Jewish Men and the Holocaust: Sexuality, Emotions, Masculinity Florian Zabransky, 2024-10-21. During the Holocaust amid death and violence Jewish men were not mere powerless victims. Linking gender studies with a history of sexuality and emotions will highlight intimate agency power struggles negotiations of relationships social dynamics and representations of masculinities. Considering the agency and vulnerability will further convey intimate choices the representation of masculine ideals intimate violence and the expression of various emotions such as honour and love. As research on the Holocaust often links women with sexuality or portrays women as gendered beings it is crucial to excavate the intimate hidden lives of Jewish men and their specific intimate experiences as men. The analysis not only demonstrates how Jewish men remember and make sense of their experiences but also how they chose to form the narrative and how they represented their ordeal in four chapters namely ghettos concentration camps Jewish resistance in the countryside and finally DP camps in the aftermath of the Holocaust. The consideration of these four spaces allows a nuanced innovative understanding of the intimate history of Jewish men during the Holocaust i.e. how some men established male dominated structures and established intimate strategies to find solace and pleasure.

The Politics of Emotions, Candidates, and Choices Heather E. Yates, 2016-05-29. Anchored in the idea that political campaigns matter to electoral outcomes The Politics of Emotions, Candidates and Choices analyzes the dynamics of emotional voting and decision making over the course of three presidential elections between 2004 and 2012. Each presidential campaign reflects a unique tone and mood which influences voters perceptions of choices and candidate image. Accounting for the idiosyncratic nature of a campaign environment and a candidate s message this analysis isolates specific emotional dimensions that were influential on voters appraisals of specific campaign issues. Relying on the Affective Intelligence theory and the Transfer of Affect thesis to narrate the causal relationships between voters emotional responses and issue appraisals this book illustrates the specific electoral contexts when voters emotions are trusted as political knowledge and transferred to their beliefs about certain policies.

Engaging Bodies Ann Cooper Albright, 2013-12-03. Winner of the Selma Jeanne Cohen Prize in Dance Aesthetics 2014. For twenty five years Ann Cooper Albright has been exploring the intersection of cultural representation and somatic identity in dance. For Albright dancing is a physical inquiry a way of experiencing and participating in the world and her writing reflects an interdisciplinary approach to seeing and thinking about dance In her engagement as both a dancer and a scholar Albright draws on her kinesthetic sensibilities as well as her intellectual knowledge to articulate how movement creates meaning Throughout Engaging Bodies movement and ideas lean on one another to produce a critical theory anchored in the material reality of dancing bodies This blend of cultural theory and personal circumstance will be useful and inspiring for emerging scholars and dancers looking for a model of writing about dance that thrives on the interconnectedness of watching and doing gesture and thought Hardcover is un jacketed Men, mental health, and suicide Anne Cleary, Derek M. E. Beamish,Pawan K. Singal,Naranjan S. Dhalla,2012-12-06 It has been known or suspected for centuries that there is an association between mind and emotions and the occurrence of heart disease and sudden death During the past fifty years this relationship has become identified with the concept of Stress a notion developed and popularized by Hans Selye In recent years there has been an upward surge of interest in stress by scientists in several disciplines and by the general public. Although books, journal articles, seminars, and media programs devoted to stress now abound, the definition, manifestations, mechanisms, and management of stress remain uncertain and controversial. In an attempt to clarify the situation, an International Symposium on Stress and Heart Disease was held in Winnipeg, Canada, June 26-29, 1984, and the proceedings form the basis of this book and its companion volume, Pathogenesis of Stress-Induced Heart Disease. Although most species which have ever existed are now extinct, through countless millennia the human species has successfully adapted to changing conditions. Stressors such as ice ages, predators, and parasites, wars, famine, and plague, and now it is coping with rapidly changing social, economic, and political circumstances. Such adaptation occurs at all levels of life: at the molecular level within the cell, at the level of the whole cell, in the groups of cells as organs in the entire organism or individual, and in some cases in the society in which the individual lives.
