this book contributes to a better understanding of the current limitations and possibilities that international institutions offer to uphold the human rights of older persons We expect that this information will allow states and other policy makers to move forward with the international recognition of the human rights of older persons We know this is only a first effort in compiling and reporting the standards that are being produced by different international institutions But we have no doubt that many others will follow with their expert analysis of these emerging standards and that the ongoing discussion will finally crystalize in international human rights binding instruments explicitly recognizing the universal rights of older persons The Disability Support Worker Geoff Arnott,2020-04-13 The third edition of The Disability Support Worker meets the needs of people who adopt a person centred approach in their work The wholly Australian text includes information about the National Disability Insurance Scheme and other required reforms consistent with the United Nations convention on the Rights of People with Disabilities This text supports training and skills development for the CHC43115 Certificate IV in Disability Revisions for this edition reflect changes to the training package particularly upgrading competencies dealing with individualised support empowerment and facilitation consistent with a strengths based approach Premium online teaching and learning tools are available on the MindTap platform Learn more about the online tools cengage.com/au/mindtap Counseling Older People Charlene M. World Report on Ageing and Health World Health Organization, 2015-10-22 The WHO World report on ageing and health is not for the book shelf it is a living breathing testament to all older people who have fought for their voice to be heard at all levels of government across disciplines and sectors Mr Bjarne Hastrup President International Federation on Ageing and CEO DaneAge This report outlines a framework for action to foster Healthy Ageing built around the new concept of functional ability This will require a transformation of health systems away from disease based curative models and towards the provision of older person centred and integrated care It will require the development sometimes from nothing of comprehensive systems of long term care It will require a coordinated response from many other sectors and multiple levels of government And it will need to draw on better ways of measuring and monitoring the health and functioning of older populations These actions are likely to be a sound investment in society s future A future that gives older people the freedom to live lives that previous generations might never have imagined The World report on ageing and health responds to these challenges by recommending equally profound changes in the way health policies for ageing populations are formulated and services are provided As the foundation for its recommendations the report looks at what the latest evidence has to say about the ageing process noting that many common perceptions and assumptions about older people are based on outdated stereotypes The report s recommendations are anchored in the evidence comprehensive and forward looking yet eminently practical Throughout examples of experiences from different countries are used to illustrate how specific problems can be addressed through innovation solutions Topics explored range from strategies to deliver comprehensive and person centred services to older populations to policies that enable older people to live in comfort and safety to ways to correct the problems and injustices inherent in current systems for long term care

Empowering Older People, 1992 Education for the Elderly in the Asia Pacific Pennee Narot, Narong Kiettikunwong, 2021-09-25 In many countries across the Asia Pacific region people are adapting to the new demographic shift but there is nonetheless much concern This book documents the various educational approaches rendered by both public and private sectors to enable elderly individuals in their own countries to re engage in society more inclusively to stay longer in the labour market and to become less dependent on the state or their families In order to produce active healthy and productive aging citizens the experiments showcased by this book highlight how adaptive action is needed across many policy areas with emphasis on shaping structural differences in the composition and organisation of higher education systems that can better foster lifelong learning among elderly citizens The book is a great venue to underline the interplay of the theory and practices of vastly complex challenges
