Gender, Space and Time

Dorothy Moss,2006-01-01 Drawing on the work of Henri Lefebvre and Barbara Adam Gender Space and Time is a brilliant study that offers a unique and original threefold conceptualization of how space and time is developed and applied in an empirical study of women s lives Author Dorothy Moss focuses on the everyday practice and experience of women higher education students at a community college in northern England Women s action is considered in relation to the complex and interconnected spheres of paid work home leisure community and higher education Through highlighting concepts of space and time the complex relationship between networks of power and personal action gains visibility Moss conceptualizes women as centers of action and demonstrates the ways in which they construct personal pathways connect different spheres of experience integrate new time demands into the multiple rhythms of their everyday lives and carve out personal space

Gender Space and Time is a timely and compelling work certain to be of interest to scholars of sociology women s studies and anthropology

Emotions and Religious Dynamics Nathaniel A. Warne,2016-05-13 We all feel emotions and are moved to action by them Religious communities often select and foster certain emotions over others Without understanding this it is hard to grasp the way groups view the world and each other Often it is the underlying emotional pattern of a group rather than its doctrines that either divides it from or attracts it to others These issues so important in today s world are explored in this book in a genuinely interdisciplinary way by anthropologists psychologists theologians and historians of religion and in some detailed studies of well and less well known religious traditions from across the world

An Invitation to the Sociology of Emotions Scott Harris,2015-06-26 Unique in its approach Invitation to the Sociology of Emotions treats neophytes as its primary audience giving students a brief but thorough introduction to the sociology of emotions Including research examples exercises and lists of further reading this text explains as clearly as possible some of the most interesting theoretical concepts that animate sociological research on emotions Gendered Journeys, Mobile Emotions Gillian

Reynolds,2016-04-22 It is increasingly acknowledged that an analysis of emotions is necessary to fully understand the social world and recent research on transport travel and mobilities has begun to consider the gendered nature of public and personal life in relation to this sphere The focus of this multidisciplinary and auto biographical volume is the emotional relationship that individuals and groups have with different means of travel Attention is given to a variety of travel experiences including travelling in trains planes cars buses and ships as well as biking cycling running and walking from the perspective of travellers and those who earn their living in assisting these experiences of others Imaginary travel and the relationships between art and travel are also considered Adopting innovative approaches to experiential material ranging from personal memories to empirical research Gendered Journeys Mobile Emotions opens up and illuminates an interdisciplinary debate about the gendered emotive and emotional nature of travelling Emotion and Discourse in L2

Narrative Research Matthew T. Prior,2015-10-22 This book examines the interactional management of emotionality in second language autobiographical interview research Advancing a discursive constructionist approach it offers a timely methodological and reflexive perspective that brings into focus the dynamic and dilemmatic aspects of interviewee and interviewer identities and experiences and it makes visible the often unexpected and unseen consequences for the research project and beyond The author weaves together critical discussion and empirical analysis based on longitudinal narrative based research with adult immigrants from Southeast Asia living in the US and Canada This interdisciplinary book will be compelling reading for students researchers and others interested in emotion narrative discourse identity interaction interviews and qualitative research Mixed Emotions Kay Milton,Marushka Svasek,2020-08-28 Emotions are of increasing interest in all the human sciences In the past two decades a growing number of anthropologists have explored emotional dynamics in a variety of geographic and cultural settings and have developed various at times conflicting theories of emotion This book fills a major gap by providing a concise introduction to the anthropology of emotions that outlines some of the major themes and controversies Drawing on fieldwork undertaken in Europe Japan and Melanesia the authors explore how consciousness memory identity and politics are intimately related to emotional processes A broad range of case studies covers such topics as how fear is managed in Belfast how Spanish gypsies grieve and why Japanese tourists are drawn to monkey parks This book will be of interest to anyone seeking to understand the formative impact emotions have on culture and society in an increasingly globalized world American Masculinities: A Historical Encyclopedia Bret
