Entrepreneur Awakening Barb Stuhlemmer, 2017-09. Awakening is an opening up to an understanding that was once unknown. It really refers to change. Accepting the change from employee to business owner is your first step in an entrepreneurial awakening. As I became more awake, the rate of change in my understanding increased. There is no cap on knowledge. Although I have come a long way from those first days of business ownership, I can see there is much I have yet to experience, and I accept that there are things I do not know that I do not know. Immigrant Entrepreneurs Ivan Light, Edna Bonacich, 2023-09-01. A Decade in Preparation: Immigrant Entrepreneurs offers the most comprehensive case study ever completed of the causes and consequences of immigrant business ownership. Koreans are the most entrepreneurial of America's new immigrants. By the mid-1970s, Americans had already become aware that Korean immigrants were opening, buying, and operating numerous business enterprises in major cities. When Koreans flourished in small business, Americans wanted to know how immigrants could find lucrative business opportunities where native-born Americans could not. Somewhat later, when Korean black conflicts surfaced in a number of cities, Americans also began to fear the implications for intergroup relations of immigrant entrepreneurs who start in the middle rather than at the bottom of the social and economic hierarchy. Nowhere was immigrant enterprise more obvious or impressive than in Los Angeles, the world's largest Korean settlement outside of Korea and America's premier city of small business. Analyzing both the short-run and the long-run causes of Korean entrepreneurship, the authors explain why the Koreans could find, acquire, and operate small business firms more easily than could native-born residents. They also provide a context for distinguishing clashes of culture and clashes of interest which cause black Korean tensions in cities and for framing effective policies to minimize the tensions.

A decade in preparation Immigrant Entrepreneurs offers the most comprehensive case study ever completed of the causes and consequences of immigrant business ownership. Koreans are the most entrepreneurial of America's new immigrants. By the mid 19
