Unexpected New Life Matthew J. Marohl,2012-01-18 from expected death comes unexpected new life The Gospel of Matthew does not shy away from the realities of struggle suffering doubt and death Yet from the first names in the genealogy to the last words spoken by Jesus the Gospel testifies to the promise that from expected death comes unexpected new life Through the actions of Tamar Rahab Ruth and Bathsheba we experience the expectation of death and the promise of unexpected new life In the birth story of Jesus Joseph suspects Mary of committing adultery It is this dilemma that is the focus of the narrative If he reveals her pregnancy she could be killed If he conceals her pregnancy he will be going against the law of the Lord What is a righteous man to do In Joseph s dilemma this experience of expected death the Gospel of Matthew proclaims the promise of unexpected new life The promise of unexpected new life is a theme that continues throughout Matthew s Gospel in the life and ministry of Jesus The call of his disciples is a call from death to new life The teaching of Jesus focuses on the experience of death and the promise of new life In both healing and curing Jesus brings unexpected new life to those who face death But it is the death and resurrection of Jesus that is the climax of unexpected new life in the Gospel of Matthew Even as Jesus experiences a most horrific and humiliating death in the crucifixion death and the grave do not have the final say In bearing witness to Jesus resurrection the Gospel of Matthew proclaims the magnificent promise of unexpected new life Matthew J Marohl invites you in these pages to read the Gospel of Matthew in a new way from a fresh perspective Integrating insights from the study of Mediterranean anthropology Marohl makes the cultural world of the Gospel come alive so that as you read Matthew again or perhaps for the first time you will certainly experience the powerful promise that from expected death comes unexpected new life From Oppression to Assertion Nirmala

Buch,2013-11-12 The book explores the experiences impact and responses of women in village panchayats in India after a Constitutional Amendment in 1992 made it mandatory to reserve one third positions for women Based on extensive field research with interviews of 1 200 panchayat representatives and community members in Madhya Pradesh Rajasthan and Uttar Pradesh states usually seen as low on social and gender indicators the book documents awareness motivation perceptions and participation levels of women elected in the first election following the Amendment with a follow up survey of the same panchayats in the next two elections This work maps the empowering impact on women s self the attitudes and perceptions of the family and responses of other social institutions It explodes the myth of women s disinterest in politics the entry of only affluent women and relatives of influential politicians and particularly of these women as proxy for their male kin. The recent policy announcements reserving more seats for women in panchayats from one third to one half makes this book topical and especially interesting in light of the opposition to the reservation of seats for women in state legislatures and the parliament.
