Indigenous Dispossession M. Bianet Castellanos, 2020-12-15 Following the recent global housing boom tract housing development became a billion dollar industry in Mexico At the national level neoliberal housing policy has overtaken debates around land reform For Indigenous peoples access to affordable housing remains crucial to alleviating poverty But as palapas traditional thatch and wood houses are replaced by tract houses in the Yucatán Peninsula Indigenous peoples relationship to land urbanism and finance is similarly transformed revealing a legacy of debt and dispossession Indigenous Dispossession examines how Maya families grapple with the ramifications of neoliberal housing policies M Bianet Castellanos relates Maya migrants experiences with housing and mortgage finance in Cancún one of Mexico's fastest growing cities Their struggle to own homes reveals colonial and settler colonial structures that underpin the city's economy built environment and racial order But even as Maya people contend with predatory lending practices and foreclosure they cultivate strategies of resistance from waiting out the state to demanding Indigenous rights in urban centers As Castellanos argues it is through these maneuvers that Maya migrants forge a new vision of Indigenous urbanism Critical Perspectives in Rural Development Studies Saturnino Borrás Jr.,2013-09-13 Agrarian transformations within and across countries have been significantly and dynamically altered during the past few decades compared to previous eras provoking a variety of reactions from rural poor communities worldwide The recent convergence of various crises financial food energy and environmental has put the nexus between rural development and development in general back onto the center stage of theoretical policy and political agendas in the world today Confronting these issues will require re engaging with critical theories taking politics seriously and utilizing rigorous and appropriate research methodologies These are the common messages and implications of the various contributions to this collection in the context of a scholarship that is critical in two senses questioning prescriptions from mainstream perspectives and interrogating popular conventions in radical thinking This book focuses on key perspectives frameworks and methodologies in agrarian change and peasant studies The contributors are leading scholars in the field of rural development studies Henry Bernstein Terence J Byres Saturnino M Borrás Jr Marc Edelman Crist bal Kay Benedict Kerkvliet Philip McMichael Shahra Razavi Ian Scoones and Teodor Shanin This book was previously published as a special issue of the Journal of Peasant Studies Gender, Property and Politics in the Pacific Rebecca Monson,2023-01-26 Outlines how land disputes are entangled with gender ethnicity and territoriality shaping public authority and state formation Global Trends in Land Tenure Reform Caroline Archambault,Annelies Zoomers,2015-02-11 This book explores the gendered dimensions of recent land governance transformations across the globe in the wake of unprecedented pressures on land and natural resources These complex contemporary forces are reconfiguring livelihoods and impacting women s positions their tenure security and well being and that of their families Bringing together fourteen empirical community case studies from around the world the book examines governance transformations of land and land based resources resulting from four major processes of tenure change commercial land based investments the formalization of customary tenure the privatization of communal lands and post conflict resettlement and redistribution reforms Each contribution carefully analyses the gendered dimensions of these transformations exploring both the gender impact of the land tenure reforms and the social and political economy within which these reforms materialize The cases provide important insights for decision makers to better promote and design an effective gender lens into land tenure reforms and natural resource management policies This book will be of great interest to researchers engaging with land and natural resource management issues from a wide variety of disciplines including anthropology sociology development studies and political science as well as policy makers practitioners and activists concerned with environment development and social equity Latin American Law M. inheritance private property marriage and family relations contracts employment and business dealings and the court records and legal documents produced under private law are a rich source of information for anyone researching social political economic or environmental history But to utilize these records fully researchers need a fundamental understanding of how private law and legal institutions functioned in the place and time period under study This book offers the first comprehensive introduction in either English or Spanish to private law in Spanish Latin America from the colonial period to the present M C Mirow organizes the book into three substantial sections that describe private law and legal institutions in the colonial period the independence era and nineteenth century and the twentieth century Each section begins with an introduction to the nature and function of private law during the period and discusses such topics as legal education and lawyers legal sources courts land inheritance commercial law family law and personal status Each section also presents themes of special interest during its respective time period including slavery Indian status codification land reform and development and globalization

