Ballard, Patricia L. Hudson, 2013-07-24 A comprehensive and unsurpassed anthology of women writers from Appalachia Exceptional in diversity and scope Southern Historian Listen Here Women Writing in Appalachia is a landmark anthology that brings together the work of 105 Appalachian women writers including Dorothy Allison Harriette Simpson Arnow Annie Dillard Nikki Giovanni Denise Giardina Barbara Kingsolver Jayne Anne Phillips Janice Holt Giles George Ella Lyon Sharyn McCrumb and Lee Smith Editors Sandra L. Books in Print Supplement, 2002 Writing West Virginia Boyd Creasman, 2024-01-12 With their stirring depictions of a proud people striving for fulfillment in a land of natural beauty and economic hardship West Virginia authors have produced a body of work that is worthy of study and of celebration In Writing West Virginia Boyd Creasman examines the fiction and poetry of eight accomplished writers Davis Grubb Mary Lee Settle Breece D J Pancake Denise Giardina Irene McKinney Ann Pancake Jayne Anne Phillips and Pinckney Benedict who exemplify the rich but often overlooked literary heritage of the Mountain State Creasman identifies the varied ways in which these writers have grappled with the dynamics of place socioeconomic class and gender For Settle this expression has taken the form of historical novels chronicling the development of the state from its British settlement to the rise of the coal industry and the creation of a wealthy industrial class For other authors the struggle against poverty and lack of opportunity has been a central concern From the male protagonists of Grubb and Breece Pancake searching for ways to assert their masculinity when they cannot find gainful employment to the strong independent women of McKinney Giardina and Ann Pancake the characters in West Virginia literature have fought to transcend the challenges and limitations of living in the most Appalachian of states In the recent fiction of Phillips and Benedict elements of magical realism and fantasy are employed to create the possibility of transcendence for their characters shifting the focus from landscape to dreamscape and thereby suggesting exciting new directions for Appalachian literature Despite the remarkable talent of these writers only a handful of book length critical studies have focused on them and none have considered them as a group Writing West Virginia helps fill this gap in literary scholarship while opening up new paths for further exploration Boyd Creasman is a professor of English and vice president for academic affairs at West Virginia Wesleyan College where he won a number of teaching awards and taught Appalachian literature for fifteen years He has published scholarly articles in journals such as Studies in Humanities Studies in Short Fiction and Appalachian Journal Bowker's Guide to Characters in Fiction 2007, 2008-02 Encyclopedia of dictionary's original publication as well as older talents previously unknown or unacknowledged. For almost every writer found in the previous edition, a new biography has been commissioned. Drawn from the very best minds on southern literature and covering the full spectrum of its practitioners, Southern Writers is an indispensable reference book for anyone intrigued by the subject. American Book Publishing Record, 2003 Library Journal, 2003. Includes beginning Sept 15 1954 and on the 15th of each month Sept-May a special section. School library journal ISSN 0000-0035 called Junior Libraries 1954-May 1961. Also issued separately. Augustine's Confessions Annemaré Kotzé, 2004-08-01. This book is about the communicative purpose and the audience of the Confessions. It illuminates the degree to which the communicative purpose of the work is to convert its readers, i.e., a protreptic purpose, and the degree to which the target audience may be identified as Augustine's potential Manichaean readers. A brief survey of possible literary antecedents points to the existence of other works that consist of the same combination of an autobiographical section, a conversion story with a polemical and exegetical section, an argument that aims to convince the reader of the merits of a specific point of view that characterizes the Confessions. The book provides a new perspective on the meaning and structure of Augustine's often misunderstood masterpiece.
