Empires Edge Travels In Southeastern Europe Turkey And Central Asia:

Empire's Edge Scott L. Malcomson, 1995-10-17 This travel book explores the forgotten countries on the edge of the new Europe Romania Bulgaria Turkey and Uzbekistan Mixing anecdote and reportage with history and legend Malcomson teases out the long running tensions between nation and empire whether Roman Byzantine Ottoman or European By the author of Tutarani A Political Journey in the Pacific Islands

Empire's Edge Scott L. Malcomson, 1994-01 This book brings together Alan Bennett's diaries for 1980 1995 with reminiscences and reviews the diary he kept during the production of his very first play Forty Years On which starred John Gielgud together with hilarious accounts of his many television plays notably An Englishman Abroad and A Private Function At the heart of the book is The Lady in the Van the true account of Miss Mary Shepherd a homeless tramp who took up residence in Bennett's garden and stayed for fifteen years From his now legendary address at Russell Harty's memorial service to recollections of growing up in Leeds Writing Home gives us a unique and unforgettable portrait of one of England's leading playwrights

The Balkans and the West Andrew Hammond, 2017-03-02 This collection of essays locates investigates and challenges the manner in which the Balkans and the West have constructed each other since 1945 Scholars from the two sections of the continent explore a wide range of fiction film journalism travel writing and diplomatic records both to analyse Western European balkanism and to study Balkan representations of the West over the last fifty years The first section looks back to the Cold War examining the divergent often favourable images of the Balkans that existed in Western culture as well as the variety of responses that appeared in South East European writings on the West The second section analyses the transitions that took place in representation during the 1990s Here contributors explore both the harsh denigration of the Balkans which came to dominate western discourse after the initial euphoria of 1989 and the emerging tradition of contesting Western balkanism in South East European cultural production Through this dual emphasis the volume exposes the representational practices that help to maintain a deeply divided Europe and challenges the economic and political injustices that result Despite the rise to prominence of postcolonial theory with its awareness of global inequality the current crises in many parts of South East Europe have received scant attention in literary and cultural studies The Balkans and the West addresses this deficiency Ranging in focus from Serbian cinema to Romanian travel literature from Western economic writings to Yugoslav fiction and from public discourse in Albania to NATO's vast propaganda machine the essays offer wide insight into representation and power in the contemporary European context

Balkan Departures Wendy Bracewell, Alex Drace-Francis, 2009-05-01 In writings about travel the Balkans appear most often as a place travelled to Western accounts of the Balkans revel in the different and the exotic the violent and the primitive traits that serve according to many commentators as a foil to self congratulatory definitions of the West as modern progressive and rational However the Balkans have also long been travelled from The region's writers have given accounts of their travels in the West and elsewhere saying something in the process about themselves and their place in the world The analyses presented here ranging from those of 16th century Greek humanists to 19th century Romanian reformers to 20th century writers socialists and men of the world suggest that travellers from the region have also created their own identities through their encounters with Europe Consequently this book challenges assumptions of Western discursive hegemony while at the same time exploring Balkan Occidentalisms Venue 2 Brenkman,2013-12-19 This review of modern literature includes fiction by Han Ong and Ida Fink and a selection of reportage including Scott L Malcolmson's article on white Christian militia in Oklahoma Bodo Morshauser on neo nazi street life in Berlin and the Venue critics on Hong Kong and literary debates Cosmopolitics Pheng Cheah,Bruce Robbins,Social Text Collective,1998 Eminent contributors look at the present and future of cosmopolitanism and its relationship to nationalism Nationalism and the nation state have recently come under siege their political dominance gradually eroding under the strain of such forces as ethnic strife religious fundamentalism homogenizing global capitalism and the unprecedented movements of people and populations across cultures countries even cyberspace A resurgent cosmopolitanism has emerged as a viable and alternative political project In Cosmopolitics a renowned group of scholars and political theorists offers the first sustained examination of that project its inclusive and often universalist claims and its tangled and sometimes volatile relationship to nationalism Understood generally as a fundamental commitment to the interests of humanity traditional cosmopolitanism has been criticized as a privileged position an aloof detachment from the obligations and affiliations that constrain nation bound lives and move people to political action Yet as these essays make clear contemporary cosmopolitanism arises not from a disengagement but rather from well defined cultural historical and political contexts The contributors explore a feasible cosmopolitanism now beginning to emerge and consider the question of whether it can or will displace nationalism which needs to be rethought rather than dismissed as obsolete Intellectually provocative and erudite this interdisciplinary volume presents a diverse array of critical perspectives assessing both the ideal enterprise and the current realities of the rapidly developing cosmopolitical movement Turkey and the World Sedat Laçiner,2001 Literature of Travel and Exploration Jennifer Speake,2014-05-12 Containing more than 600 entries this valuable resource presents all aspects of travel writing There are entries on places and routes Afghanistan Black Sea Egypt Gobi Desert Hawaii Himalayas Italy Northwest Passage Samarkand Silk Route Timbuktu writers Isabella Bird Ibn Battuta Bruce Chatwin Gustave Flaubert Mary Kingsley Walter Raleigh Wilfrid Thesiger methods of transport and types of journey balloon camel grand tour hunting and big game expeditions pilgrimage space travel and exploration genres buccaneer narratives guidebooks New World chronicles postcards companies and societies East India Company Royal Geographical Society Society of Dilettanti and issues and themes censorship exile orientalism and tourism For a full list of entries and contributors a generous selection of sample entries and more visit the Literature of Travel and Exploration An Encyclopedia website The Dust Of Empire Karl E. Meyer,2008-08-05 When Charles de Gaulle learned that France's former colonies in Africa had chosen independence the great general shrugged dismissively They are the dust of empire But as Americans have learned particles of dust from remote and seemingly medieval countries can at great human and material cost jam the gears of a superpower In The Dust of Empire Karl E Meyer examines the present and past of the Asian heartland in a book that blends scholarship with reportage providing fascinating detail about regions and peoples now of urgent concern to America the five Central Asian republics the Caspian and the Caucasus Afghanistan Iran Pakistan and long dominant Russia He provides the context for America's war on terrorism for Washington's search for friends and allies in an Islamic world rife with extremism and for the new politics of pipelines and human rights in an area richer in the former than the latter He offers a rich and complicated tapestry of a region where empires have so often come to grief a cautionary tale War of the Words Joy Press, 2001
