empty from the root shvi or hollow But emptiness does not mean nothing and instead refers to the absence of something to the fact an object has been negated What is found wanting A certain common way of existence entertained by most of us This book gives body to my intent to help understand emptiness clearly and distinctly so its salvic power may benefit as many as possible This is directly related to the fact that common Emptiness Meditation clears emotional and mental afflictions whereas seeing emptiness is a nondual state of mind fostering nondual perception thought and action These aspects of the awake mind lack substance obsession heal the obscurations and end the conflicts resulting from a lack of actions uprooting suffering

The Spiritual Life , Madhyamaka and Yogacara Jay L. Garfield,Jan Westerhoff,2015 Madhyamaka and Yogacara are the two principal schools of Mahayana Buddhist philosophy While Madhyamaka asserts the ultimate emptiness and conventional reality of all phenomena Yogacara is usually considered to be idealistic This collection of essays addresses the degree to which these philosophical approaches are consistent or complementary Indian and Tibetan doxographies often take these two schools to be philosophical rivals They are grounded in distinct bodies of sutra literature and adopt what appear to be very different positions regarding the analysis of emptiness and the status of mind Madhyamaka Yogacara polemics abound in Indian Buddhist literature and Tibetan doxographies regard them as distinct systems Nonetheless scholars have tried to synthesize the two positions for centuries This volume offers new essays by prominent experts on both these traditions who address the question of the degree to which these philosophical approaches should be seen as rivals or as allies In answering the question of whether Madhyamaka and Yogacara can be considered compatible contributors engage with a broad range of canonical literature and relate the texts to contemporary philosophical problems

Currents and Countercurrents Robert E. Buswell, Jr., 2005-05-31 Soon after the inception of Buddhism in the sixth or fifth century B C E the Buddha ordered his small band of monks to wander forth for the welfare and weal of the many a command that initiated one of the greatest missionary movements in world religious history But this account of a monolithic missionary movement spreading outward from the Buddhist homeland of India across the Asian continent is just one part of the story The case of East Asian Buddhism suggests another tale one in which the dominant eastward current of diffusion creates important eddies or countercurrents of influence that redound back toward the center These countercurrents have had significant even profound impact on neighboring traditions In East Asia perhaps the most important countercurrent of influence came from Korea the focus of this volume Chapters examine the role played by the Paekche kingdom in introducing Buddhist material culture especially monastic architecture to Japan and the impact of Korean scholiasts on the creation of several distinctive features that eventually came to characterize Japanese Pure Land Buddhism The lives and intellectual importance of the monks Sungnang fl ca 490 and Wonch'uk 613-696 are reassessed bringing to light their role in the development of early intellectual schools within Chinese Buddhism Later chapters discuss the influential teachings of the semi-legendary master Musang 684-762 the patriarch of two of the earliest schools of Chan the work of a dozen or so Korean monks active in the Chinese Tiantai tradition and the Huiyin monastery

Tsong-kha-pa's Final Exposition of Wisdom Jeffrey Hopkins, 2014-02-25 In fourteenth and fifteenth century Tibet there was great ferment about what makes enlightenment possible since systems of self liberation must show what factors pre-exist in the mind that allow for transformation into a state of freedom from suffering This controversy about the nature of mind which persists to the present day raises many questions This book first presents the final exposition of special insight by Tsong kha pa the founder of the Gelukpa order of Tibetan Buddhism in his medium length Exposition of the Stages of the Path as well as the sections on the object of negation and on the two truths in his Illumination of the Thought Extensive Explanation of Chandrakirti's Supplement to Nagarjuna's Treatise on the Middle It then details the views of his predecessor Dolpo pa Shayrap Gyeltsen the seminal author of philosophical treatises of the Jonangpa order as found in his Mountain Doctrine followed by an analysis of Tsong kha pa's reactions By contrasting the two systems Dolpo pa's doctrine of other emptiness and Tsong kha pa's doctrine of self emptiness both views emerge more clearly contributing to a fuller picture of reality as viewed in Tibetan Buddhism Tsong kha pa's Final Exposition of Wisdom brilliantly explicates ignorance and wisdom explains the relationship between dependent arising and emptiness shows how to meditate on emptiness and explains what it
