Fallen Spiritual Leaders Mirrors To Our Own Spiritual Struggles:

Fallen Spiritual Leaders Frank LaGard Smith,1992 The Fall Steve Taylor,2010-05-11 An important and fascinating book about the origin history and impending demise of the ego humanity s collective dysfunction The Fall is highly readable and enlightening as the author s acute mind is at all times imbued with the higher faculty of spiritual awareness Eckhart Tolle James and Jude (Paideia: Commentaries on the New Testament) John Painter,David A. deSilva,2012-11-15 In this addition to the well received Paideia series two respected New Testament scholars offer a practical commentary on James and Jude that is conversant with contemporary scholarship draws on ancient backgrounds and attends to the theological nature of the texts This commentary like each in the projected eighteen volume series proceeds by sense units rather than word by word or verse by verse Paideia commentaries explore how New Testament texts form Christian readers by attending to the ancient narrative and rhetorical strategies the text employs showing how the text shapes theological convictions and moral habits commenting on the final canonical form of each New Testament book focusing on the cultural literary and theological settings of the text making judicious use of maps photos and sidebars in a reader friendly format Students pastors and other readers will appreciate the historical literary and theological insight that John Painter and David deSilva offer in interpreting James and Jude Interconnected Ogyen Trinley Dorje Karmapa,2017-02-28 Plucked from a humble nomad family to become the leader of one of Tibet s oldest Buddhist lineages the young Seventeenth Karmapa draws on timeless values to create an urgent ethic for today s global community We have always been and will always be interconnected through family community and shared humanity As our planet changes and our world grows smaller it is vital we not only recognize our connections to one another and to the earth but also begin actively working together as interdependent individuals to create a truly global society The Karmapa Ogyen Trinley Dorje is uniquely positioned to guide us in this process Drawing on years of intensive Buddhist training and a passionate commitment to social issues he teaches how we can move from a merely intellectual understanding to a fully lived experience of connection By first seeing then feeling and finally living these connections we can become more effective agents of social and ethical change The Karmapa shows us how gaining emotional awareness of our connectedness can fundamentally reshape the human race He then guides us to action showing step by step how we can change the way we use the earth s resources and can continue to better our society In clear language the Karmapa draws connections between such seemingly far flung issues as consumer culture loneliness animal protection and self reliance In the process he helps us move beyond theory to practical and positive social and ethical change

Living on the Edge of the Edge Ruth Elizabeth Krall,Lisa Schirch, PhD,2017-06-19 There are several divisive issues that separate Christian from Christian in the current century One issue is the church s management of clergy sexual abuses of children teens and adults A second is the issue of sexual gender orientation and church membership Contemporary Christian denominations often intermingle the divisive issue of clergy and religious leader sexual abusiveness with the equally divisive issue of sexual gender orientation In this book Professors Krall and Schirch disentangle and discuss these two issues They discuss their personal and their professional opinions about ways in which religious and spiritual teaching communities can avoid the institutional perils of abusive clericalism and divisive denominational management practices Throughout the book they apply Anabaptist Mennonite principles of peace making in situations of sexual violation Case studies are provided A feminist hermeneutic is applied Each letter essay is auto ethnographic in style the professional and the personal are deliberately blurred inside a framework of narrative and story Each essay is deeply rooted in its author s academic interests and in her personal life history This book can be a text in graduate and undergraduate classrooms It can also be used in denominational self study programs

ABOUT VOLUME FOUR All the world's religions are experiencing rapid change due to a confluence of social and economic global forces Factors such as the pervasive intrusion of globalizing political and economic developments polarized and morally equivalent presentations seen in the media and the sense of surety demanded in and promised by a culture dominated by science are some of the factors that have placed extreme pressure on all religious traditions This has stimulated unprecedented responses by religious groups ranging from fundamentalism to the syncretistic search for meaning As religion takes on new forms the balance between individual and community is disrupted and reconfigured Religions often lose the capacity to recall their ultimate purpose or lead their adherents toward it This is the situation we call the crisis of the holy It is a confluence of threats challenges and opportunities for all religions This volume explores the contours of pressures changes and transformations and reflects on how all our religions are changing By identifying commonalities across religions as they respond to these pressures The Crisis of the Holy recommends ways religious traditions might cope with these changes and how they might join forces in doing so

ABOUT VOLUME FIVE The chapters collected in this book prepared by a think tank of the Elijah Interfaith Academy address the subject of religious leadership The subject is of broad relevance in the training of religious leaders and in the practice of religious leadership As such it is also germane to religious thought where reflections on religious leadership occupy an important place What does it mean to be a religious leader in today's world To what degree are the challenges that confront religious leadership today the same perennial challenges that have arrested the attention of the faithful and their leaders for generations and to what degree do we encounter challenges today that are unique to our day and age One dimension is surely unique and that is the very ability to explore these issues from an interreligious perspective and to consider challenges opportunities and strategies across religious traditions
