

A romantic couple embracing on a beach at sunset. The woman has blonde hair and is wearing a patterned top, while the man has short dark hair and is wearing a dark long-sleeved shirt. They are both smiling and looking at each other. The background shows the ocean and a bright, hazy sunset sky.

Falling in Love Ayala Pines, Ayala Malach Pines, 2013-05-13 Falling in Love is the first book to unlock the mysteries of how and why we fall in love. Renowned psychologist Ayala Pines shows us why we fall for the people we do and argues convincingly that we love neither by chance nor by accident. She offers sound advice for making the right choices when it comes to this complicated emotion. Packed with helpful suggestions for those seeking love and those already in it, this book is about love's many puzzles. The second edition furthers the work of the popular and successful first edition. Falling in Love, 2006-05-31 Falling in love with all its accompanying problems was a subject of obsessive interest among writers and readers in the Ming Dynasty when society held strictly to arranged marriages. The stories in this engaging collection all deal with this theme in very different ways, sometimes comically, sometimes tragically. They portray young people choosing their own lovers, resorting to ingenious stratagems and risky escapades in defiance of contemporary mores. Chosen to represent the best works from the great age of the vernacular story, they offer an admirable introduction to the world of Chinese fiction in this era. All of the stories in Falling in Love have been translated especially for this volume and most appear here in translation for the first time. They are taken from two works: Constant Words to Awaken the World (Xing shi heng yan) and a related collection The Rocks Nod Their Heads (Shi dian tou), both published in the early seventeenth century.

Falling in Love Zachary Seager, 2025-04-03 The great subject of love, finding it, keeping it, losing it, has fascinated and consumed us since the beginning of time. Why do we fall in love? What does it mean? And how do we cope in relationships? Through essays and letters, these questions are tackled by an array of classic writers from ancient to modern times. Falling in Love explores romance, infatuation, and everything in between. In a letter of advice, poet Rainer Maria Rilke talks about how change is an inevitable part of relationships. Plato traces the idea of an other half to humanity's beginnings. Mae M. Franking relates the ups and downs of a couple from different cultures, whereas Emma Goldman sets out a lively debate separating marriage and love. Though Stendhal highlights how we fall into the trap of overidealising a loved one.
