Patterns of Thought in Africa and the West Robin

Horton,1997-07-13 Robin Horton s critical and creative writings on African religious thought have influenced anthropologists philosophers and all those interested in the comparative study of religion and thought This selection of some of his classic papers with a new introduction and postscript by the author traces Horton s theoretical ideas over thirty years In attempting to understand African religious thought he also tackles broader issues in the history and sociology of thought such as secularisation and modernisation Part I is a critical assessment of two established interpretive approaches the Symbolist and the Theological Part II proposes an alternative Intellectualist approach that emphasises the structural and processual similarities between religious and scientific thinking The postscript appraises the Intellectualist approach in the light of theorising about religion and world views

Key Topics of Study Jessica Kuper,2022-01-26 First published in 1987 Key

Topics of Study gives an updated overview of the various disciplines and areas of study which go to make up the social sciences today The essays deal expertly with the various branches of the social sciences from anthropology to Women s Studies and include a useful bibliography for each topic All the topics have been described succinctly and are comprehensible even to a casual reader The book highlights the interdisciplinary nature of the social sciences and outlines the foundational arguments of various disciplines This reference book can be read by everyone but will be particularly handy for students of the social sciences      Introduction to Comparative and International Education Jennifer Marshall, 2014-11-30 Comparative and international education is an increasingly important area of study This book introduces major themes surrounding globalisation and education giving you a nuanced understanding of key debates thinkers and sources of information Important theories and research exploring how globalisation has influenced educational practice are critically examined providing you with an understanding of relevant social economic historical and cultural factors Coverage includes Case studies from around the world raising thought provoking questions on chapter topics How to undertake research using significant secondary sources of comparative international data including OECD PISA TIMMS The relationship between development education and inequality The purpose and role of multicultural and citizenship education Gender and education in a global context This is essential reading for students on undergraduate Education Studies degrees and for similar courses covering comparative and international education      Handbook of Classical Sociological Theory Seth Abrutyn, Omar Lizardo, 2021-11-01 This is the first handbook focussing on classical social theory It offers extensive discussions of debates arguments and discussions in classical theory and how they have informed contemporary sociological theory The book pushes against the conventional classical theory pedagogy which often focused on single theorists and their contributions and looks at isolating themes capturing the essence of the interest of classical theorists that seem to have relevance to modern research questions and theoretical traditions This book presents new approaches to thinking about theory in relationship to sociological methods      Handbook of Contemporary Sociological Theory Seth Abrutyn, 2016-06-22 This Handbook provides the hidden common threads that tie sociological inquiry together and featuring eminent scholars it separates itself from its predecessors in substance and organization Rather than rehashing old debates or longingly gazing at the past this book presents sociologists with new ways of conceptualizing the organization and presentation of sociological theory At the heart of this Handbook's vision is the twin goals of making theory a viable enterprise by reconceptualizing how we teach theory and keeping theory closely tied to its empirical applications Three strategies are offered 1 Elucidating how classic issues like integration or interaction are interrogated today 2 Presenting a coherent vision of the social levels of reality that theorists work on such as communities groups and the self as well as how the coherence of these levels speaks to the macro micro link and 3 Theorizing the social world rather than celebrating theorists or theories that is one can look at how theory is used holistically to understand the constraints the social world places on our lived experience or the dynamics of social change Hence in the second decade of the 21st century it has become clear that sociology is at a crossroads as the number of theorists and amount of theory available is increasingly unmanageable and unknowable by the vast majority of professionals and students As such this Handbook of Contemporary Sociological Theory presents the novice and the expert with the a roadmap for traversing this crossroad and building a more coherent robust and cumulative sociology

books maps out the territory of international law and religion challenging received traditions in fundamental aspects On the one hand the connection of international law and religion has been little explored On the other most of current research on international legal thought presents international law as the very victory of secularization By questioning that narrative of secularization this book approaches these traditions from a new perspective From the Middle Ages early conceptualizations of rights and law to contemporary political theory the chapters bring to life debates concerning the interaction of the meaning of the legal and the sacred The contributors approach their chapters from an array of different backgrounds and perspectives but with the common objective of investigating the mutually shaping relationship of religion and law The collaborative endeavour that this volume offers makes available substantial knowledge on the question of international law and religion
