The Diary of A.J. Mounteney Jephson Dorothy Middleton, 2017-03-02 This is a first hand account of the expedition led by H M Stanley in 1887 89 to the relief of Emin Pasha Governor of Equatoria A J Mounteney Jephson a typical late Victorian traveller took part in Stanley s last expedition in Africa His recently discovered diary describes the voyage out of the mouth of the Congo the journey up the Congo and across the Ituri forests to Lake Albert the meeting with Emin Pasha the mutiny of Emin s troops and their imprisonment of Emin and Jephson and the journey back to the East coast Though it fell short of its political and commercial aims the expedition was important geographically as it solved the last mystery of African topography the position and nature of the sources of the Nile

My Personal Experiences in Equatorial Africa Thomas Heazle Parke, 2017-09-16 Excerpt from My Personal Experiences in Equatorial Africa As Medical Officer of the Emin Pasha Relief Expedition The following pages contain the journal which I kept during the period of my connection with the Emin Pasha Relief Expedition Being desirous to give my original impressions of persons and things I have made no change whatever in the contents of my African note books excepting the necessary ones in the elementary departments of orthography and syntax I have inserted here and there a few paragraphs containing my views on the principal diseases which I was called upon to treat The remainder of the text I regard as supplementary in some measure to Mr Stanley s volumes Excepting Darkest Africa no other journal of the entire course of the expedition has been published and no account of our experiences at Ipoto and Fort Bodo has hitherto seen the light in any shape The pressure of professional duties has delayed the publication longer than I could have wished the history of the diary itself will I trust be to the indulgent reader some slight excuse for its many shortcomings in style and arrangement About the Publisher Forgotten
