Fall Of The Imam Nawal El Saadawi:

The Fall of the Imam Nawal El Saadawi, 2020-01-18 Bint Allah knows herself only as the Daughter of God Born in a stifling male dominated state ruled by the Imam and his coterie of ministers she dreams of one day reaching the top of a distant hill visible through the bars of the orphanage window But Bint Allah s ambitions do not escape the attention of the Imam who never feels secure no matter how well he protects himself When the Imam falsely accuses Bint Allah of adultery and sentences her to death by stoning he is not prepared for what happens next A postmodern fantasia this powerful and poetic novel is a call to arms against those who use religion as a weapon against women The Fall of the Imam Nawāl Sa'dāwī, 2002

This powerful and poetic novel by Egypt s most interesting feminist Booklist raises awareness of the predicament of women in Egypt The book tells the story of Bint Allah a beautiful illegitimate girl whose father is the Imam the religious ruler in Islamic society believed to be representative of God Bint Allah is falsely accused by the Imam of adulterous relationships then sentenced to death by stoning It is through the eyes of Bint Allah that one can see the underlying hypocrisy of a male dominated religious state Men, Women, and Gods Fedwa Malti-Douglas, 2024-06-12 Men Women and God s is a pioneering study of the Arab world s leading feminist and most controversial woman writer Nawal El Saadawi Author of plays memoirs and such novels as Woman at Point Zero and The Innocence of the Devil El Saadawi has become well known in the West as well as in the Arab community for her unforgettable female heroes and explosive narratives which boldly address sexual violence female circumcision theology and other politically charged themes Her outspoken feminism and critique of patriarchy have also earned her the wrath of repressive forces in the Middle East Imprisoned in her native Egypt under Sadat El Saadawi is now among those on the death lists of Islamic religious conservatives In Men Women and God s Fedwa Malti Douglas makes the work of this important but little understood writer truly accessible Contending that El Saadawi s texts cannot be read in isolation from their Islamic and Arabic heritage Malti Douglas draws upon a deep knowledge of classical and modern Arabic textual traditions and on extensive conversations with Nawal El Saadawi to place the writer within her cultural and historical context With this impassioned and radical exegesis of El Saadawi s prolific output Malti Douglas has written a crucial study of one of the most controversial and influential writers of our time This title is part of UC Press s Voices Revived program which commemorates University of California Press s mission to seek out and cultivate the brightest minds and give them voice reach and impact Drawing on a backlist dating to 1893 Voices Revived makes high quality peer reviewed scholarship accessible once again using print on demand technology This title was originally published in 1995 The Dramatic Literature of Nawal El Saadawi Nawal El-Saadawi, 2012-02-27 Nawal El Saadawi s most recent play God Resigns at the Summit Meeting created an uproar in her native Egypt On the basis of the title alone officials declared the work heretical and charged El Saadawi with insulting the Almighty God not just Islam Her prosecutors requested that all her books be destroyed that she be arrested on return to Egypt and her Egyptian nationality be revoked In the play the prophets and great women gather for a meeting with God Satan arrives to tender his resignation but neither Jesus nor Mohammad nor Moses are willing to replace him Finally God himself resigns The second play in this collection is Isis a critique of the discriminatory rules that control women the daughters of Isis Both God Resigns and Isis incorporate key themes to El Saadawi s work that all religions are inimical to women and the poor that the oppression of women is reprehensible and not uniquely characteristic of the Middle East or the Third World and that free speech is fundamental to any society

The Challenge of Teaching English in Indonesian's Muhammadiyah Universities (1958-2005) Dewi Candraningrum,2008

Migrating Words and Worlds E. Anthony Hurley,Renée Brenda Larrier,Joseph McLaren,1999 The essays presented here demonstrating concepts of Pan Africanism which historically were concerned with colonialism racial identity and African unity extend the discussion of an Africa that exists beyond the continent and includes the Caribbean the Americas and Europe

The Essential Nawal El Saadawi Nawal El Saadawi,2013-07-04 The writings of Nawal El Saadawi are essential to anyone wishing to understand the contemporary Arab world Her dissident voice has stayed as consistent in its critique of neo imperialist international politics as it has in its denunciation of women s oppression both in her native Egypt and in the wider world Saadawi is a figure of international significance and her work has a central place in Arabic history and culture of the last half century Featuring work never before translated into English The Essential Nawal El Saadawi gathers together a wide range of Saadawi s writing From novellas and short stories to essays on politics culture religion and sex from extensive interviews to her work as a dramatist from poetry to autobiography this book is essential for anyone wishing to gain a sense of the breadth of Saadawi s work

The Innocence of the Devil Nawal El Saadawi,1998-11-04 Nawal El Saadawi s books are known for their powerful denunciation of patriarchy in its many forms social political and religious Set in an insane asylum The Innocence of the Devil is a complex and chilling novel that recasts the relationships of God and Satan of good and evil Intertwining the lives of two young women as they discover their sexual and emotional powers Saadawi weaves a dreamlike narrative that reveals how the patriarchal structures of Christianity and Islam are strikingly similar physical violation of women is not simply a social or political phenomenon it is a religious one as well While more measured in tone than Salman Rushdie s Satanic Verses Saadawi s novel is similar in its linguistic literary and philosophical richness Evoking a world of pain and survival that may be unfamiliar to many readers it speaks in a universal voice that reaches across cultures and is the author s most potent weapon

