Labanow, 2009 With the Christian church in the west in decline some churches are undergoing difficult transitions as they seek to become relevant to both themselves and their surrounding cultures The book details an ethnographic study of a Vineyard congregation making sense of their Vineyard roots and their growing relationship with the self proclaimed emerging church network Through a rich account of congregational life and tensions universal issues are raised such as relating to religious parentage creating safe places for spirituality Christian growth and maturity communication with contemporary culture and the challenges of identity reconstruction This book is the first to conduct an academic study of a Vineyard congregation in the United Kingdom
