

EMILY CARR

The British Columbia wilderness and the First Nations culture formed the two great themes of Emily Carr's work. Through her landscapes and haunting depictions of totems, she is deservedly considered the premier painter of Canada's Pacific coast. After training in San Francisco and Europe, Carr began her career in Vancouver, producing an impressive body of First Nations images in the year 1912. After a prolonged period of relative inactivity, at the age of fifty-six she returned to northern British Columbia and began painting the canvases for which she is most noted.

VANCOUVER ART GALLERY

Les forêts de la Colombie-Britannique et la culture des Premières Nations constituent les deux grands thèmes de l'œuvre d'Emily Carr. C'est grâce à ses paysages et à sa représentation évocatrice des totems qu'elle s'est mérité à bon droit le titre de peintre par excellence de la côte pacifique canadienne. Suite à des études à San Francisco et en Europe, Emily Carr a débuté sa carrière à Vancouver en 1912 où elle a peint une collection impressionnante inspirée d'images provenant des Premières Nations. Ce premier essor fut suivi d'une période assez prolongée où elle fut relativement inactive. Cependant à l'âge de cinquante-six ans, elle est retournée dans le nord de la Colombie-Britannique et elle s'est mise à peindre ces toiles auxquelles elle doit sa vraie renommée.

Canadian Foreign Policy Brian Bow, Andrea Lane, 2020-11-01 Canadian Foreign Policy as an academic discipline is in crisis Despite its value CFP is often considered a stale and pale subfield of political science with an unfashionably state centred focus This book asks why Contributors from both inside and around the field investigate how they came to view themselves as participating in CFP as an academic project or not and what that means for both their intellectual trajectory and the development of the field How were they taught to think about Canada How does that affect their interpretation of this country s place in the world And how do they teach the subject themselves The thoughtful essays in this nuanced collection shine a light on issues such as the casualization of academic labour the prospect of Indigenizing the field and the relationship between study and practice More broadly they offer a much needed assessment of the boundaries goals and values of the discipline and an important guide to its revitalization *Canadian Books in Print.
