Family Life in Central Italy, 1880-1910 David I. Kertzer,1984 Family Life in Central Italy, 1880-1910 David I. Kertzer,1984 Reinventing Free Labor Gunther Peck,2000-05-22 One of the most infamous villains in North America during the Progressive Era was the padrone a mafia like immigrant boss who allegedly enslaved his compatriots and kept them uncivilized unmanly and unfree In this history of the padrone first published in 2000 Gunther Peck analyzes the figure s deep cultural resonance by examining the lives of three padrones and the workers they imported to North America He argues that the padrones were not primitive men but rather thoroughly modern entrepreneurs who used corporations the labour contract and the right to quit to create far flung coercive networks Drawing on Greek Spanish and Italian language sources Peck analyzes how immigrant workers emancipated themselves using the tools of padrone power to their own advantage

War, Massacre, and Recovery in Central Italy, 1943-1948 Victoria Belco, 2010-01-01 The Second World War wreaked unprecedented devastation throughout Europe necessitating monumental reconstruction efforts that burdened not only governments but the lives of ordinary citizens War Massacre and Recovery in Central Italy 1943 1948 examines this transitional period in the province of Arezzo by detailing the daily experiences of civilians through the traumas of war and the difficulties of recovery Studying the aftermath of war in a new and insightful way Victoria C Belco shifts the perspective from the national to the local level With this localized focus she provides valuable insight into the ways in which civilians coped with an overwhelming range of problems from adjusting to Allied occupation and widespread displacement to rampant unemployment and the restructuring of local administrations and institutions after fascism Recreating the post war atmosphere of disorder need and political upheaval Belco shows how the competing community interests caused social fragmentations that impeded change while the unity of a shared past prevented civil war Mediterranean Families in Antiquity Sabine R. Huebner, Geoffrey Nathan, 2016-08-17 This comprehensive study of families in the Mediterranean world spans the Bronze Age through Late Antiquity and looks at families and households in various ancient societies inhabiting the regions around the Mediterranean Sea in an attempt to break down artificial boundaries between academic disciplines

Anthropological Conversations Caroline B. Brettell,2014-10-23 Cultural anthropologists can be an intellectually adventurous crowd open even eager to building bridges across disciplines in the name of understanding human behavior and the human experience more broadly In this first of its kind book Caroline Brettell explores the cross disciplinary conversations that have engaged cultural anthropologists both past and present Brettell highlights a handful of conversations between the discipline of anthropology on the one hand and history geography literature biology psychology and demography on the other She also pinpoints how these exchanges address three enduring issues of anthropological concern the temporal and the spatial dimensions of human experience the scientific and the humanistic dimensions of the anthropological enterprise and the individual and the group population as units of analysis in research Anthropological Conversations offers detailed accounts of particular ethnographic methodologies and findings and the theoretical trends informing them as a means of grasping the big picture issues Brettell clearly shows that by engaging with other fields cultural anthropologists have been able to think more deeply about what they mean by culture through this book she invites readers to continue the The Fascist Revolution in Tuscany, 1919-22 Frank Snowden, 2004-03-11 This 1989 book is a detailed study conversation of the social origins of the fascist reaction in Tuscany which played a key role in the rise of Italian fascism to power Tuscan fascism was second to none in its violence organisational strength intransigence and missionary zeal The central question is who supported fascism and why To what extent did Tuscany a major agricultural region conform to national patterns What are the implications of the pattern of support for fascism in Tuscany for the wider interpretation of the movement Dr Snowden offers a thematic approach discussing in turn agrarian fascism industrial and urban activity and relations between the black shirts and state officials Thus the significance of the fascist militancy of particular social groups and classes can be assessed for the period between the mass strikes in 1919 and the end of labour militancy marked by the beginning of the fascist dictatorship Fertile Bonds Suzanne E. Joseph, 2017-01-10 A portrait of a group of Bedouins in the Bekaa Valley of Lebanon a population with the highest fertility rate in the world Measuring Mamma's Milk Elizabeth Dixon Whitaker, 2025-10-01 In Italy as in other Western societies the medicalization of basic biological functions contributes to the loss of personal confidence in the care of the body Measuring Mamma s Milk analyzes the medicalization of maternity through a study of breastfeeding practices over a century of changes in socioeconomic organization family life and health beliefs During the pivotal interwar period in Italy fascism changed the relationship between the state and the public and greatly tightened the state s ties with medicine and science Rationalized breastfeeding was at the heart of programs to reduce infant mortality rates in order to increase the size and quality of the population Highly regimented feeding schedules still practiced today came to represent both an eternal natural function and the conquest of fatal maternal ignorance by modern science They also had important consequences for fertility and for maternal and child health Through an interdisciplinary approach Elizabeth Whitaker shows how fascism went beneath the surface to have a lasting impact on cultural beliefs and behaviors Measuring Mamma s Milk will appeal to readers interested in Italy fascism and the care of young children as well as to scholars in medical and cultural anthropology European history history of medicine and women s studies Elizabeth Dixon Whitaker received her Ph D in anthropology from Emory University She is the recipient of two Fulbright grants the second of which sent her to the University of Bologna as a Senior Scholar in 1998 99 She is currently an independent scholar living in Washington D C Developing Skill, Developing Vision Cristina Grasseni, 2009 Many people feel that the impact of technology and the pressure of the market economy on alpine communities leads to a loss of biodiversity authenticity and cultural diversity affecting animal husbandry local food production social networks and traditions It is undeniable that progress development and integration are transforming working routines recipes for dairy production and patterns of communication in rural communities This book explores the many tensions at the core of present local practices and debates in the Italian Alps highlighting the many transformations undergone within skilled practice and cultural heritage as a result of commoditization professionalization and technification with a special focus on the ways in which this also means quite literally changing one s vision of locality of the landscape of local products and of local animals

