Pickering,Alison Gerard,2012-10-12 Sex work has always attracted policy public and prurient interest Currently legal frameworks in developed countries range from prohibition through partial legalisation to active regulation Globalisation has increased women s mobility between developing and developed countries at the same time as women s employment opportunities in the developed world are shifting Family and intimate relationships are being transformed by changing demographics shifting social mores and new intersections between intimate lives and global markets Sex work is located at the nexus of new intimacies shifting employment patterns and changing global mobilities This volume examines the working lives of contemporary sex workers their practices their labour market conditions and their engagement with domestic and international regulatory frameworks It locates the voices and experiences of workers in Melbourne Australia at the centre of the sexual services industry as they reflect on brothels and independent escort work on working conditions and managers and on the relationships they form with clients It offers a new account of sex work where women s labour and mobility is understood as central in local and global imperatives to offer sexual services It examines how these new imperatives intersect with challenge and exceed existing regulatory frameworks for sex work Sex work labour mobility and sexual services draws together the everyday practices of sex workers and the broader global markets in which workers negotiate employment In bringing together these two important intersecting areas it offers a grounded and innovative account of sex work which will be of interest to academics and policy makers concerned with sex work gender studies and the sociology of Maschka,2009-10-06 An important look at motherhood and family dynamics in the 21st century by the national spokesperson of Mothers More Kristin Maschka past president of Mothers More a national organization with more than 140 chapters across the country shines a spotlight on the complex issues mothers face at work in their homes their lives and with their partners and shows how the hidden assumptions that society the media public policy and women themselves hold about motherhood can sabotage a mother s happiness Maschka weaves together her own story anecdotes from mothers all over the country and a deep knowledge of history and society to offer mothers a comforting often funny read that helps them see themselves and the world around them in a whole new way At the same time she provides specific actions women can take today to remodel motherhood to live the lives they always thought they would Who's Really Running Your Life? Fourth
