Victorian Poetry and the Culture of the Heart Kirstie Blair,2006-04-27 Victorian Poetry and the Culture of the Heart is a significant and timely study of nineteenth century poetry and poetics It considers why and how the heart became a vital image in Victorian poetry and argues that the intense focus on heart imagery in many major Victorian poems highlights anxieties in this period about the ability of poetry to act upon its readers In the course of the nineteenth century this study argues increased doubt about the validity of feeling led to the depiction of the literary heart as alienated distant outside the control of mind and will This coincided with a notable rise in medical literature specifically concerned with the pathological heart and with the development of new techniques and instruments of investigation such as the stethoscope As poets feared for the health of their own hearts their poetry embodies concerns about a widespread culture of heartsickness in both form and content In addition concerns about the heart s status and actions reflect upon questions of religious faith and doubt and feed into issues of gender and nationalism This book argues that it is vital to understand how this wider culture of the heart informed poetry and was in turn influenced by poetic constructs Individual chapters on Barrett Browning Arnold and Tennyson explore the vital presence of the heart in major works by these poets including Aurora Leigh Empedocles on Etna In Memoriam and Maud while the wide ranging opening chapters present an argument for the mutual influence of poetry and physiology in the period and trace the development of new theories of rhythm as organic and affective Texas Midnight Caroline Burnes,2014-10-15 From enemies to lovers Proud Apache Anna Red Shoes had sworn revenge against Jeremy Masterson for the lies he d written about her family But when she confronted the famous author the passion that burned in her wasn t anger but the scorching heat of desire When she saw an answering spark in Jeremy s eyes Anna chose to disappear She hadn t expected to become the object of a manhunt She certainly hadn t expected Jeremy to come after her claiming she s put them both in danger But when he did Anna knew that more than her freedom was at stake she was falling in love with the man who d taken her captive Music of a Distant Drum ,2021-07-13 Music of a Distant Drum marks a literary milestone It collects 129 poems from the four leading literary traditions of the Middle East all masterfully translated into English by Bernard Lewis many for the first time These poems come from diverse languages and traditions Arabic Persian Turkish and Hebrew and span more than a thousand years Together they provide a fascinating and unusual window into Middle Eastern history Lewis one of the world s greatest authorities on the region s culture and history reveals verses of startling beauty ranging from panegyric and satire to religious poetry and lyrics about wine women and love Bernard Lewis one of the world s greatest authorities on the region s culture and history offers a work of startling beauty that leaves no doubt as to why such poets were courted by kings in their day Like those in the Rubaiyat of Omar Khayyam the poems here as ensured by Lewis s mastery of all the source languages and his impeccable style and taste come fully alive in English They are surprising and sensuous disarmingly witty and frank They provide a fascinating and unusual glimpse into Middle Eastern history Above all they are a pleasure to read They range from panegyric and satire to religious poetry and lyrics about wine women and love Lewis begins with an introduction on the place of poets and poetry in Middle Eastern history and concludes with biographical notes on all the poets This treasure trove of verse is aptly summed up by a quote from the ninth century Arab author Ibn Qutayba Poetry is the mine of knowledge of the Arabs the book of their wisdom the muster roll of their history the repository of their great days the rampart protecting their heritage the trench defending their glories the truthful witness on the day of dispute the final proof at the time of argument In one hand the Qur vn in the other a wineglass Sometimes keeping the rules sometimes breaking them Here we are in this world unripe and raw Not outright heathens not quite Muslims Mujir 12th century Heart's Blood Gail Dayton,2025-06-25 Master conjurer Grey Carteret regains consciousness in a London gutter next to a concerned street urchin and not far from the body of a man murdered by magic Some fool is hoping to use murder to raise a demon Arrested for the crime Grey must rely on the street urchin for help But the lad turns out to be a comely lass and she wants something in exchange Pearl Parkin a gently reared lady struggling to survive in London s slums sees magic as a way out of the life she finds herself trapped in But blackmailing Grey into making her his apprentice has unexpected consequences As they plunge into the hunt for the murderer Pearl discovers that the things she once desperately wanted are not so important after all and that she must risk her blood her heart and her very life to grasp the love she needs At the Publisher s request this title is being sold without Digital Rights Management Software DRM applied Alternative Approaches in Music Education Ann C. The Panoptikon Steven P. Pody,2008-12 The fool on the hill the prison keeper in the central spindle and other iterations of cosmocentrism Each of us is a universe and each distinct set of id perception rules and abides within the very center Daily and lifetime events swirl about us Sometimes we dispassionately observe sometimes we interact and sometimes we are acted upon whether we are willing participants or not Billions of universes come into existence and wink out of the random void like some great humanistic exercise in quantum physics Within these pages lie the occasionally offbeat threads of perception and musing of one single universe Sitting within the observation booth of my body which itself is not always sitting thank goodness but lately tends towards rust and entropy and trapped within its limits I think therefore I write poetry More or less We live within boundaries not sold in stores sizes may vary There exist the often inconvenient limits of governing physical law and further a total lack of freedom within the 4th dimension Many other boundaries are carefully crafted and self imposed to enclose the known and the safe Any universe is a holistic and limited construct Limitlessness exists as potential but we can't process the information Super agoraphobia implanted in the primal psyche So the walls come up All of these facets in sum amount to prison aplenty to occupy a lifetime of thought and emotion However what truly makes a universe distinctly ours when so many others inhabit it and so many immutable laws govern it is that it is seen through our perceptions and evaluated on a basis of perpetual personal appraisal And thus as an issue of perspective are we each a warden of The Panoptikon
