Yet recent developments in a number of countries suggest a growing politicisation of the relationship between law and fatherhood. In some countries an increasingly vocal, visible and well organised fathers rights movement has been credited with influencing perceptions of the politics of family justice. Fathers, it is argued, have become the new victims of family law justice systems that have swung too far in favour of mothers. Armed with such claims, fathers rights activists have set out to achieve a range of legal reforms most notably in the areas of child support law and contact and residence rights following separation This book presents an attempt to understand these developments Bringing together leading international commentators it provides a careful critical and comparative analysis of the work of fathers rights activists the role law has played in their campaigning their legal strategies their success or otherwise in achieving legal reform similarities and divergences with the women s movement and the relationship between fathers rights movements and the societies that frame them In addition to Collier and Sheldon contributors include Susan B Boyd University of British Columbia Canada Jocelyn Crowley Rutgers University USA Maria Eriksson Goteborg University Sweden Keith Pringle Aalborg University Denmark Helen Rhoades Melbourne University Australia and Carol Smart Manchester University UK