Power, Gender and Social Change in Africa Raj Bardouille, Margaret Grieco, 2009-03-26 Gender plays a hugely significant and too often under considered role in predicting how accessible resources such as education wage based employment physical and mental health care adequate nutrition and housing will be to an individual or community According to a 2001 World Bank report titled Engendering Development Through Gender Equality in Rights Resources and Voice enormous disparities exist between men and women in terms of basic rights and the power to determine the future both in Africa and around the globe A better understanding of the links between gender public policy and development outcomes would allow for more effective policy formulation and implementation at many levels This book through its discussion of the challenges achievements and lessons learned in efforts to attain gender equality sheds light on these important issues The book contains chapters from an interdisciplinary group of scholars including sociologists economists political scientists scholars of law anthropologists historians and others The work includes analysis of strategic gender initiatives case studies research and policies as well as conceptual and theoretical pieces With its format of ideas resources and recorded experiences as well as theoretical models and best practices the book is an important contribution to academic and political discourse on the intricate links between gender power and social change in Africa and around the world

Critical Perspectives on Food Sovereignty Marc Edelman, 2017-10-02 This volume is a pioneering contribution to the study of food politics and critical agrarian studies where food sovereignty has emerged as a pivotal concept over the past few decades with a wide variety of social movements on the ground experiments and policy innovations flying under its broad banner Despite its large and growing popularity the history theoretical foundations and political program of food sovereignty have only occasionally received in depth analysis and critical scrutiny This collection brings together both longstanding scholars in critical agrarian studies such as Philip McMichael Bina Agarwal Henry Bernstein Jan Douwe van der Ploeg and Marc Edelman as well as a dynamic roster of early and mid career researchers The ultimate aim is to advance this important frontier of research and organizing and put food sovereignty on stronger footing as a mobilizing frame a policy objective and a plan of action for the human future This volume was published as part one of the special double issue celebrating the 40th anniversary of the Journal of Peasant Studies      China's Rural Economy after WTO Aimin Chen,2019-05-23 China s Rural Economy after WTO discusses and analyses China s rural sector problems in detail including the areas of poverty income inequality the gender gap barriers of rural urban migration discrimination against rural workers poor rural governance and the impact of WTO membership It also tackles the important subjects of inadequate infrastructure and discriminatory credit services Strategies to modernize China s rural economy are proposed and the relevant experiences and lessons of other countries are analyzed      The Oxford Handbook of Latin American History Jose C. Moya,2011 This Oxford Handbook comprehensively examines the field of Latin American history      Rural Social Movements in Latin America Carmen Diana Deere,Frederick S. Royce,2018-04-23 A remarkable collection The chapters provide extremely useful information on a range of social movements generally not well covered in academic work and the coverage is provided by people who are either activists within the movements themselves or long time supporters Wendy Wolford University of North Carolina An original unique and excellent collection The book has great theoretical value and political relevance Saturnino M Borrás Jr Saint Mary s University Halifax All across Latin America rural peoples are organizing in support of broadly distinct but interrelated issues Food sovereignty agrarian reform indigenous and women s rights sustainable development fair trade and immigration issues are the focus of a large number of social movements found in countries such as Bolivia Colombia Mexico Nicaragua Brazil and Peru The contributors to Rural Social Movements in Latin America include academic researchers as well as social movement leaders who are seeking to effect change in their countries and communities As a group they are at the forefront of some of the most critical environmental social and political issues of the day This volume highlights the central role these movements play in opposition to the neoliberal model of development and offers fresh insights on emerging alternatives at the local national and hemispheric level It also illustrates and analyzes the similarities notably the struggle for sustainable livelihoods as well as the difference among these various peasant indigenous and rural women s movements      Handbook of Neoliberalism Simon Springer,Kean Birch,Julie MacLeavy,2016-07-07 Neoliberalism is easily one of the most powerful discourses to emerge within the social sciences in the last two decades and the number of scholars who write about this dynamic and unfolding process of socio spatial transformation is astonishing Even more surprising though is that there has until now not been an attempt to provide a wide ranging volume that engages with the multiple registers in which neoliberalism has evolved The Routledge Handbook of Neoliberalism seeks to offer a comprehensive overview of the phenomenon of neoliberalism by examining the range of ways that it has been theorized promoted critiqued and put into practice in a variety of geographical locations and institutional frameworks With contributions from over 50 leading authors working at institutions around the world the volumes seven sections will offer a systematic overview of neoliberalism s origins political implications social tensions spaces natures and environments and aftermaths in addressing ongoing and emerging debates The volume aims to provide the first comprehensive overview of the field and to advance the established and emergent debates in a field that has grown exponentially over the past two decades coinciding with the meteoric rise of neoliberalism as a hegemonic ideology state form policy and program and governmentality It includes a substantive introductory chapter and will serve as an invaluable resource for undergraduates graduate students and professional scholars alike
