Reading Hume on the Principles of Morals Jacqueline Taylor, 2020-03-19 Hume's Enquiry concerning the Principles of Morals is one of the landmark works in the history of moral philosophy this volume presents a section by section study of the work in the form of new interpretative essays by leading Hume scholars The result is a comprehensive reassessment of Hume's recasting of his moral philosophy in this work Particular attention is given to the Enlightenment concepts of justice and benevolence as well as to the concept of humanity and moral sentiment Fifteen original chapters take the reader through the nine sections and four appendices of Hume's Enquiry as well as A Dialogue to assess critically the moral philosophy he presents How does it differ from the moral philosophy of the Treatise and how should we understand the significance of the arguments he advances Additional chapters examine the relation between Hume's mature moral philosophy and related subjects such as his epistemology his writings on religion beauty and criticism the passions and his own intellectual and philosophical development during the period in which he conceived and wrote the Enquiry

William Sharp and "Fiona Macleod" William F. Halloran, 2022-02-24 William Sharp 1855-1905 conducted one of the most audacious literary deceptions of his or any time A Scottish poet novelist biographer and editor he began in 1893 to write critically and commercially successful books under the name Fiona Macleod who became far more than a pseudonym Enlisting his sister to provide the Macleod handwriting he used the voluminous Fiona correspondence to fashion a distinctive personality for a talented but remote and publicity shy woman Sometimes she was his cousin and other times his lover and whenever suspicions arose he vehemently denied he was Fiona For more than a decade he duped not only the general public but such literary luminaries as George Meredith Thomas Hardy Henry James William Butler Yeats and E C Stedman Drawing extensively on his letters his wife Elizabeth Sharp's Memoir and accounts by friends and associates this biography provides a lucid and intimate account of William Sharp's life from his rejection of the dour religion of his Scottish boyhood his turn to spiritualism to his role in the Scottish Celtic Revival in the mid nineties The biography illuminates his wide network of close male and female friendships through which he developed advanced ideas about the place of women in society the constraints of marriage the fluidity of gender identity and the complexity of the human psyche Uniquely this biography reveals the autobiographical content of the writings of Fiona Macleod the remarkable extent to which Sharp used the feminine pseudonym to disguise his telling and retelling the complex story of his extramarital love affair with a beautiful and brilliant woman The biography illuminates not only the talented and conflicted William Sharp but also the cultural landscape of Great Britain in the late nineteenth century From late Pre Raphaelitism through the yellow nineties and on to the excesses of the early twentieth century Sharp dabbled in all the movements that comprised what some have called the Age of Decadence

Passion and Action Susan James, 1997-10-16 Passion and Action explores the place of the emotions in seventeenth century understandings of the body and mind and the role they were held to play in reasoning and action Interest in the passions pervaded all areas of philosophical enquiry and was central to the theories of many major figures including Hobbes Descartes Malebranche Spinoza Pascal and Locke Yet little attention has been paid to this topic in studies of early modern thought Susan James surveys the inheritance of ancient and medieval doctrines about the passions then shows how these were incorporated into new philosophical theories in the course of the seventeenth century She examines the relation of the emotions to will knowledge understanding desire and power offering fresh analyses and interpretations of a broad range of texts by little known writers as well as canonical figures and establishing that a full understanding of these authors must take account of their discussions of our affective life Passion and Action also addresses current debates particularly those within feminist philosophy about the embodied character of thinking and the relation between emotion and knowledge This ground breaking study throws new light upon the shaping of our ideas about the mind and provides a historical context for burgeoning contemporary investigations of the emotions

Hearing Bach's Passions Daniel R. Melamed, 2016 Daniel Melamed offers a study of Bach's passion settings seeking to familiarise readers with some of the intriguing issues in the study performance of older music He explores what it means to listen to this music today

