Family Frames Photography Narrative And Postmemory:

Family Frames Marianne Hirsch, 1997 On role of family in photography      The Family Album Yeon-Soo Kim, 2005 This book is an examination of the use of the family album in contemporary Spanish culture Through the analysis of films narratives painting and a photographic exhibition produced from the end of Franco's dictatorship to the present Kim interrogates how the family album serves as a critical instrument to reflect on the treatment of the past in contemporary Spain the recuperation of repressed identities nostalgia for collective memory symptomatic of the cultural discontent with the erosion of a national boundary due to globalization and the increasing claim of diversity and ethical concerns for immigration This study explores a broad range of works by canonical as well as less studied writers and artists including Juan Goytisolo Carlos Saura and Marta Balletbo Coll Yeon Soo Kim is Assistant Professor of Spanish at Rutgers University

Women's Narratives and the Postmemory of Displacement in Central and Eastern Europe Simona Mitroiu, 2018-10-15 This volume explores the different mechanisms and forms of expression used by women to come to terms with the past focusing on the variety and complexity of women's narratives of displacement within the context of Central and Eastern Europe The first part addresses the quest for personal post memory from the perspective of the second and third generations The touching collaboration established in reconstructing individual and family post memories offers invaluable insights into the effects of displacement coping mechanisms and resilience Adopting the idea that the text itself becomes a site of post memory the second part of the volume brings into discussion different sites and develops further this topic in relation to the creative process and visual text The last part questions the past in relation to trauma and identity displacement in the countries where abusive regimes destroyed social bonds and had a lasting impact on the people's lives      Transitions

, 2016-08-29 This volume introduces ten emerging voices in German language literature by women Their texts speak to the diverse modalities of transition that characterise society and culture in the twenty first century such as the adaptation to evolving political and social conditions in a newly united Germany globalisation the dissolution of borders and the changing face of Europe dramatic shifts in the meaning of national ethnic sexual gender religious and class identities rapid technological advancement and the revolutionary power of new media which in turn have radically altered the connections between public and private personal and political In their literature the authors presented here reflect on the notion of transition and offer some unique interventions on its meaning in the contemporary era      Family Constellations in Contemporary Ibero-American and Slavic Literatures Anna Artwińska, Ángela Calderón, Jobst Welge, 2024-10-07 This volume examines Ibero American as well as Slavic literatures of the 21st century and studies how historical imaginaries in family narratives are functionalized for both individual and collective and post national identities The analysis proceeds along three conceptual axes What these narratives have in common is that they construct specific constellations of the historical imagination and of family whereby family is here conceived not so much as an organic micro unity but rather as changing

multiple relations between individual members godparents first and second degree relatives non blood related family members present and absent members adopted children etc Furthermore these novels are often grounded in trans generational memories They are written by members of a generation that as a rule did not directly experience these historical events It is also significant that these narratives are no longer conceived as representing national identities but paradigmatically speak for a collective that defines itself in regional ethnic religious or ideological terms It seems therefore that these narratives of family constellations are in need of more flexible typological rubrics and interpretive frameworks Intended as a sustained comparative study of these family narratives this volume is a contribution in understanding how historical caesura experiences and their literary representation work on the self understanding of the present Diaspora and Memory, 2016-08-01 Experiences of migration and dwelling in displacement impinge upon the lives of an ever increasing number of people worldwide with business class comfort but more often with unrelenting violence Since the early 1990s the political and cultural realities of global migration have led to a growing interest in the different forms of diasporic existence and identities The articles in this book do not focus on the external boundaries of diaspora what is diasporic and what is not but on one of its most important internal boundaries which is indicated by the second term in the title of this book memory It is not by chance that the right to remember the responsibility to recall are central issues of the debates in diasporic communities and their relation to their cultural and political surroundings The relation of diaspora and memory contains important critical and maybe even subversive potentials Memory can transcend the territorial logic of dispersal and return and emerge as a competing source of diasporic identity The articles in this volume explore how shaped by the responsibilities of testimony as well as by the normalizing forces of amnesia and forgetting and political interests memory is a performative figurative process rather than a secure space of identity Haunting Legacies Gabriele Schwab, 2010 Introduction Writing against memory and forgetting Haunting legacies trauma in children of perpetrators Identity trouble guilt shame and idealization Replacement children the transgenerational transmission of traumatic loss Deadly intimacy the politics and psychic life of torture Lost Freedom Mathew Thomson, 2013-11 Lost Freedom addresses the widespread feeling that there has been a fundamental change in the social life of children in recent decades the loss of childhood freedom and in particular the loss of freedom to roam beyond the safety of home Mathew Thomson explores this phenomenon concentrating on the period from the Second World War until the 1970s and considering the roles of psychological theory traffic safety consciousness anxiety about sexual danger and television in the erosion of freedom Thomson argues that the Second World War has an important place in this story with war borne anxieties encouraging an emphasis on the central importance of a landscape of home War also encouraged the development of specially designed spaces for the cultivation of the child including the adventure playground and the virtual landscape of children s television However before the 1970s British children still had much more physical freedom than they do today Lost Freedom explores why this situation has changed The volume pays particular attention to the 1970s as a period of transition and one which saw radical visions of child liberation but with anxieties about child protection also escalating in response This is strikingly demonstrated in the story of how the paedophile emerged as a figure of major public concern Thomson argues that this crisis of concern over child freedom is indicative of some of the broader problems of the social settlements that had been forged out of the Second World War

