Women

Administrators in Higher Education Jana Nidiffer, Carolyn Terry Bashaw, 2001-01-04 In this book Jana Nidiffer and Carolyn Terry Bashaw fill in the pieces of the story of the history of women in higher education as well as tackle contemporary topics such as the controversies surrounding women's education the contributions of women religious and lay presidents and their use of power the relationship of emergent leadership theory to women the growth and development of deans of women the role of women's professional organizations and quandaries of provosts physical educators and student affairs professionals The book illustrates the tenacious spirit and hard work of women administrators in their struggles to enhance opportunities for women on college campuses Contributors include R Vivian Acosta Carolyn Terry Bashaw Cynthia Farr Brown Linda Jean Carpenter Candace Introcaso Susan R Jones Susan R Komives Sharon A McDade Jana Nidiffer Joan Paul and Karen Doyle Walton The Challenge of Eastern Asian Education William K. Cummings, Philip G. Altbach, J Donald Monan Sj Professor of Higher Education and Director Philip G Altbach, 1997-01-01 Provides specific examples of Asian educational practice that may have relevance to the United States Professionalization, Partnership, and Power Hugh G. Petrie, 1995-08-31 The concept of professional development schools PDS has recently emerged as one of the most exciting possibilities for systematic educational reform These teaching hospitals of the education profession typically are real schools in a district that take on with a cooperating institution of higher education special responsibilities for inquiry and professional preparation Although still in their infancy PDSs as places for professional preparation and of inquiry into teaching learning and teacher education have major policy potential Race and Educational Reform in the American Metropolis Dan A. Lewis, Kathryn Nakagawa, 1994-12-23 The Quest for Equity in Higher Education Beverly Lindsay, Manuel J. Justiz, 2001-08-16 Investigating the role of equity diversity and affirmative action in colleges and universities in the United States this book critically examines the issues in light of public debates voter referenda and legislative enactments seeking to influence public policy The contributors argue that providing information and critical skills to students and scholars preparing students for the world of work especially in a rapidly changing technological environment and generating new research and knowledge bases are missions of higher education that can be enhanced with affirmative action as a form of equity Burning Down the House Brian Pusser, 2012-02-01 Burning Down the House presents a riveting analysis of one of the most nationally prominent and bitterly contested policy battles in the history of American higher education the struggle to eliminate affirmative action at the University of California A timely and essential addition to the literature on affirmative action it examines the political economic legal and organizational factors that shaped the debate in California and offers unique insight into the contemporary politics of admissions policy university governance and the role of higher education in broader state and national political contests to come Mixed Race Students in College Kristen A. Renn, 2012-02-01 It's kind of an odd thing really because it's not like I'm one or the other or like I fit here or there but I kind of also fit everywhere And nowhere All at once You know Florence My racial identity I would have to say is multiracial I am of the future I believe there is going to come a day when a very very large majority of everybody in the world is going to be mixed with more than one race It s going to be multiracial for everybody Everybody and their mother Jack Kristen A Renn offers a new perspective on racial identity in the United States that of mixed race college students making sense of the paradox of deconstructing racial categories while living on campuses sharply divided by race and ethnicity Focusing on how peer culture shapes identity in public and private spaces the book presents the findings of a qualitative research study involving fifty six undergraduates from a variety of institutions Renn uses an innovative ecology model to examine campus peer cultures and documents five patterns of multiracial identity that illustrate possibilities for integrating notions of identity construction and deconstruction with the highly salient nature of race in higher education One of the most ambitious scholarly attempts to date to portray the diverse experiences and identities of mixed race college students the book also discusses implications for higher education practice policy theory and research Resources in Education ,1996
