Families Without Villains American Families In An Era Of Change:

Families Without Villains Laura Lein,1984 Survey of the internal dynamics and sociological aspects of the modern family in the USA based on a sample of 24 dual career couples with young children examines such aspects as child care social networks homemaker activities fatigue and family models includes case studies of parents employment discusses social change trends Bibliography Women's Work, Families, and Health Kristen M. Swanson-Kauffman,1987 National Library of Medicine Current Catalog National Library of Medicine (U.S.), Case Study Methods Jacques Hamel,Stephane Dufour,Dominic Fortin,1993-09-15 In this introduction to understanding researching and doing case studies in the social sciences Hamel outlines several differing traditions of case study research including the Chicago School of Sociology the anthropological case studies of Malinowski and the French La Play school tradition He shows how each developed changed and has been practiced over time Suggestions for the practice of case studies are made for the novice reader and an additional feature is the extensive bibliography on case study methods in social science to allow for further exploration of the topic Mother Outlaws Andrea O'Reilly,2004-05-13 Feminist scholars of motherhood distinguish between mothering and motherhood and argue that the latter is a patriarchal institution that is oppressive to women Few scholars however have considered how mothering as a female defined and centred experience may be a site of empowerment for women This collection is the first to do so Mother Outlaws examines how mothers imagine and implement theories and practices of mothering that are empowering to women Central to this inquiry is the recognition that mothers and children benefit when the mother lives her life and practices mothering from a position of agency authority authenticity and autonomy Military Families A. Sue Goodman,1990 Research Design Catherine Hakim,2012-11-12 Providing a practical overview for graduates and professional researchers this book highlights the central issues involved in the design of medium to large scale social and economic research Covering both theoretical and policy research Hakim sets out the key features strengths and limitations of eight main types of study with illustrations from real life research of the kinds of questions each can best be used to answer This book also offers a more general pragmatic discussion of strategies for choosing between one design and another and on how different types of study can be successfully combined in wider ranging research programmes In this expanded second edition the author has added new material on areas of contemporary significance across the social and economic sciences New features to this edition are a chapter on cross national comparative studies more examples throughout the text of comparative research both within Europe and across modern societies discussions of student theses advocacy research selection effects and collaboration Journal of the Association for Research on Mothering ,2000 Work, Families, and Organizations Sheldon Zedeck,1992-03-17 The fifth book in the Frontiers of Industrial and Organizational Psychology Series sponsored by the Society for Industrial and Organizational Psychology a division of the American Psychological Association Examine the role of industrial and organizational psychology in the study of work family dynamics Twelve chapters embrace individual family organizational and societal levels of analysis and theory Mothers and Sons, 2000 Mothers and Mothering Penelope Dixon, 1991 Marriage and Family Jeffrey S. Turner, Donald B. Helms, 1988 The Impact of Racism on African American Families Paul C. Rosenblatt, 2016-03-03 In spite of the existence of statistics and numerical data on various aspects of African American life including housing earnings assets unemployment household violence teen pregnancy and encounters with the criminal justice system social science literature on how racism affects the everyday interactions of African American families is limited How does racism come home to and affect African American families If a father in an African American family is denied employment on the basis of his race or a wife is demeaned at work by racist slurs how is their family life affected Given the lack of social science literature responding to these questions this volume turns to an alternative source in order to address them literature Engaging with novels written by African American authors it explores their rich depictions of African American family life showing how these can contribute to our sociological knowledge and making the case for the novel as an object and source of social research As such it will appeal to scholars and students of the sociology of the family race and ethnicity cultural studies and literature

Contemporary Adulthood Jeffrey S. Turner, Donald B. Helms, 1989 Genealogical Journal, 1986 Current Catalog National Library of Medicine (U.S.), First multi year cumulation covers six years 1965 70 Revue internationale de sociologie René Worms, 1987 Choice, 1985 Reading Racism and the Criminal Justice System David Noel Baker, 1994

Beyond the Public/Domestic Dichotomy Janet Sharistanian, 1987-05-21 The eight essays in this volume explore the public or extra domestic lives of women examining the connections between their activities in the public and private domains The purpose underlying this theme is twofold first to counteract the common tendency to ignore the influence of women outside of the home and second to test some generalizations about women's status and social roles which have developed from feminist scholarship Taking as a starting point the model of cultural anthropologist Michelle Z. Rosaldo which suggests that asymmetry between the roles of men and women stems not from biology but from social custom the contributors go on to discuss and question various aspects of this theory
