War Andrekos Varnava, Michael J.K. Walsh, 2022-12-26 This book shows how cultural production derived from or in anticipation of conflict can be used to create specific social identities national histories and contemporary concepts of memory in Britain and Australia Studies on the politics of cultural production have usually focussed on one conflict or on one particular cultural medium at a time This volume however presents a broader horizon to draw attention to more popular forms of cultural production from the Great War up to and including its Centenary The chapters in this volume interrogate the contentious philosophical notion that culture thrives in times of war and expires in peace and asks whether art as a form of social barometer can anticipate conflict rather than merely respond to it This is a fascinating read for students researchers and academics interested in British and Australian History and its relationship with Popular Culture The chapters in this book were originally published as a special issue of Contemporary British History Psychology Library Editions: Child Development Various, 2021-12-02 Psychology Library Editions Child Development 20 Volume set brings together a diverse number of titles across many areas of developmental psychology from children s play to language development The series of previously out of print titles originally published between 1930 and 1993 with the majority from the 70s and 80s includes contributions from many respected authors in the field and charts the progression of the field over this time The Dollhouse Family Mike Carey, 2020-10-13 On Alice s sixth birthday her dying great aunt sent her the birthday gift she never knew she always wanted a big beautiful 19th century dollhouse complete with a family of antique dolls In no time at all the dollhouse isn t just Alice s favorite toy it s her whole world And soon young Alice learns she can enter the house to visit a new group of friends straight out of a heartwarming children s novel the Dollhouse family But while the Dollhouse family welcomes her with open arms in the real world her family life is becoming much more complicated and deep within the Dollhouse s twisting halls the Black Room waits with an offer to Alice The house can fix all this the Black Room says All she has to do is say the words From there unfolds a twisty surreal multigenerational horror tale that echoes into centuries past into Alice s tormented future and into the beating heart of the madness that makes up our world literally Collects The Dollhouse Family 1 6 Feeling Things Stephanie Downes, Sally Holloway, Sarah Randles, 2018 This interdisciplinary essay collection investigates the various interactions of people feelings and things throughout premodern Europe It focuses on the period before mass production when limited literacy often prioritised material methods of communication The subject of materiality has been of increasing significance in recent historical inquiry alongside growing emphasis on the relationships between objects emotions and affect in archaeological and sociological research The historical intersections between materiality and emotions however have remained under theorised particularly with respect to artefacts that have continuing resonance over extended periods of time or across cultural and geographical space Feeling Things addresses the need to develop an appropriate cross disciplinary theoretical framework for the analysis of objects and emotions in European history with special attention to the need to track the shifting emotional valencies of objects from the past to the present and from one place and cultural context to another The collection draws together an international group of historians art historians curators and literary scholars working on a variety of cultural literary visual and material sources Objects considered include books letters prosthetics religious relics shoes stone and textiles Many of these have been preserved in international galleries museums and archives while others have remained in their original locations even as their contexts have changed over time The chapters consider the ways in which emotions such as despair fear grief hope love and wonder become inscribed in and ascribed to these items producing emotional objects of significance and agency Such objects can be harnessed to create affirm or express individual relationships as for example in religious devotion and practice or in the construction of cultural communal and national identities
