Northwestern Africa known as the Maghreb consists of Algeria, Libya, Mauritania, Morocco, Tunisia and Western Sahara. Recent changes in the political climate including the collapse of the Libyan regime in October 2011 and structural factors such as the decolonization of the countries within the Maghreb have escalated violence in the area exposing global powers including the United States to terrorist attacks. This is the first book of its kind to focus on the strategic planning of the United States as well as other world powers in the stabilization of the region. Global Security Watch: The Maghreb. Algeria, Libya, Morocco and Tunisia examines domestic regional and international policies as they relate to the area's culture, geography and history. Each of the book's seven chapters looks at the political and social stability of the land and features a discussion on such topics as interstate relations, regional integration, conflict resolution and the legislation governing security.

International Labour Documentation International Labour Organization. Central Library and Documentation Bureau, 1997-08. Postwar Migration in Southern Europe, 1950-2000 Alessandra Venturini, 2004-07-26 Managing migration promises to be one of the most difficult challenges of the twenty-first century. It will be even more difficult for southern European countries from which emigration has levelled off and to which immigration has become a significant economic issue. Southern Europe is close to other regions where the pressure to emigrate is intense; these regions have a high level of unemployment above the European Union average and a large informal sector often 15-25 per cent of their economies as a whole. This book analyses the southern European migration case using an economic approach. It combines a theoretical and an empirical approach on the fundamental migration issues: the decision to migrate, effects on the country of departure and country of destination and the effectiveness of policies in managing migration. It also explores the transformation due to migration of southern European countries in the 1980s and 1990s. Sustainable Development and Adjustment in the Mediterranean Countries Following the EU Enlargement Franco Praussello, 2006. Main Characteristic and Development Trends of Migration in the Arab World Jaroslav Bureš, 2008-01-01. Monografie se zaměřuje na popis a hodnocení historického a současného trendu migrace a stěhování lidí z Egyptu do země vlivu.
