The Exiles Daria Santini, 2019-09-05 London 1934 Austrian actress Elisabeth Bergner dominated the British theatre scene poet and director Berthold Viertel shot two successful films for Gaumont British two great actors from the Weimar era Conrad Veidt and Fritz Kortner became well known faces in English speaking cinema and the Hungarian journalist Stefan Lorant launched the first ever continental style illustrated magazine for the British newspaper market Exploring a phase in the history of Anglo German relations during which the migrants from Hitler's Germany were making their influence felt in Britain Daria Santini traces their presence in London from around 1933 to 1935 when these characters made their presence truly felt all while the Nazi threat loomed on the horizon

The Technological Unconscious in German Modernist Literature Larson Powell, 2008 Even after the end of modernism and postmodernism the grandiose fantasies of artifice and self reference that have informed so much modernist literature still resonate in the social constructivism of current literary and cultural theory in the idea that we can perform or construct identities or social roles without external constraint as if we had consumer choice of self Larson Powell's book posits nature as a limit to such fantasies redefining aesthetic modernity's conception of and relation to nature and therefore its relation to reality He shows how nature no longer the idealized maternally coded Utopia of the Romantics becomes the trace of specific political sexual and technological traumas The book's four chapters center on the representation of nature in German prose and especially poetry by Rainer Maria Rilke Gottfried Benn Bertolt Brecht and Alfred Döblin from the years 1900 to 1945 while making reference to other literatures as well Powell

s term the Technological Unconscious refers to a point of intersection between psychoanalysis and social and scientific theories of modernism and also to the philosophical mediation between history and nature a motif important from Kant to Adorno Powell critiques the tendency toward jargon of an often merely rhetorical theory while continuing to develop the philosophical and conceptual inheritance of Continental traditions He analyzes in connection with the works treated the conceptions of subject and system in the theories of Adorno Luhmann and Lacan and their relation to their complement nature The Technological Unconscious is thus an important polemical intervention both in the debates over interdisciplinarity and in those between eclectic culturalist theories such as New Historicism and postcolonialism on the one hand and systems theory and psychoanalysis on the other Book Jacket

Lane, Martin A. Ruehl, 2011 Stefan George 1868 1933 was one of the most important figures in modern German culture His poetry in its originality and impact has been ranked with that of Goethe and Holderlin Yet George s reach extended beyond the sphere of literature In the early 1900s he gathered around himself a circle of disciples who subscribed to his vision of comprehensive cultural spiritual renewal and sought to turn it into reality The ideas of the George Circle profoundly affected Germany s educated middle class especially in the aftermath of the First World War when their critique of bourgeois liberalism materialism and scholarship Wissenschaft as well as their call for new forms of leadership Herrschaft and a new

Reich found wider resonance The essays collected in the present volume critically re examine these ideas their contexts and their influence They provide new perspectives on the intersection of culture and politics in the works of the George Circle not least its ambivalent relationship to National Socialism      The Many Lives of Galileo Dougal McNeill,2005 The Many Lives of Galileo is a Marxist study of the development of Bertolt Brecht s great play Galileo on the English stage Tracing various translations of Brecht s original and the historical and political moments surrounding these translations Dougal McNeill examines how across the distances of culture history and language The Life of Galileo has come to figure so prominently in the life of English language theatre The translations and productions of Galileo by Charles Laughton Howard Brenton and David Hare are examined in a method combining close reading with an attention to broader social contexts with an eye to uncovering their implications for drama in performance Brecht valued re creation re invention and re telling as much as creation itself In this book the author applies Brecht s aesthetic to translations of his own work following Laughton Brenton and Hare as they set themselves the task of rewriting Brecht and in the process use him to comment on their own eras