Anamnesia Peter Collier, Anna Magdalena Elsner, Olga Smith, 2009 Memory has always been crucial to French literature and culture as a means of mediating the relationship between perception and knowledge of the individual coming to terms with his identity in time Relatively recently memory has also emerged as the key force in the creation of a collective consciousness in the wider perspective of French cultural history This collection of essays selected from the proceedings of a seminar on Memory given by Dr Emma Wilson at the University of Cambridge offers a fresh evaluation of memory as both a cultural and an individual phenomenon in modern and contemporary French culture including literature cinema and the visual arts Anamnesia the book's title develops the Aristotelian concept of anamnesis recollection as a dynamic and creative process which includes forgetting as much as remembering concealment as much as imagination Memory in this extremely diverse range of essays is therefore far from being presented as a straightforward process of recalling the past but emerges as the site of research and renegotiation of contradictions and even aporia

Artful Breakdowns Georgiana Banita, Lee Konstantinou, 2023-03-02 Contributions by Georgiana Banita Colin Beineke Harriet Earle Ariela Freedman Liza Futerman Shawn Gilmore Sarah Hamblin Cara Koehler Lee Konstantinou Patrick Lawrence Philip Smith and Kent Worcester A carefully curated wide ranging edited volume tracing Art Spiegelman's exceptional trajectory from underground rebellion to mainstream success Artful Breakdowns: The Comics of Art Spiegelman reveals his key role in the rise of comics as an art form and of the cartoonist as artist The collection grapples with Spiegelman's astonishing versatility from his irreverent underground strips influential avant garde magazine RAW the expressionist style of the comics classic Maus the illustrations to the Jazz Age poem The Wild Party and his response to the September 11 terrorist attacks to his iconic cover art for the New Yorker his children's books and various cross media collaborations The twelve chapters cut across Spiegelman's career to document continuities and ruptures that the intense focus on Maus has obscured yielding an array of original readings Spiegelman's predilection for collage improvisation and the potent protest of silence shows his allegiance to modernist art His cultural critique and anticapitalist antimilitary positions shed light on his vocal public persona while his deft intertextual strategies of mixing media archives from comics to photography and film amplify the poignance of his works Developing new approaches to Spiegelman's comics such as the publication history of Maus the history of immigration and xenophobia and the cartoonist's elevation of children's comics the collection leaves no doubt that despite the accolades his accessible comics have garnered we have yet to grasp the full range of Spiegelman's achievements in the realm of comics and beyond

The Familial Gaze Marianne Hirsch,1999 Contemporary artists writers and theorists challenge standard interpretations of family photographs Jewish Families Jonathan Boyarin,2013-07-23 From stories of biblical patriarchs and matriarchs and their children through the Gospel s Holy Family of Jesus Mary and Joseph and to modern Jewish families in fiction film and everyday life the family has been considered key to transmitting Jewish identity Current discussions about the Jewish family s supposed traditional character and its alleged contemporary crisis tend to assume that the dynamics of Jewish family life have remained constant from the days of Abraham and Sarah to those of Tevye and Golde in Fiddler on the Roof and on to Philip Roth s Portnoy s Complaint Jonathan Boyarin explores a wide range of scholarship in Jewish studies to argue instead that Jewish family forms and ideologies have varied greatly throughout the times and places where Jewish families have found themselves He considers a range of family configurations from biblical times to the twenty first century including strictly Orthodox communities and new forms of family including same sex parents The book shows the vast canvas of history and culture as well as the social pressures and strategies that have helped shape Jewish families and suggests productive ways to think about possible futures for Jewish family forms W.G. Sebald's Hybrid Poetics Lynn L. Wolff,2014-04-02 This book offers a new critical perspective on the perpetual problem of literature s relationship to reality and in particular on the sustained tension between literature and historiography The scholarly and literary works of W G Sebald 1944 2001 serve as striking examples for this discussion for the way in which they demonstrate the emergence of a new hybrid discourse of literature as historiography This book critically reconsiders the claims and aims of historiography by re evaluating core questions of the literary discourse and by assessing the ethical imperative of literature in the 20th and 21st centuries Guided by an inherently interdisciplinary framework this book elucidates the interplay of epistemological aesthetic and ethical concerns that define Sebald s criticism and fiction Appropriate to the way in which Sebald s works challenge us to rethink the boundaries between discourses genres disciplines and media this work proceeds in a methodologically non dogmatic way drawing on hermeneutics semiotics narratology and discourse theory In addition to contextualizing Sebald within postwar literature in German the book is the first English language study to consider Sebald's oeuvre as a whole Of interest for Sebald experts and enthusiasts literary scholars and historians concerned with the problematic of representing the past

