Empty Sleeves Poems By Sidney Wade:

Empty Sleeves Sidney Wade, 1991 From a world tilted a fraction off its axis these poems speak of angels in Maine and Balinese dinners beneath the Kansas prairie moon Standing at the interval between the real and surreal the earthly and eternal much of Sidney Wade's poetry ponders these intervening spaces where hunger goes unabated and the air stirs with sighs of exquisite longing In this collection language seeks to replicate the world wresting the soul to all its fluent conjugations the discourse of insects on the forest floor the rhetoric of ballroom dancers the crusty inflections of brushstrokes in an Edward Hopper painting

The Illusion of Intimacy: On Poetry Randall Mann, 2019-03-27 The Illusion of Intimacy On Poetry brings Randall Mann's characteristic wit fearlessness and attention to language to twenty years of critical works including reviews of early books by Laura Kasischke and Vijay Seshadri essays on Shame Money and Forgetting appreciations of Thom Gunn and John Ashbery and two interviews This incisive collection a combination of criticism close reading autobiography exuberance and occasional irritation offers a look into the mind of one of America's finest formalists revealing how the compression and vulnerability of the lyric draws us closer to while asking us to resist the limitations freedoms and intimacies of poetry

Deep Gossip Sidney Wade, 2020-04-07 A great and frequently subversive book by a lyric poet at the height of her craft Throughout her seven critically acclaimed collections Sidney Wade has established herself as a poet with a serious but light touch capable of the clarity and inventiveness it takes to work a problem to both pleasure and resolution Playing with and challenging form in all directions the 27 new and 96 selected poems in Deep Gossip bristle with a sly wit that trips and delights the reader Inspired by landscape language music and living things as well as the occasional bout of political outrage Deep Gossip is a smart collection Praise for Other Books by Sidney Wade The quick closely observed poems in Sidney Wade's beguiling Bird Book move from page to page like their subjects in flight on air a murmur sweeping across the horizon William Souder Sidney Wade's linguistic and philosophical turns in Bird Book confirm that she is both the supreme heir to Wallace Stevens and one of the most original poets in the language Randall Mann This is a beautiful wise and timely collection Daniel Anderson As impressive and thrillingly exact as these poems are concerning matters ornithological it is the exquisite music earth sprung bright and resonant of Wade's radically short line that so enchants me the free play of interlinear rhyme phonemic harmonies and small bursts of metrical rhythms that yield more vitality and delight than any gathering of poems I have encountered in a very long time B H Fairchild Her poems are a particular and splendid instance of what Hopkins meant by poetry proper the language of inspiration Richard Howard Celestial Bodies Sidney Wade,2002 The Book of Motion Tung-Hui Hu,2003 This debut collection explores memory cities motion Tung Hui Hu s tone has some of the swampy wit that recalls Calvino or Michaux A man swaps bodies with his lover a mapmaker holds captive a city which needs his crystal telescope to navigate through streets unreadable as palm lines a car pushed off a cliff in a fit of anger becomes home for a school of fish Anchored by the sequence Elegies for self Hu s poetry brings a quiet sophistication to syntax diction and form Civilian Histories Lee Upton,2000 Upton s poems about dreams transform the often mundane quality of life in an overly materialistic America into something imaginative and spiritual Andy Brumer The New York Times Book Review Approximate Darling Lee Upton,1996 In her most ambitious collection of poems to date Lee Upton extends and deepens her experiments with perception and language Drawn into the orbit of her poems are multiple figurations a Dante inspired guide and a Leonardo da Vinci cartoon Hamlet s Gertrude and Lewis Carroll s Alice and Emily Dickinson Beatrix Potter Louise Bogan and Sylvia Plath While investigating elements of women s biological emotional and spiritual experiences that prove particularly recalcitrant to language she draws her attention to the relentless experiment of pregnancy and childbirth Upton examines fleeting moments when objects are seen at the periphery of vision and draws upon the language we use in contemplating the psychic aftereffects of contemporary violence dispossession and exclusion The Violence of the Morning Calvin Bedient,2002 Groundbreaking new poetry evokes a wide range of influences from Kant to the Upanishads while making deep exploratory journeys into the complexities of sexual relationships disease heartbreak and death Winner of the Contemporary Poetry Series Competition Original By Reason of Breakings Andrew Zawacki,2002 By Reason of Breakings Andrew Zawacki s first book of poetry overwhelms and silences by virtue of its extremely austere beauty In highly wrought lyrics prose poems fragments of apocrypha and splintered efforts at song this volume is forceful and haunted by doubt Each intimate and restrained line is a glimpse at a wisdom that defies paraphrase each image carefully chosen and constructed Zawacki s language summons and invites and is almost menacing in its delicate intensity Weight is the syntax of filling empty spaces scalpels and expired tissue fall but fire rises to fever and sere While pursuing an explanation for the disappearance of God and for the denouement of a love affair and exploring the failure of language to compensate or console these poems maintain their sublime power and elegance Heaven and Earth Albert Goldbarth,1991 Focusing with equal energy at the imposing sky and at our own home planet Albert Goldbarth moves from hosannah choiring angels to a single peach pit glistening on the tongue of Madame Renoir from the sweep of the earth s ecocycles to the particles of quantum physics In these poems surgeons lovers astronauts psychiatrists and priests embark on the same far journey traveling into the universe of what it means to be human exploring how the world works Here the ancient Egyptian afterlife and the atrocities of the 10 o clock news the realm of guacamole chip dip and the life of Rembrandt mix toward one cohesive vision The Patriot