Gender and Poverty in Nineteenth-Century Europe Rachel G. Fuchs, Rachel Ginnis Fuchs, 2005-11-10 This is a major new history of the dramatic and enduring changes in the daily lives of poor European women and men in the nineteenth century Rachel G Fuchs conveys the extraordinary difficulties facing the destitute from England to Russia paying particular attention to the texture of women s everyday lives She shows their strength as they attempted to structure a life and set of relationships within a social order culture community and the law Within a climate of calamities the poor relied on their own resourcefulness and community connections where the boundaries between the private and public were indistinguishable and on a system of exchange and reciprocity to help them fashion their culture of expediencies This accessible synthesis introduces readers to conflicting interpretations of major historic developments and evaluates those interpretations It will be essential reading for students of women s and gender studies urban history and social and family history A History of Private Life: Riddles of identity in modern times Philippe Ariès, Georges Duby, 1987 Library has Vol 1 5 Money and Liberty in Modern Europe William M. Reddy, 1987-01-30 The concept of class along with its correlates m class interest class conflict class consciousness ramain indispensable tools of historical explanation Yet research over the last twenty five years especially on the histories of England France and Germany has revealed an increasingly poor fit between these concepts and the reality they purport to explain Some historians have reacted by rejecting class others have proposed bold revisions in our understanding of it that enable it to encompass new research findings This study does neither Instead building on interpretive method Professor Reddy proposes to replace class with an alternative concept that seeks to capture from a new angle the fundamental relations of exchange and authority that have shaped social life in modern Europe

