Empire Terror Nationalism Postnationalism In The New Millennium:

Empire & Terror Begoña Aretxaga, 2005 Contributors to this volume explore crucial issues regarding the articulation of politics at the beginning of the new millennium What does sovereignty in the state mean in the contemporary world of neoliberal capitalism The events of 9 11 have added dramatic urgency to these issues Some of the contributors to this volume discuss questions associated with this new international context But ultimately the volume s goal is to stimulate productive ways of thinking simultaneously about the dynamics articulating the concrete situation of identity politics or violence and the global rhetoric of international terrorism that has come to dominate the political discourse Book Jacket Sovereignty

English, 2019-02-21 Terrorism is one of the most significant security threats that we face in the twenty first century Not surprisingly there is now a plethora of books on the subject offering definitions of what terrorism is and proffering advice on what causes it and how states should react to it But one of the most important questions about terrorism has until now been left remarkably under scrutinized does it work Richard English now brings thirty years of professional expertise studying terrorism to the task of answering this complex and controversial question Focussing principally on four of the most significant terrorist organizations of the last fifty years al Qaida the Provisional IRA Hamas and ETA and using a wealth of interview material with former terrorists as well as those involved in counter terrorism he argues that we need a far more honest understanding of the degree to which terrorism actually works as well as a more nuanced insight into the precise ways in which it does so Only then can we begin to grapple more effectively with what has become one of the most challenging and eye catching issues of our time Irish Freedom Richard English, 2008-09-04 Richard English s brilliant new book now available in paperback is a compelling narrative history of Irish nationalism in which events are not merely recounted but analysed Full of rich detail drawn from years of original research and also from the extensive specialist literature on the subject it offers explanations of why Irish nationalists have believed and acted as they have why their ideas and strategies have changed over time and what effect Irish nationalism has had in shaping modern Ireland It takes us from the Ulster Plantation to Home Rule from the Famine of 1847 to the Hunger Strikes of the 1970s from Parnell to Pearse from Wolfe Tone to Gerry Adams from the bitter struggle of the Civil War to the uneasy peace of the early twenty first century Is it imaginable that Ireland might as some have suggested be about to enter a post nationalist period Or will Irish nationalism remain a defining force on the island in future years a courageous and successful attempt to synthesise the entire story between two covers for the neophyte and for the exhausted specialist alike Tom Garvin Irish Times

Liminal Fiction at the Edge of the Millennium Jessica A. Folkart, 2014-10-08 Liminal Fiction at the Edge of the Millennium The Ends of Spanish Identity investigates the predominant perception of liminality identity situated at a threshold neither one thing nor another but simultaneously both and neither caused by encounters with otherness while negotiating identity in contemporary Spain Examining how identity and alterity are parleyed through the cultural concerns of historical memory gender roles sex religion nationalism and immigration this study demonstrates how fictional representations of reality converge in a common structure wherein the end is not the end but rather an edge a liminal ground On the border between two identities the end materializes as an ephemeral limit that delineates and differentiates yet also adjoins and approximates In exploring the ends of Spanish fiction both their structure and their intentionality Liminal Fiction maps the edge as a constitutive component of narrative and identity in texts by Najat El Hachmi Cristina Fern ndez Cubas Javier Mar as Rosa Montero and Manuel Rivas In their representation of identity on the edge these fictions enact and embody the liminal not as simply a transitional and transient mode but as the structuring principle of identification in contemporary Spain
