In the World, But Not of the World Andrew L. Fitz-Gibbon,2000-01-01 In the World But Not of the World explores the threefold tension among Alasdair MacIntyre's prognosis for Western society the desires of some for a social transformation with a Christian moral vision at the sacred centre and a baptist understanding of Christianity as essentially voluntary non-sacralist discipleship Andrew Fitz Gibbon uses five contemporary Christian social thinkers from different traditions as conversation partners Through his examination of these thinkers Fitz Gibbon explores how the church may continue to truthfully narrate the Christian story in the midst of the moral tensions of late capitalist Western society His creative conclusion is that the church at the beginning of the twenty first century can move toward a resolution of the central tension of being in the world but not of the world through a synthesis of the believers church tradition and an affirmation of communitarian liberal democracy

The Fragility of Order George Weigel,2018-04-27 One of America s most prominent public intellectuals brings thirty five years of experience in Washington and Rome to bear in analyzing the turbulence that characterizes world politics American public life and the Catholic Church in the early twenty first century In these bracing essays George Weigel reads such events as the First World War the collapse of Communism and the Obama and Trump presidencies through a distinctive cultural and moral lens even as he offers new insights into Pope Francis and his challenging pontificate Throughout two of Weigel s key convictions that ideas have consequences for good and ill and that the deepest currents of history flow through culture illuminate political and economic life and the life of the Church in ways not often appreciated or understood Many of the chapters in this book originated in George Weigel s annual William E Simon Lecture which since 2001 has become a major event in Washington D C They are unique in their application of philosophical and theological perspectives to the issues of history and politics enabling the reader to see current events in a deeper way

Fasching,Professor Emeritus of Religious Studies Darrell J Fasching,1993-01-01 This book addresses the problem of religion ethics and public policy in a global technological civilization It attempts to do what narrative ethicists have said cannot be done to construct a cross cultural ethic of human dignity human rights and human liberation which respects the diversity of narrative traditions It seeks to do this without succumbing to either ethical relativism or ethical absolutism The author confronts directly the dominant narrative of our technological civilization the Janus faced myths of Apocalypse or Utopia Through this myth we view technology ambivalently as both the object of our dread and the source of our hope The myth thus renders us ethically impotent the very strength of our literal utopian euphoria sends us careening toward some literal apocalyptic final solution The demonic narrative that dominated Auschwitz killing in order to heal is part of this Janus faced technological mythos that emerged out of Hiroshima And it is this mythic narrative which underlies and structures much of public policy in our nuclear age This book proposes a coalition of members of holy communities and secular groups organized to prevent any future eruptions of the demonic Its goal is to construct a bridge not only over the abyss between religions East and West but also between religious and secular ethics
