Schechter Professor of Child and Adolescent Psychiatry University of Pennsylvania School of Medicine (Emeritus), 1990-04-12 In this volume David Brodzinsky who has conducted one of the nation's largest studies of adopted children and Marshall Schechter a noted child psychiatrist who has been involved with adoption related issues for over forty years have brought together a group of leading researchers from various disciplines to explore the complex interdisciplinary subject of adoption While recent empirical work has shown that adopted children are more vulnerable to a host of psychological and school related problems compared to their nonadopted peers and that the rate of referral of adopted children to mental health facilities is far above what would be expected given their representation in the general population our understanding of the basis for these problems remains unclear In this book theoretical empirical clinical and social policy issues offer new insights into the problems facing parents of adopted children and especially the children themselves A comprehensive study The Psychology of Adoption will be of interest to child psychiatrists developmental and clinical psychologists social workers social service providers and adoptive parents Peter Ackroyd J. Gibson, J.

Family Secrets Deborah Cohen, 2017 What did families hide in the past and why By delving into the familial dynamics of shame and guilt Family Secrets investigates the part that families so often regarded as the agents of repression have played in the transformation of social mores from the Victorian era to the present day Jim Kobak's Kirkus Reviews, 1986

Nostalgia in Anglophone Arab Literature Tasnim Qutait, 2021-04-22 This book offers an in depth engagement with the growing body of Anglophone Arab fiction in the context of theoretical debates around memory and identity Against the critical tendency to dismiss nostalgia as a sentimental trope of immigrant narratives Qutait sheds light on the creative uses to which it is put in the works of Rabih Alameddine Ahdaf Soueif Hisham Matar Leila Aboulela Randa Jarrar Rawi Hage and others Arguing for the necessity of theorising cultural memory beyond Eurocentric frameworks the book demonstrates how

Arab novelists writing in English draw on nostalgia as a touchstone of Arabic literary tradition from pre Islamic poetry to the present Qutait situates Anglophone Arab fiction within contentious debates about the place of the past in the Arab world tracing how writers have deployed nostalgia as an aesthetic strategy to deal with subject matter ranging from the Islamic golden age the era of anti colonial struggle the failures of the postcolonial state and of pan Arabism and the perennial issue of the diaspora's relationship to the homeland Making a contribution to the transnational turn in memory studies while focusing on a region underrepresented in this field this book will be of interest for researchers interested in cultural memory postcolonial studies and the literatures of the Middle East The Autofictional Alexandra Effe, Hannie Lawlor, 2022-01-03 This open access book offers innovative and wide ranging responses to the continuously flourishing literary phenomenon of autofiction The book shows the insights that are gained in the shift from the genre descriptor to the adjective and from a broad application of the autofictional as a theoretical lens and aesthetic strategy In three sections on Approaches Affordances and Forms the volume proposes new theoretical approaches for the study of autofiction and the autofictional offers fresh perspectives on many of the prominent authors in the discussion draws them into a dialogue with autofictional practice from across the globe and brings into view texts forms and media that have not traditionally been considered for their autofictional dimensions The book in sum expands the parameters of research on autofiction to date to allow new voices and viewpoints to emerge The Arena, 1907 Bureau of Missing Persons Roger J. Porter, 2011-05-06 A devoted reader of autobiographies and memoirs Roger J Porter has observed in recent years a surprising number of memoirs by adult children whose fathers have led secret lives Some of the fathers had second families some had secret religious lives others have been criminals liars or con men Struck by the intensely human drama of secrecy and deception played out for all to see Porter explores the phenomenon in great depth In Bureau of Missing Persons he examines a large number of these works eighteen in all placing them in a wide literary and cultural context and considering the ethical quandaries writers face when they reveal secrets so long and closely held Among the books Porter treats are Paul Auster's The Invention of Solitude Alison Bechdel's graphic memoir Fun Home Essie Mae Washington Williams's Dear Senator on her father Strom Thurmond Bliss Broyard's One Drop Mary Gordon's The Shadow Man and Geoffrey Wolff's The Duke of Deception He also discusses Nathaniel Kahn's documentary film My Architect These narratives inevitably look inward to the writer as well as outward to the parent The autobiographical children are compelled if not consumed by a desire to know They become detectives piecing together clues to fill memory voids assembling material and archival evidence public and private documents letters photographs and iconic physical objects to track down the parent Writing, Directing, and Producing Documentary Films and Digital Videos Alan Rosenthal, Ned Eckhardt, 2015-12-23 In a new edition of this popular guidebook filmmakers Alan Rosenthal and Ned Eckhardt show readers how to utilize the latest innovations in equipment technologies and production techniques for success in the digital web based world of documentary film All twenty four chapters of the volume have been

