Annotated Bibliography of Family Business Studies Pramodita Sharma,James J. Chrisman,Jess H. Chua,2012-12-06 Interest in the study of family business has increased significantly over the last decade The research on this subject and the related subject of entrepreneurship has developed in parallel within a number of different disciplines making it the perfect candidate for an annotated bibliography This book aims to catalog the major empirical theoretical and practical articles on family business Included for each article listed are a summary of key findings and a list of the methodologies and key conceptual models used It also features a review of the literature a discussion of how family businesses have been defined and agenda for future research into both family business and entrepreneurship studies Succession in Asian Family Firms S.

Janjuha-Jivraj,2005-11-30 Succession in Asian Family Firms examines the history and survival of family businesses in the South Asian Diaspora from an international perspective The book presents unique research across three continents focusing on significant communities in the UK USA and Kenya The book analyzes the influences on both the start up and survival of family firms exploring how family members negotiate their working practices The discussion provides a new perspective on issues central to the debate on family business succession whilst developing ideas on less familiar areas such as the role and influence of women through different cultural contexts

Culturally-sensitive Models of Family Business in Sub-Saharan Africa Vipin Gupta, 2008 The Routledge Companion to Entrepreneurship Ted Baker, Friederike Welter, 2014-09-15

Research in entrepreneurship has been booming with perspectives from a range of disciplines and numerous developing schools of thought It can be difficult for young scholars and even long time researchers to find their way through the lush garden of ideas we see before us The purpose of this book is to map the research terrain of entrepreneurship providing the perfect starting point for new and existing researchers looking to explore Topics covered range from emerging perspective through issues at the core of the field to innovative methodologies Starting off with a preface by Bill Gartner each section of the book brings together a world class set of established leading researchers and rising stars This considered comprehensive and conclusive companion integrates the recent debates in entrepreneurship research under one cover to provide a resource which will be useful across disciplinary boundaries and for a whole range of students and researchers

Minorities in Entrepreneurship Glenice J. Wood, M. J. Davidson, Sandra L. Fielden, 2012-01-01 In their powerful presentation of Minorities in Entrepreneurship the authors go beyond the traditional definitions of entrepreneurship to enhance our understanding of minority groups whether they be younger older women ethnic immigrant LGB disabled or indigenous The book provides a new perspective on the driving forces in becoming a business owner and the push and pull factors within and across groups Enhanced by in depth case studies of members in each group the study is a valuable contribution to the understanding of all venture owners a rich reference source for scholars and a worthwhile book of readings for students in the fields of entrepreneurship and gender and diversity Dorothy Perrin Moore The Citadel in Charleston South Carolina US There are books on minorities and there are books on entrepreneurship but there are no books combining the two and amongst a wide range of minorities in society This truly is a novel and innovative work and should be essential reading for all interested this topic Cary L Cooper CBE Lancaster University Management School UK Although there is an expanding body of literature on the characteristics aspirations motivations challenges and barriers of mainstream entrepreneurs relatively little is known about whether these findings can be applied to the entrepreneurial activities of minority groups This book addresses this short fall and presents an international review of the characteristics motivations and obstacles of eight minority groups younger older women ethnic immigrant lesbian gay and bisexual disabled and indigenous entrepreneurs The expert contributors discover enormous variability between these minority groups such as in the motivators that either pushed or pulled individuals into an entrepreneurial venture as well as diverse attitudes toward success some groups wanted to achieve financial security others wanted to enhance their sense of self worth or to change existing social and economic circumstances However some striking similarities were noted initial disadvantage often created a powerful impetus to starting up a business venture and accessing finance was extremely difficult for many Including comparative cross cultural data and case studies on the various minority groups reviewed both post graduate students and undergraduate students studying entrepreneurship will find this book an invaluable resource In addition it will also be of interest to policy makers governments and all those who wish to comprehend the nature of small business ownership for a wide range of minority business owners Culturally Responsive