The Woman in the Muslim Mask Daphne Grace,2004-02-20 Western feminists have in the past singled out the veiling of women as a potent symbol of women s oppression under Islam Daphne Grace explores the far more complex and contested role of veiling over the last 120 years Looking at the ways in which the veil is used in literature and its representations in writing from the East and the West she shows how veiling has come to stand for both oppression and resistance Grace asks why at the start of the new millennium veiling seems more popular than ever and explores what veiling means for the women themselves Chapters are arranged geographically and chronologically beginning with the imperial gaze of Victorian England moving to the Arab Islamic world of the Middle East and the Maghreb and finally to India in the process exploring the nationalist religious political and cultural meanings of the veil in its many manifestations then and now Feminist Gothic, Critical Irrealism and Arab Women's World-Literature Roxanne Douglas,2025-08-13

This book moves the field of study of Arab women s writing on from the Anglophone preoccupation with the bravery that it takes to put pen to paper and instead focuses on what the pen actually does This book shows that Arab women writers innovate and utilise Gothic forms to live with the ghosts of foremothers who represent lost knowledges about violence and feminised heritage Examining contemporary Arab women s writing from the 1970s to the present through the lens of world literary systems and feminist theory this book details aesthetic patterns between decades nations and authors The works of canonical Arab feminist authors such as Nawal El Saadawi and Hanan Al Shaykh are put in conversation with those of contemporary authors such as Adania Shibli Joumana Haddad and Mansoura Ez Eldin These works are linked through their creative feminist theorisations of loss and living Muslims and Modernity

Clinton Bennett,2005-01-01 Voicing at least two Muslim opinions in each area of debate this book challenges the idea that all Muslims think identically While Muslims and Modernity is designed primarily for use as an undergraduate textbook reference to accessible Internet material Encyclopedia of Feminist Literature Mary Ellen Snodgrass,2015-04-22

Presents articles on feminist literature including significant authors themes and history Literature Suppressed on Religious Grounds Margaret Bald,2014-05-14 Literature Suppressed on Religious Grounds Revised Edition profiles the censorship of many such essential works of literature The entries new to this edition include extensive coverage of the Harry Potter series which has been frequently banned in the United States on the grounds that it promotes witchcraft as well as entries on two popular textbook series The Witches by Roald Dahl Women Without Men A Novel of Modern Iran and more Also included are updates to such entries as The Satanic Verses by Salman Rushdie and On the Origin of Species by Charles Darwin Historical