Producing Documentary Films and Videos, Fourth Edition Alan Rosenthal, 2007-06-26 Publisher description Diaspora and Memory, 2016-08-01 Experiences of migration and dwelling in displacement impinge upon the lives of an ever increasing number of people worldwide with business class comfort but more often with unrelenting violence Since the early 1990s the political and cultural realities of global migration have led to a growing interest in the different forms of diasporic existence and identities The articles in this book do not focus on the external boundaries of diaspora what is diasporic and what is not but on one of its most important internal boundaries which is indicated by the second term in the title of this book memory It is not by chance that the right to remember the responsibility to recall are central issues of the debates in diasporic communities and their relation to their cultural and political surroundings The relation of diaspora and memory contains important critical and maybe even subversive potentials Memory can transcend the territorial logic of dispersal and return and emerge as a competing source of diasporic identity The articles in this volume explore how shaped by the responsibilities of testimony as well as by the normalizing forces of amnesia and forgetting and political interests memory is a performative figurative process rather than a secure space of identity      The Caregiver's Tale Ann

Burack-Weiss,2006-03-14 Ann Burack Weiss explores a rich variety of published memoirs by authors who cared for ill or disabled family members Contrary to the common belief that caregiving is nothing more than a stressful situation to be endured memoirs describe a life transforming experience self discovery a reordering of one s priorities and a changed view of the world The Caregiver s Tale offers insight and comfort to individuals caring for a loved one and is a valuable resource for all health care professionals Identifying common themes Burack Weiss describes how the illness career and social meaning of cancer dementia HIV AIDS mental illness and chemical dependence affect the caregiving experience She applies the same method to an examination of family roles parents caring for ailing children couples and siblings caring for one another and adult children caring for aging parents Jamaica Kincaid Sue Miller Paul Monette Kenzaburo O and Philip Roth are among the many authors who share their caregiving stories Burack Weiss provides an annotated bibliography of the more than one hundred memoirs and an accompanying chart to help readers locate those of greatest interest to them      A Secret Gift Ted Gup,2010-10-28 An inspiring account of America at its worst and Americans at their best woven from the stories of Depression era families who were helped by gifts from the author s generous and secretive grandfather Shortly before Christmas 1933 in Depression scarred Canton Ohio a small newspaper ad offered 10 no strings attached to 75 families in distress Interested readers were asked to submit letters describing their hardships to a benefactor calling himself Mr B Virdot The author s grandfather Sam Stone was inspired to place this ad and assist his fellow Cantonians as they prepared for the cruelest Christmas most of them would ever witness Moved by the tales of suffering and expressions of hope contained in the letters which he discovered in a suitcase 75 years later Ted Gup initially set out to unveil the lives behind them searching for records and relatives all over the country who could help him flesh out the family sagas hinted at in those letters From these sources Gup has re created the impact that Mr B Virdot s gift had on each family Many people yearned for bread coal or other necessities but many others received money from B Virdot for more fanciful items a toy horse say or a set of encyclopedias As Gup s investigations revealed all these things had the power to turn people s lives around even to save them But as he uncovered the suffering and triumphs of dozens of strangers Gup also learned that Sam Stone was far more complex than the lovable retiree persona he'd always shown his grandson Gup unearths deeply buried details about Sam's life from his impoverished abusive upbringing to felonious efforts to hide his immigrant origins from U.S. officials that help explain why he felt such a strong affinity to strangers in need. Drawing on his unique find and his award-winning reportorial gifts, Ted Gup solves a singular family mystery even while he pulls away the veil of eight decades that separate us from the hardships that united America during the Depression. In A Secret Gift, he weaves these revelations seamlessly into a tapestry of Depression-era America which will fascinate and inspire in equal measure. Watch a Video

In Dark Alleys the Role Playing Game, The Secret History of Vladimir Nabokov Andrea Pitzer, 2021-11-15 A startling and revelatory examination of Nabokov's life and works notably Pale Fire and Lolita bringing new insight into one of the twentieth century's most enigmatic authors. Vladimir Nabokov witnessed the horrors of his century escaping Revolutionary Russia, then Germany under Hitler, and fled France with his Jewish wife and son just weeks before Paris fell to the Nazis. He repeatedly faced accusations of turning a blind eye to human suffering to write artful tales of depravity. But does one of the greatest writers in the English language really deserve the label of amoral aesthete bestowed on him by so many critics? Using information from newly declassified intelligence files and recovered military history, Pitzer argues that far from being a proponent of art for art's sake, Nabokov managed to hide disturbing history in his fiction, history that has gone unnoticed for decades. Nabokov emerges as a kind of documentary conjurer, spending decades of his career recording a saga of forgotten concentration camps and searing bigotry from WWI to the Gulag and the Holocaust. Lolita surrenders Humbert Humbert's secret identity and reveals a Nabokov appalled by American anti-Semitism. The lunatic narrator of Pale Fire recalls Russian tragedies that once haunted the world. From Tsarist courts to Nazi film sets, from the CIA to wartime Casablanca, the story of Nabokov's family is the story of his century, and both are woven inextricably into his fiction.