Christopher Davis,1998 The Patriot is the chronicle of a deeply personal attempt to rebuild a sense of self and safety in an unstable environment Christopher Davis's poems address destructive forces including the murder of a younger brother and the impact of AIDS on modern gay culture These elements blend with the dangers of a world in which love and death are cruelly inseparable and in which the insinuations of consumer culture into the psyche destroy security but in which dark humor and the beauty of imagery combat despair In language electric with imagination these poems utter a mangled stuttering contemporary echo of Walt Whitman's poetry cheated out of its joyous confidence but constructing in the words of the author a weak bridge away from suicide

Dare Say Tod Marshall,2002 Three long poems illuminate broken and violated things using Bach Kandinsky and Botticelli as raw material for poetic musing Winner of the Contemporary Poetry Series Competition Poetry

Fluorescence Jennifer K. Dick,2004 In Jennifer K Dick's first book Fluorescence very real places Paris Massachusetts Colorado Iowa Morocco mix into the imagined into Breughelian villages where there's a persimmon in the corner knitting These places are inhabited by varied but always very real bodies stretching outward from their own edges and encountering or engendering a certain luminescence in the process What happens when we exceed ourselves When fragments of dream are lifted to the surface and through to something beyond Clues keys indications all that once seemed certain slips off into code These poems use language to crack it

What Animal Oni Buchanan,2003 The world in What Animal is filled with uncontainable data a rush of experiences tumbling one after the other experiences whose logic is only that they have happened or cannot be determined as having happened or not Images often spliced together in rapid succession each with a distinct complex of emotional and associative content operate in rhymes of shape sound capacity for motion texture and number Image patterns sound patterns syntactical shifts and physical spaces recur in different forms and combinations as if could we only comprehend the patterns would add up to something of galactic even infinite dimension

Dwelling Song Sally Keith,2004 As a hummingbird beats its wings so that it might be still to feed on a flower the poet concludes The equation keeps balancing out and I'm drawn to how it does not settle Aware of the difficulty of loving the world while feeding upon it the poems of Dwelling Song hope vision is levity as they press language to make sight and song This writing is a form of mimicry yet an act of dangerous flight Whether from the voice of a hunter shepherd farmer or bugle blowing boy on a city street the song recognizes that moving forward necessitates turning one's back

The Georgia Review ,1991

They are Sleeping Joanna Klink,2000 In They Are Sleeping Joanna Klink tests the limits of solitude setting her poems in places where our grip on self is loosened and blurred caves coastlines rooms in cities As her poems lead us through these sometimes beautiful sometimes appalling internal landscapes characters like the Hanged Man and the Lady of Situations reappear often locked in misunderstanding but compelling us toward a more fragile and expansive sense of self

Depth Theology Peter O'Leary,2006 Depth Theology taps the religious potential of poetry to access both the interior and the exterior worlds Inspired by depth psychology the field of psychology devoted to the unconscious Peter O

Leary's poems work to discover the religious knowledge of the unconscious mind. While seeking a revelatory poetry, O Leary engages the inconclusive quality of the revealed, observing that there's a liquidy trickiness to life, an entropy of spillage. The religious imagination that evolves in this series of thirty-four poems is unclouded by dogma and richly colored by erudition, while it tests the limits of human language and experience in an effort to understand our inwardness. Overflowing with images of birds and other objects of day-to-day experience interwoven with the mythic, allegorical, and biblical, Depth Theology charts a path to understanding our innermost worlds. From Lux Contemplatio, there is no place anymore for us to migrate. The need yet remains. Antarctica means now an interior domain. Curiosity about our inner life increases. A nomad's desert God is an inward generator. Our outward movement yields our soul's circumincession, its insitting in rotation with the divine abeyance.

Harming Others Casey Finch, 2008-06-01

Arranged in three parts, Harming Others moves from a mock heroic voice in The Empire Poems to a more intimate voice in The Damaged Poems, one that speaks to friends on their birthdays, wedding days, ordinary days. The book culminates in The Forbidden Poems, a retelling of the stories of the Old and New Testaments, a reshaping of religion and history in the present.
