Copyright Office, 1979 Film & Video Finder , 1989 Models of the Family in Modern Societies Catherine Hakim, 2018-01-12 This title was first published in 2003 This text reports on two nationally representative surveys of men and women in Britain and Spain the former being funded by the Future of Work Research Programme and conducted by the ONS Catherine Hakim presents a study of ideal models of the family and family roles work orientation patriarchal values and lifestyle preferences showing how these impact on women s marital histories fertility employment patterns and occupational segregation but not on men s labour market participation Lifestyle preferences and work orientations have a strong impact on women s activities and especially on married women s choices but patriarchal values have almost no impact on behaviour The book also covers educational homogamy housing classes labour mobility and contrasts between ethnic minority groups in core values and labour market participation Film and Video Finder, 1997 , 1997 Portrayals of Women in Early Twentieth-Century China Sandy Ng, 2025-10-01 Portrayals of Women in Early Twentieth Century China explores the role played by woman and their visual representations in introducing modern design and modern ways of living to China It investigates this through an analysis of how women and modern design were represented in the advertisements photographs and films of Republican era China This study explores the intersection of modernity and the Chinese woman as they negotiated their changing identities through and with new designs that proliferated in Chinese households in the first half of the twentieth century The advertisements mass media photographs and films took on the function of social conditioning conveying to the viewers ideas of modern social standards behavior and appearances With women both instrumentalised within these images and addressed through them their visual representations became metaphors that fashioned a new portrait of China while concurrently impacting on the identity agency and subjectivity of women themselves The Oxford Handbook of Family Policy Over the Life Course Mary Daly, Birgit Pfau-Effinger, Neil Gilbert, Douglas J. Besharov, 2023 Drawing on a multidisciplinary group of experts from many countries this Handbook is intended to be a reference work that provides students and scholars in policy related disciplines a wide ranging perspective on the diverse ways that family policies respond to modern issues and trends over the life course The Handbook is divided into two main parts The first part offers a panoramic introduction to the setting and issues which contemporary family policies have been designed to address The second part and main body of the volume is organized around four benchmark periods that encompass the main stages of the family life cycle and social policies that are called into play during these stages The Cumulative Book Index, 1983 A world list of books in the English language Recording for the Blind & Dyslexic, ... Catalog of Books, 1996 Televised Higher Education Western Interstate Commission for Higher Education, 1984 THE Catalog is a comprehensive listing of videocourses appropriate for postsecondary level study on a wide range of academic fields Digital Photography and Everyday Life Edgar Gómez Cruz, Asko Lehmuskallio, 2016-05-20 Digital Photography and Everyday Life Empirical studies on material visual practices explores the role that digital photography plays within everyday life With contributors from ten different countries and backgrounds in a range of academic disciplines including anthropology media studies and visual culture this collection takes a uniquely broad perspective on photography by situating the image making process in wider discussions on the materiality and visibility of photographic practices and explores these through empirical case studies By focusing on material visual practices the book presents a comprehensive overview of some of the main challenges digital photography is bringing to everyday life It explores how the digitization of photography has a wide reaching impact on the use of the medium as well as on the kinds of images that can be produced and the ways in which camera technology is developed The exploration goes beyond mere images to think about cameras mediations and technologies as key elements in the development of visual digital cultures Digital Photography and Everyday Life will be of great interest to students and scholars of Photography Contemporary Art Visual Culture and Media Studies as well as those studying Communication Cultural Anthropology and Science and Technology Studies Handbook of Research on Consumption, Media, and Popular Culture in the Global Age Ozgen, Ozlen, 2019-05-15 The mass production and diversification of media have accelerated the development of popular culture This has started a new trend in consumerism of desiring new consumption objects and devaluing those consumption objects once acquired thus creating a constant demand for new items Pop culture now canalizes consumerism both with advertising and the marketing of consumerist lifestyles which are disseminated in the mass media The Handbook of Research on Consumption Media and Popular Culture in the Global Age discusses interdisciplinary perspectives on media influence and consumer impacts in a globalizing world due to modern communication technology Featuring research on topics such as consumer culture communication ethics and social media this book is ideally designed for managers marketers researchers academicians and students Youth for Nation Charles R. Kim, 2017-06-30 This in depth exploration of culture media and protest follows South Korea's transition from the Korean War to the start of the political struggles and socioeconomic transformations of the Park Chung Hee era. Although the post Korean War years are commonly remembered as a time of crisis and disarray, Charles Kim contends that they also created a formative and productive juncture in which South Koreans reworked pre 1945 constructions of national identity to meet the political and cultural needs of postcolonial nation building. He explores how state ideologues and mainstream intellectuals expanded their efforts by elevating the nation's youth as the core protagonist of a newly independent Korea. By designating students and young men and women as the hope and exemplars of the new nation, the discursive stage was set for the remarkable outburst of the April Revolution in 1960. Kim's interpretation of this seminal event underscores student participants recasting of anticolonial resistance memories into South Korea's postcolonial politics. This pivotal innovation enabled protestors to circumvent the state's official anticommunism and in doing so brought about the formation of a culture of protest that lay at the heart of the country's democracy movement from the 1960s to the 1980s. The positioning of women as subordinates in the nation building enterprise is also shown to be a direct translation of postwar and Cold War exigencies into the sphere of culture; this cultural conservatism went on to shape the terrain of gender relations in subsequent decades. A meticulously researched cultural history, Youth for Nation illuminates the historical significance of the postwar period through a rigorous analysis of magazines, films, textbooks, archival documents, and personal testimonies. In addition to scholars and students of twentieth century Korea, the book will be welcomed by those interested in Cold War cultures, social movements, and democratization in East Asia. Books and Pamphlets, Including Serials and Contributions to Periodicals Library of Congress.