Crossings Walter Nugent,1992-12-22 During the period 1870 1914 the Atlantic was a broad highway for migration Unchecked by government restrictions wars or economic depressions and aided by the new technologies of steamships and railroads millions of people uprooted their lives and set off for new lands Americans understand this story as a great saga of immigrants and assimilation of people drawn to the United States as to the promised land of opportunity But what lay behind this great migration And how unique was the American experience To answer these questions Walter Nugent looks at this massive movement of people from both sides of the Atlantic Tracing the migrations of more than a dozen national groups from Europe to the four major New World receiving countries Argentina Brazil Canada and the United States Nugent discovers a complex story of crossings and recrossings of tens of millions of human experiences and decisions Nugent follows the migrants who left rural Europe for American mines and factories but he also compares the experiences of Europeans on the very different frontiers of settlement at the far reaches of the four receiving countries And he discusses the migration of women not only wives and mothers within migrating families but also individuals seeking a new life on their own Nugent asks important questions about American uniqueness in the context of transatlantic migration history and about the validity of widely held theories of development He finds that the history of the great migrations is more complex and subtle than these theories His superb synthesis broadens the scope and clarifies the details of a fascinating story of enormous social and demographic change Family Firms and Business Families in Cross-Cultural Perspective Tobias Koellner, 2023-02-13 This edited volume provides an anthropological study of family businesses and business families In previous research on family firms and business families the comparative cross cultural approach of anthropology has so far received little attention As a result family firms and business families are too often analyzed without considering cultural and kinship differences adequately Similarly although the topics of kinship and the economy are central to anthropological analysis research on family firms and business families has been a marginal topic only that lacks in depth discussions within anthropology This volume breaks the mold by offering new empirical and theoretical insights into discussion about business families and family firms from a comparative cross cultural perspective It first addresses how the business family can be defined in different cultures and how kinship becomes understandable as a process and through doing family In this the book provides a systematic comparison of the connections between family kinship and economic activity in different cultures whereas many of the previous studies have concentrated on only one or a few regions or cultures It also shows the complexities and challenges when grounding the analysis of economic activity and entrepreneurship in cultural context House Margaret H. Darrow, 2014-07-14 To what extent did the French Revolution revolutionize the French family In examining the changes in inheritance laws brought on by the Revolution Margaret Darrow gives a lively account of the mixed effects legislation had on families of this period As a test case she has chosen the southern city of Montauban whose Roman based law enabling testators to appoint their heirs was contradicted by the new laws instituting equal inheritance Filled with vivid anecdotes this book shows how Montauban families in varying social classes adapted their financial strategies to cope with rapidly shifting circumstances often creating solutions not envisioned by the legislators With family history as its focus Revolution in the House also provides a detailed social history of Montauban during the French Revolution Its sources are archival and its argument rests upon a statistical study of the making and unmaking of family fortunes across several generations Darrow shows that in the eighteenth and nineteenth centuries the transmission of wealth expressed a way of life on the social political religious and economic levels not only at the top of society but throughout the entire social order Originally published in 1990 The Princeton Legacy Library uses the latest print on demand technology to again make available previously out of print books from the distinguished backlist of Princeton University Press These editions preserve the original texts of these important books while presenting them in durable paperback and hardcover editions The goal of the Princeton Legacy Library is to vastly increase access to the rich scholarly heritage found in the thousands of books published by Princeton University Press since its founding in 1905 Gender, Kinship and Power Mary Jo Maynes, Ann Waltner, Birgitte Soland, Ulrike Strasser, 2014-01-27 Through twenty engaging essays exploring cultures ranging from ancient Judaic civilization to contemporary Brazil Gender Kinship and Power places important contemporary issues related to kinship such as parental responsibility and female headed households in their proper comparative and historical framework

Worlds of Production Michael Storper, Robert Salais, 1997 Four basic frameworks or possible worlds of production are explored in this book These frameworks underpin the mobilization of economic resources the organization of product systems and forms of profitability Case studies examine how possible worlds support innovative production complexes Making of European Consumption P. Lundin, T. Kaiserfeld, 2015-01-26 American ideals and models feature prominently in the master narrative of post war European consumer societies This book demonstrates that Europeans did not appropriate a homogenous notion of America rather post war European consumption was a process of selective appropriation of American elements Painters and Communities in Seventeenth-Century Brussels Rudy Jos Beerens, 2024-09-30 In seventeenth century Brussels the careers of painters were shaped not only by their artistic talents but also by the communities to which they belonged This book explores the intricate relationship between the social structures and artistic production of the 353 painters who became masters in the Brussels Guild of Painters Goldbeaters and Stained Glass Makers between 1599 and 1706 This innovative study combines quantitative digital analysis with detailed qualitative case studies offering a novel approach to the social history of art By examining the various communities in which these artists operated this book provides new insights into how early modern painters both in Brussels and beyond created their art earned a living and navigated the complexities of urban life Painters and Communities in Seventeenth Century Brussels also presents the first overview of the Brussels Baroque with extensive biographical lists of the city s master painters
