Family Structure in Islam Hammudah A. Al Ati, 1995 The Family Structure in Islam .Hammudah Abdal-Ātī, 1971
The Family Structure in Islam ,1979 Women and Islam: Images and realities Haideh Moghissi, 2005 This three volume interdisciplinary collection is of use not only in Middle East studies but also in various other disciplines including women s studies political science religion cultural studies sociology of gender and anthropology The collection offers the most influential writings in the field by both renowned scholars as well as those by the new generation of scholars of Islam and gender and includes a wide variety of cases from Middle Eastern and Islamic societies By including case based articles the collection highlights the clear links between concepts and theories and actual practices Titles also available in this series include Shamanism March 2004 3 volumes 395 and the forthcoming titles Childhood 2005 4 volumes c 495 Gender 2005 4 volumes c 495 and Knowledge 2005 4 volumes c 495 Muslim Childhood Jonathan Scourfield, Sophie Gilliat-Ray, Asma Khan, Sameh Otri, 2013-10 This study examines ordinary British Muslims everyday religious socialisation of children in early and middle childhood It describes how Muslim families in a secular Western context attempt to pass on their faith to the next generation It is rooted in detailed qualitative research with 60 Muslim families in one British city Growing Importance of the Family System: Islamic Belief and Practice Syed Wasif Iqbal Gilani, 2024-01-16 Because Islam places a high value on the family as a unit people need to understand Islamic principles for society to flourish Respecting and supporting family development is a spiritual obligation it strengthens families promotes peace and ensures the seamless transmission of values from one generation to another Islam provides guidance on how to handle life s difficulties which in turn fosters a harmonious and tranquil home life With their feet firmly planted in Islam people may find the courage and guidance they need to face adversity head on and create a household where love respect and long term relationships flourish Those curious about the intricacies of Islamic family life will find this book an invaluable resource it teaches readers how to live in harmony with their loved ones and offers concrete suggestions for making their homes more welcoming and harmonious Islam, Family Life, and Gender Inequality in Urban China Xiaowei Zang, 2012-06-12 This book studies the relationship between Islam family processes and gender inequality among Uyghur Muslims in r mchi China Empirically it shows in quantitative terms the extent of gender inequalities among Uyghur Muslims in r mchi and tests whether the gender inequalities are a difference in kind or in degree It examines five aspects of gender inequality employment income household task accomplishment home management and spousal power Theoretically it investigates how Islamic affiliation and family life affect Uyghur women's status Zang's research involved rare and privileged access to a setting which is difficult for foreign scholars to study due to political restrictions The data are drawn from fieldwork in r mchi between 2005 and 2008 which include a survey of 577 families field observations and 200 in depth interviews with local Uyghurs The book combines qualitative and quantitative data and methods to study gendered behavior and outcomes The author's study reinterprets family power and offers a more nuanced analysis of gender and domestic power in China and makes a pioneering effort to study spousal power gender inequality in labor market outcomes and gender inequality in household chores among members of ethnic minorities in China The book will be of interest to students and scholars of ethnic studies Chinese studies Asian anthropology and cultural sociology

Women, the Family, and Divorce Laws in Islamic History Amira El-Azhary Sonbol,1996-06-01 The eighteen essays in this volume cover a wide range of material and reevaluate women's studies and Middle Eastern studies Muslim women and the Shari'a courts the Ottoman household Dhimmi communities children and family law morality and violence

Understanding Muslim Family Life Joanne Britton,2024-03-27 This book offers an innovative perspective on Muslim family life in British society Drawing on recent debates the book considers how theories of family have overlooked Muslim families and offers a comprehensive framework to address this oversight Informed by decolonizing approaches the book sheds light on the impact of narrow and stigmatizing perspectives that shape our understanding of Muslim families The author pays close attention to the increasing diversity of family forms and to the role of gender and generation whilst also considering race ethnicity and class In doing so she demonstrates how a better understanding of Muslim family life can inform policies to address inequalities and advocates for placing Muslim families at the heart of policy solutions

Gender and Equality in Muslim Family Law Lena Larsen,Ziba Mir-Hosseini,Christian Moe,Kari Vogt,2013-04-30 Gender equality is a modern ideal which has only recently with the expansion of human rights and feminist discourses become inherent to generally accepted conceptions of justice In Islam as in other religious traditions the idea of equality between men and women was neither central to notions of justice nor part of the juristic landscape and Muslim jurists did not begin to address it until the twentieth century The personal status of Muslim men women and children continues to be defined by understandings of Islamic law codified and adapted by modern nation states that assume authority to be the natural prerogative of men that disadvantage women and that are prone to abuse This volume argues that effective and sustainable reform of these laws and practices requires engagement with their religious rationales from within the tradition Gender and Equality in Muslim Family Law offers a groundbreaking analysis of family law based on fieldwork in family courts and illuminated by insights from distinguished clerics and scholars of Islam from Morocco Egypt Iran Pakistan and Indonesia as well as by the experience of human rights and women's rights activists It explores how male authority is sustained through law and court practice in different contexts the consequences for women and the family and the demands made by Muslim women's groups The book argues for women's full equality before the law by re-examining the jurisprudential and theological arguments for male guardianship qiwama wilaya in Islamic legal tradition Using contemporary examples from various contexts from Morocco to Malaysia this volume presents an informative and vital analysis of these societies and gender relations within them It unpicks the complex and often contradictory attitudes towards Muslim family law and the ways in which justice and ethics are conceived in the Islamic tradition The book offers a new framework for rethinking old formulations so as to reflect contemporary realities and understandings of justice ethics and gender rights
