

The illustration depicts a young boy with light brown hair and blue eyes, wearing a teal button-down shirt over a white t-shirt and blue jeans. He is sitting on the floor with his arms crossed, looking down with a sad or thoughtful expression. In the background, to the right, is a large, dark grey shadow of two people in a physical fight, one person appearing to strike the other. The background is a plain, light beige color.

Training Police as Specialists in Family Crisis Intervention New York (N.Y.). City College. Psychological Center,Morton Bard,1970 This training was intended to demonstrate innovative methods of crime prevention and preventive mental health Processing family disturbances constitutes a major aspect of police work Traditional police approaches to the problem do not reflect the realities of this police experience There is evidence that a significant proportion of injuries and fatalities suffered by police occur in the highly volatile family conflict situation The present project attempted to modify family assaults and family homicides and to reduce personal danger to police officers in such situations The project attempted the development of a new preventive mental health strategy Assuming that family conflict may be an early sign of emotional disorder in one or all of the participants the project attempted to utilize policemen as front line casefinders in keeping with theories of primary prevention It was proposed that selected policemen could be provided with interpersonal skills necessary to effect constructive outcomes in deteriorating situations which require police intervention Rejection of an exclusively specialized role for the police officers involved was a major emphasis The program avoided the conversion of policemen into social workers or psychotherapists The officers were expected to perform all generalized police patrol functions but were the individuals dispatched on all family disputes in a given geographical area In addition to continuous group experience each family specialist was assigned an individual consultant for at least one hour weekly consultation The individual consultants were advanced clinical psychology students who acquired in this way an unusual community consultation experience The reciprocal effect of these encounters on the students and upon the policemen is self evident The Craft of Family Therapy Salvador Minuchin, Michael D. Reiter, Charmaine Borda, 2021-04-15 This cutting edge second edition of The Craft of Family Therapy revisits some of Salvador Minuchin's most famous cases guiding trainee therapists through basic techniques and ideas while illuminating the unique voice of Minuchin as the founder of Structural Family Therapy The book begins by teaching readers the fundamentals of family therapy through the lens of rich commentary from Salvador Minuchin on some of his most interesting cases It then moves on to three detailed supervision transcripts from Minuchin's former students illustrating the struggles fears and insecurities that new family therapists face and how they can overcome them In a new ground breaking third section Reiter and Borda share their own lessons from Minuchin as well as expand his influential ideas emphasizing a strength based family therapy approach Written in an accessible practical style The Craft of Family Therapy 2nd edition draws on a wealth of fascinating case examples to bring Minuchin's theory and experience to today's family therapists and psychotherapists in practice and training Handbook of Multicultural Counseling Joseph G. Ponterotto, 2001-04-25 This Second Edition of the Handbook of Multicultural Counseling marks an important turning point It brings together the voices of some pioneers who have paved the way and introduces us to new voices who while influenced by the pioneers have taken different paths Because the multicultural community is well represented in content and scholarship in this second addition the reader can be assured that the view points represented in this book speak to the core issues of the field I am excited about this Handbook because the authors answer the question that is often heard at many a conference Where is the research to support multicultural counselling I am equally excited about this Handbook because it breaks new ground by using as its anchor oral histories which demonstrates that for many of us multicultural counselling is not simply a research agenda but a life long journey that cannot always be measured The underlying theme of social justice only reinforces our commitment to this journey Drs Ponterotto Casas Suzuki and Alexander have once again helped shape the multicultural conversation To those who have often said Where is the research look not further Donald B PopeDavis University of Notre Dame Its First Edition set a standard for a then emerging field Now The Handbook of Multicultural Counseling Second Edition presents not merely an update of the original but a completely reconceived work reflecting the many developments that continue to expand the field of multicultural counselling This new edition features mostly brand new chapters and expanded coverage of historical perspectives on the field highlighted by personal accounts from some of the pioneers in the area professional and ethical issues counselling s role in fighting oppression psychological measurement theories research design gender issues and higher education issues With contributions once again from the field s key leaders as well as top emerging scholars this new edition maintains the breadth and comprehensiveness of the original The Handbook of Multicultural Counseling Second Edition is a critical resource for counsellors counselling students and other mental health professionals who seek to improve their competence in treating a culturally diverse clientele