Suspended Conversations Martha Langford, 2021-10-13 In Suspended Conversations Martha Langford shows how photographic albums tell intimate and revealing stories about individuals and families Rather than isolate the individual photograph treat albums as texts or argue that photography has supplanted memory she demonstrates that the photographic album must be taken as a whole and interpreted as a visual and verbal performance that extends oral consciousness Exhibiting a collection of photographic travelogues memoirs thematic collections and family sagas compiled between 1860 and 1960 and held by the McCord Museum of Canadian History this second edition includes a revised and expanded preface along with new photographs of the Notman albums Printed in colour throughout the enhanced material draws out the distinct nuances and details of each album giving them new life to tell their stories Albums are treasured by families collected as illustrations of the past by museums of social history and examined by scholars for what they can reveal about attitudes and sensibilities but when no one is left to tell the tale the intrigue of the album becomes a puzzle a suspended conversation Langford argues that oral consciousness provides the missing key Correlating photography and orality she explains how albums were designed to work as performances and how we can unlock their mysteries A fascinating glimpse of the preoccupations of previous centuries Suspended Conversations brings photography into the great conversation of how we remember and how we send our stories into the future In Visible Presence Oksana Sarkisova, Olga

Shevchenko, 2023-10-03 An absorbing exploration of Soviet era family photographs that demonstrates the singular power of the photographic image to command attention resist closure and complicate the meaning of the past A faded image of a family gathered at a festively served dinner table raising their glasses in unison A group of small children sitting in orderly rows with stuffed toys at their feet and a portrait of Lenin looming over their heads A pensive older woman against a snowy landscape her gaze directed lovingly at a tombstone These are a few of the evocative images in In Visible Presence by Oksana Sarkisova and Olga Shevchenko an exquisitely researched book that brings together photographs from Soviet era family photo archives and investigates their afterlives in Russia In Visible Presence explores the photographic images singular power to capture a fleeting moment by approaching them as points of contestation and possibility Drawing on over a decade of fieldwork and interviews as well as internet ethnography media analysis and case studies In Visible Presence offers a rich account of the role of family photography in creating communities of affect enabling nostalgic longings and processing memories of suffering violence and hardship Together these photos evoke youthful aspirations dashed hopes and moral compromises as well as the long legacy of silence that was passed down from grandparents to parents to children With more than 250 black and white photos In Visible Presence is an astonishing journey into domestic photography family memory and the ongoing debate over the meaning of the Soviet past that is as timely and powerful today as it has ever been     What Happened? Re-presenting Traumas, Uncovering Recoveries Elspeth McInnes, Danielle Schaub, 2018-11-26 Traumatic experiences with an overwhelming life threatening feel affect numerous people s lives Death and disablement through accident illness war family violence natural and human induced disaster can be experienced variously at an individual level through to whole communities and nations Traumatic memories are intrusive and insistent but fragmented and distorted by the power of sensory information frozen in time This volume examines the ways individuals families communities and nations have engaged with representations of traumas and the ethical dimensions embedded in those re presentations Contributors also explore the work of recovering from trauma and finding resilience through working with narrative and embodied forms such as dance and breathing The ubiquity of trauma in human experience means that pathways to recovery differ emerging from the way each engages with the world Sharing and reflecting on the ways each copes with trauma contributes to its understanding as well as pathways to recovery and new strengths Contributors are Svetlana Antropova Peter Bray Kate Burton Mark Callaghan Marie France Forcier Monica Hinton Gen ichiro Itakura Danielle Schaub Zeina Tarraf and Paul Vivian     Far-Flung Families in Film Daniela Berghahn, 2014-08-20 This book fills this gap and provides an essential resource for academics and researchers with an interest in cinematic representations of the family and transnational cinema

Imaging Identity Melinda Hinkson, 2016-08-18 Imaging Identity presents potent reflections on the human condition through the prism of portraiture Taking digital imaging technologies and the dynamic and precarious dimensions of contemporary identity as critical reference points these essays consider why portraits continue to have such galvanising appeal and perform fundamental work across so many social settings This multidisciplinary enquiry brings together artists art historians art theorists and anthropologists working with a variety of media Authors look beyond conventional ideas of the portrait to the wider cultural contexts governmental practices and intimate experiences that shape relationships between persons and pictures Their shared purpose centres on a commitment to understanding the power of images to draw people into their worlds Imaging Identity tracks a fundamental symbiosis to grapple with the workings of images is to understand something vital of what it is to be human     Memory Unbound Lucy Bond, Stef Craps, Pieter Vermeulen, 2016-11-01 Though still a relatively young field memory studies has undergone significant transformations since it first coalesced as an area of inquiry Increasingly scholars understand memory to be a fluid dynamic unbound phenomenon a process rather than a reified object Embodying just such an elastic approach this state of the field collection systematically explores the transcultural transgenerational transmedial and transdisciplinary dimensions of memory four key dynamics that have sometimes been studied in isolation but never in such an integrated manner Memory Unbound places leading researchers in conversation with emerging voices in the field to recast our understanding of memory s distinctive variability