Companion to Postcolonial Literatures in English Prem Poddar,2019-08-07 This is the first reference guide to the political cultural and economic histories that form the subject matter of postcolonial literatures written in English The focus of the Companion is principally on the histories of postcolonial literatures in the Anglophone world Africa the Middle East South Asia South east Asia Australia and New Zealand the Pacific the Caribbean and Canada There are also long entries discussing the literatures and histories of those further areas that have also claimed the title postcolonial notably Britain East Asia Ireland Latin America and the United States The Companion contains 220 entries written by 150 acknowledged scholars of postcolonial history and literature covers major events ideas movements and figures in postcolonial histories long regional survey essays on historiography and women s histories Each entry provides a summary of the historical event or topic and bibliographies of postcolonial literary works and histories Extensive cross references and indexes enable readers to locate particular literary texts in their relevant historical contexts as well as to discover related literary texts and histories in other regions with ease Women's Activism in the Islamic Republic of Iran Samira Ghoreishi, 2021-03-21 Through an intersectional feminist re reading of the Habermasian theoretical framework this book analyses how women s activism has developed and operated in the Islamic Republic of Iran Chapters look at three key areas of women s activism in Iran how women deliberately engaged with media activism despite the government s controlling and repressive policies women s involvement in civil society organisations institutions and communities and cooperation through multilevel activism and women s activism in the political sphere and its connection with media and civil society activism despite the theocratic system Drawing upon interviews analyses of journal and newspaper articles and documentary non documentary films as well as personal experiences observations and communications the book examines to what extent Iranian women s rights groups and activists have collaborated not only with each other but with other social groups and activists to help facilitate the formation of a pluralist civil society capable of engaging in deliberative processes of democratic reform This book will be of interest to scholars in Gender Studies and Middle Eastern Studies particularly those who study women s and other social movements in Iran Global Arab Fiction Nadia Atia, Lindsey Moore, 2024-12-30 Global Arab Fiction explores twenty first century fiction set in north and east Africa the Gulf the Arab east and diaspora showing diversity and connections across Arab world contexts Nadia Atia and Lindsey Moore draw on a substantial literary corpus highlighting contemporary trends in what is available to Anglophone audiences and considering how Arab fiction circulates as a global commodity Global Arab Fiction begins by positioning the Arab novel as a global phenomenon It also explores the influence of literary prizes notably the International Prize for Arabic Fiction on the enhanced international visibility of Arab fiction this century The authors tackle the thorny issue of violence in representing Arab world contexts and spotlight queer Arab desire identity and community They address the rise of speculative Arab literary modes and show how both mobility and immobility challenge a global paradigm Global Arab Fiction illuminates a vibrant body of literature rooted in but not circumscribed by a region redefined by twenty first century global geopolitics This book offers new arguments about twenty first century Arab literary tropes modes consecration routes identities and contexts It is unmissable for readers interested in contemporary postcolonial Arab Middle Eastern and world literary studies Women's Rights in Islam Asmaa Shehata, 2023-11-20 The issue of Muslim women s rights never seems outdated and has become trendy in the post 9 11 environment That is the mainstream media and Western politicians often view Muslim women as victims of male patriarchy and frequently justify Western involvement in the Middle East and in other Muslim majority counties at least in part to rescue women Within this realm Nawal El Saadawi is a famous Egyptian writer whose writings focus on the struggle of Muslim women and are widely read in the Middle East and many Western societies as well Because of her bold feminist views on politics religions and gender she is described as the Simone de Beauvoir of the Arab world After the death of El Saadawi in 2021 a flurry of arguments and criticism in the Egyptian press and women s press around the world is created in which different social media platforms were filled with numerous comments and discussions of her writings and arguments Whereas some mourned El Saadawi and her dedication to women's issues others celebrated her death wishing her the worst punishment in the afterlife for what they described as her destructive thoughts This monograph genuinely analyzes her views on five controversial issues marriage polygamy divorce inheritance rights and veiling in light of Qur'anic exegeses offered by two classical scholars i.e. Muhammad ibn Jarir Al Tabari and Ismail ibn Umar Ibn Kathir and two contemporary Muslim feminists i.e. Amina Wadud and Azizah Al Hibri By taking a critical look at her views the book contributes not only to this ongoing debate but adds value to assessing El Saadawi's work and helps readers gain a greater understanding of her writings as well It also enables readers to comprehend the current tension between feminism and Islam by understanding the perspectives of both sides Since El Saadawi's writings are available in the Western countries the book would appeal to academics researchers on Islam and gender and Middle Eastern women as well as to lay audiences interested in women and gender in Muslim societies The Routledge

Companion to Race and Ethnicity Stephen M. Caliando, Charlton D. McIlwain, 2020-10-27 The second edition of The Routledge Companion to Race and Ethnicity offers readers a broad overview of scholarly exploration of the ways that humans have organized themselves and have been organized according to racial and ethnic divisions More than 80 scholars from around the world and representing multiple academic traditions contribute entries to this accessible yet sophisticated volume that addresses contemporary issues in historical context The first half of the book challenges readers to grapple with some of the most controversial aspects of categorization prejudice and discrimination through focused chapters ranging from the notion of Whiteness to the supposed biological rationale for racial categorization The second half is comprised of 70 shorter entries on specialized concepts persons and groups that are crucial to understanding these issues Taken as a whole this volume provides a broad multi-disciplinary and global overview of issues that continue to provide challenges to notions of equality and justice Reading between the "Red Lines", 2005 This report details ongoing government restrictions on classroom discussions research projects student activities campus demonstrations and university governance The report addresses conditions in public institutions including Cairo Alexandria Ain Shams and Hilwan Universities and private institutions like the American University in Cairo Publisher website Women Political Prisoners after the Spanish

Civil War Ruth Fisher, 2020-11-24 At the end of the Spanish Civil War the Nationalist government instigated mass repression against anyone suspected of loyalty to the defeated Republican side Around 200 000 people were imprisoned for political crimes in the weeks and months following 1st April 1939 including thousands of women who were charged with offences ranging from directing the home front to supporting their loved ones engaged in combat Many women wrote and published texts about their experiences seeking to make their voices heard and to counteract the dehumanising master narrative of the right wing victors that had criminalised their existence The memoirs of Communist women such as Tomasa Cuevas and Juana Doa have heavily influenced our understanding of life in prison for women under franquismo while texts by non Communist women have largely been ignored This monograph offers a comparative study of the life writing of female political prisoners in Spain focusing on six texts in particular the two volumes of Crucel de mujeres by Tomasa Cuevas Desde la noche y la niebla by Juana Do a R quien por la libertad by ngeles Garc a Madrid Abajo las dictaduras by Josefa Garcia Segret and Aquello sucedi as by ngeles Malonda All the texts share common themes such as describing the hunger and repression that all political prisoners suffered However the ideologically driven narratives of Communist women often foreground representations of resistance at the expense of exploring the emotional and intellectual struggle for survival that many women political prisoners faced in the aftermath of the Spanish Civil War This study nuances our understanding of imprisoned women as individuals and as a collective analysing how women political prisoners sought recognition and justice in the face of a vindictive dictatorship It also explores the women s response to the spirit of convivencia during the transition to democracy which once again threatened to silence them
