The Fall of a Kingdom Dwayne Grainger, Maria Wood, 2014-04-23 The book is about the children of five families who are driven from their homes They go on a journey through the Dark Forest to save their lives They encounter old family friends who take them in and teach them to be soldiers and look after themselves so that one day they could return to take back what is theirs by right and blood Together these children fight and survive It is also a life journey to them

Arab Archery Nabih Amnin Faris, Robert Potter Elmer, 2019-06-13 Almost the only source of detailed knowledge of early English archery is Toxophilus or the Schole of Shootynge which was written by Roger Ascham in 1542 and 1543 and was published in 1544 Arab Archery is nearly contemporary with that famous book probably preceding it by a few years and may be considered to be on an equal plane of merit This ancient Arabic manuscript is the only treatise on the archery of the medieval Orient that has been translated into English It is thorough and authoritative evidently the work of an expert bowman A vast amount of information concerning the long range artillery by which one eastern empire after another had been won is here brought forth into full light after having lain hidden for centuries It could be used as a textbook on archery today Second Language Prosody and Computer Modeling Okim Kang, David O. Johnson, Alyssa

Kermad, 2021-09-13 This volume presents an interdisciplinary approach to the study of second language prosody and computer modeling It addresses the importance of prosody's role in communication bridging the gap between applied linguistics and computer science The book illustrates the growing importance of the relationship between automated speech recognition systems and language learning assessment in light of new technologies and showcases how the study of prosody in this context in particular can offer innovative insights into the computerized process of natural discourse The book offers detailed accounts of different methods of analysis and computer models used and demonstrates how these models can be applied to L2 discourse analysis toward predicting real world language use Kang Johnson and Kermad also use these frameworks as a jumping off point from which to propose new models of second language prosody and future directions for prosodic computer modeling more generally Making the case for the use of naturalistic data for real world applications in empirical research this volume will foster interdisciplinary dialogues across students and researchers in applied linguistics speech communication speech science and computer engineering Fall of an Arrow Murray Peden, 1987-01-01 On February 20 1959 Prime Minister John Diefenbaker announced to the House of Commons the cancellation of the CF 105 Arrow Its development costs to that time were 340 million The Arrow was to be the world's unsurpassed interceptor aircraft Yet within two months of the Prime Minister's announcement six completed aircraft were dismantled and all papers and documents associated with the project were destroyed Here is the history and development of the Arrow the plane that would make Canada the leader in supersonic flight technology The Arrow was designed to fly at twice the speed of sound and carry the most advanced missile weapons system Here are the stories of the men and women who were in the vanguard of the new technology who had come from England Poland and the United States to make aviation history What led to the fall of the Arrow What were those pressures brought to bear on a young Conservative government that culminated in a senseless act of vandalism and ended any opportunity for Canada to supply its own military and air forces of the world with planes of the calibre of the Arrow Book jacket LIFE, 1950-09-11 LIFE Magazine is the treasured photographic magazine that chronicled the 20th Century It now lives on at LIFE.com the largest most amazing collection of professional photography on the internet Users can browse search and view photos of today's people and events They have free access to share print and
