En Construcciónunder Construction:

XVI Congreso Panamericano de Ferrocarriles Pan American Railway Congress Association. Congress, 1984 Border Interrogations Benita Sampedro, Simon R. Doubleday, 2008 Under the current cartographies of globalism where frontiers mutate vacillate and mark the contiguity of discourse questioning the Spanish border seems a particularly urgent task The volume engages a wide spectrum of ambivalent regions subjects that currently are or have been seen in the past as spaces of negotiation and contestation However they converge in their perception of the Spanish nation space as a historical and ideological construct that is perpetually going through transformations and reformations This volume advocates the position that intellectual responsibility must lead us to engage openly in the issues underlying current social and political tensions

Under Construction Jill Hamberg, 1986 Citizens of Memory Silvia R. Tandeciarz, 2017-11-10 Citizens of Memory explores efforts at recollection in post dictatorship Argentina and the hoped for futures they set in motion The material visual narrative and pedagogical interventions it analyzes address the dark years of state repression 1976 1983 while engaging ongoing debates about how this traumatic past should be transmitted to future generations Two theoretical principles structure the book s approach to cultural recall the first follows from an understanding of memory as a social construct that is always as much about the past as it is of the present the second from the observation that what distinguishes memory from history is affect These principles guide the study of iconic sites of memory in the city of Buenos Aires photographic essays about the missing and the dictatorship s legacies of violence documentary films by children of the disappeared that challenge hegemonic representations of seventies militancy a novel of exile that moves recollection across national boundaries and a human rights education program focused on memory Understanding recollection as a practice that lends coherence to disparate forces energies and affects the book approaches these spatial visual and scripted registers as impassioned narratives that catalyze a new attentiveness within those they hail It suggests moreover that by inciting deep reflection and an active engagement with the legacies of state violence interventions like these can help advance the cause of transitional justice and contribute to the development of new political subjectivities invested in the construction of less violent futures

Decolonizing Western-Indigenous Dialogues Karsten Kiewitt, Ronald Lutz, Gregory Cajete, Maria do Carmo dos Santos Gonçalves, Ditlhahe Kefilwe Johanna, 2025-09-04 This groundbreaking book offers a unique collection of Indigenous and non Indigenous approaches to decolonizing international development The world is facing enormous challenges from ever growing global inequality to climate change to the continuing fallout from the Covid pandemic It is becoming increasingly clear that the origin of these challenges lies in the economic models and imperial lifestyles perpetuated by the Global North In order to find new answers to the world s biggest challenges then it is necessary for the Global North to acknowledge Indigenous knowledge systems as unique and legitimate epistemologies and to engage in dialogues with them This collection brings together contributions from Indigenous and non Indigenous authors to promote that dialogue It provides a unique rare forum for discourse between the expressive potentials of differing world views and ultimately for developing cooperation in the terms of Eisenstein's notion of interbeing which counteracts the History of Separation between nature and culture and between Global South and Global North. What emerges is a path forward towards a new interwoven modernity characterized by an embrace of separate but mutually constitutive ways of knowing. For its wide topical and geographic breadth and for its bringing together of Indigenous and non-Indigenous scholars around the world, this book is a must read for researchers and students interested in indigenous studies and decolonial approaches to international development. Writing Puerto Rico Guillermo Rebollo Gil, 2018-07-04 This book is a manifesto-like consideration of the potentialities of radical political thought and action in contemporary Puerto Rico. Framed within the context of the present economic crisis of austerity measures, PROMESA, and mass migration, this book engages recent literary, artistic, and activist work on the island in order to highlight the manners in which such work, however precarious, innocuous, and/or fleeting, fosters hope among audiences, artists, protesters, and onlookers alike for a more egalitarian and just society. Autoethnographically grounded, informal in tone, and with an eye toward intersectionality, this book serves as a unique contribution to the field of Puerto Rican Studies by offering alternate points of departure for emergent theorizing and intellectual production across academic disciplines. Politics of Documentary Michael Chanan, 2019-07-25 This wide-ranging study traces the history of the documentary from the first Lumière films to Michael Moore's Fahrenheit 9/11. Chanan argues that documentary makes a vital contribution to the public sphere where ideas are debated, opinion formed, and those in authority are held to account. Migrants in Contemporary Spanish Film Clara Guillén Marín, 2017-07-06 7/6 Conclusion 8 General Conclusion References Index Lingua Cosmica Dale Knickerbocker, 2018-05-04 Anthologies, awards, journals, and works in translation have sprung up to reflect science fiction's increasingly international scope. Yet scholars and students alike face a problem: Where does one begin to explore global SF in the absence of an established canon? Lingua Cosmica opens the door to some of the creators in the vanguard of international science fiction. Eleven experts offer innovative English language scholarship on figures ranging from Cuban pioneer Daína Chaviano to Nigerian filmmaker Olatunde Osunsanmi to the Hugo Award-winning Chinese writer Liu Cixin. These essays invite readers to ponder the themes, formal elements, and unique cultural characteristics within the works of these irreplaceable, if too little known, artists. Dale Knickerbocker includes fantasists and genre benders pushing SF along new evolutionary paths even as they draw on the traditions of their own literary cultures. Includes essays on Daína Chaviano, Cuba, Jacek Dukaj, Poland, Jean-Claude Dunyach, France, Andreas Eschbach, Germany, Angélica Gorodischer, Argentina, Sakyo Komatsu, Japan, Liu Cixin, China, Laurent McAllister, Yves Meynard, and Jean-Louis Trudel, Francophone Canada, Olatunde Osunsanmi, Nigeria, Johanna Sinisalo, Finland, and Arkady and Boris Strugatsky, Russia. Contributors: Alexis Brooks de Vita, Paweł Frelik, Yvonne Howell, Yolanda Molina Gavilán, Vibeke Ritzou Petersen, Amy J. Ransom, Hanna Riikka Roine, Hanna Samola, Mingwei Song, Tatsumi Takayuki, Juan Carlos Toledano Redondo, and Natacha Vas Deyres. Cruel Modernity Jean Franco,2013-05-29 Analyzing the conditions under which dehumanizing cruelty came to be used by states and rogue groups in Latin America Jean Franco argues that acts of extreme cruelty and the ways they are rationalized are defining features of modernity Puerto Rico coastal management program and draft environmental impact statement National Ocean Survey.