The Mediterranean Passion John Pemble, 2015-07-16 The only remarkable thing people can tell of their doings these days is that they have stayed at home declared George Eliot in 1869 In Victorian and Edwardian Britain travel became the rage The middle classes and the aristocracy seemed in a constant flux of arrival and departure their luggage festooned with foreign labels The revolution in transport made this possible The Mediterranean Passion describes how the British travelled to the South and where they went Drawing on what these travellers wrote and what was written for them it enriches our understanding of the Victorians and Edwardians by exploring the medical religious sexual and aesthetic dimensions of their journeys and illuminates an important but neglected aspect of British social and cultural history combines scholarship with charm It could easily be taken to the Mediterranean on a holiday and read with pleasure on a sunny beach or in the shade of a church Asa Briggs Financial Times I was impressed not merely by the range of his erudition historical cultural literary topographical medical et al and by the depth of his enquiries into his subject but by the subtlety and refinement of his prose He deals with very elusive complex and culturally contradictory matters upon which few if any could arrive at persuasive generalisations yet he does so throughout the book while his conclusion is a marvel of judgment excelling even what has preceded David Selbourne author of The Principle of Duty The Mediterranean Passion was the joint winner of the 1987 Wolfson Literary Award for History

Selections from the works of Fourier, [ed.] with an intr. by C. Gide, tr. by J. Franklin Charles Fourier, 1901 Charisma Philip Rieff, 2008-03-11 From a profoundly influential social theorist comes a posthumously published analysis of the deepest level of crisis in our culture A compelling diagnosis of our condition The Wall Street Journal According to Rieff the contemporary notion of charisma the personal magnetism of political leaders or movie stars is a tragic misunderstanding of a profoundly important concept Charisma originally meant religious grace and authority transferred through divine inspiration before it evolved into little more than a form of celebrity stripped of moral considerations Rieff argues that without morality the gift of grace becomes indistinguishable from the gift of evil and devolves into a license to destroy in the name of faith or ideology Offering brilliant interpretations of Kierkegaard Weber Kafka Nietzsche and Freud Rieff shows how certain thinkers attacked the very possibility of faith and genuine charisma and helped prepare the way for a therapeutic culture in which it is impossible to recognize anything as sacred

Of Time, Passion, and Knowledge Julius Thomas Fraser, 2021-03-09 Only a wayfarer born under unruly stars would attempt to put into practice in our epoch of proliferating knowledge the Heraclitean dictum that men who love wisdom must be inquirers into very many things indeed Thus begins this remarkable interdisciplinary study of time by a master of the subject And while developing a theory of time as conflict J T Fraser does offer many things indeed an enormous range of ideas about matter life death evolution and value

Emerging African Voices , The Winged Destiny William Sharp, 1904 The Town with Acacia Trees Mihail Sebastian, 2020-11-26 On a cold bright day fifteen year old Adriana Dunea wakes up to find that her world has transformed overnight Her parents irritate her school is a bore and her body is changing in ways she does not understand As the seasons turn she grows into a beautiful young woman forges new friendships and falls in and out of love Yet her days spent dreaming of romance and listening to the latest gramophone records in her provincial town swiftly come to an end when the sudden opportunity arises to move to Bucharest Seduced by the charms of the Little Paris of the East a chance encounter with the hot headed composer Cello Viorin tests her attachment to her longstanding sweetheart Gelu In this witty lyrical coming of age novel Mihail Sebastian sensitively charts his heroine s journey of self awakening as she discovers the limits of her freedom and strives to shape her identity as a woman

Twentieth Century Crime & Mystery Writers NA NA, 2015-12-25 Forum , 1918 Routledge Library Editions: Beckett Various, 2022-07-30 This collection of five previously out of print titles examines Samuel Beckett s works and their impact on the theatre and on people who came into creative contact with his ideas His plays are assessed as are his works for film and television A titan of original thinking these books by leading Beckett scholars analyse how his creative vision was expressed and how it revolutionised not just the world of theatre but also of the wider world of the arts

The Philosophy of Expertise Evan Selinger, Robert P. Crease, 2006 From the use of expert testimony in the courtroom to the advice we rely on to solve key economic political and social problems expertise is an essential part of our decision making process However the extent to which experts can be trusted is a subject of persistent and contentious debate The Philosophy of Expertise is the first collection to explore the fundamental philosophical issues surrounding these authorities and their expert knowledge Part 1 considers the problems surrounding the issue of trust and deference part 2 launches a phenomenological clarification of expertise that pinpoints the universal structures embodied in cognition and affect and part 3 examines the consequences of the social and technical externalization of expertise Contributors including Edward Said Alvin Goldman Peter Singer Hubert Dreyfus Julia Annas Harry Collins and Don Ihde draw on a number of intellectual approaches to explore the justification of expert authority the potentially dangerous role of expertise in a liberal democratic society how laypeople can critique experts and the social and ideological character of expert advice The contributors also discuss the reasoning process of judges and juries the ancient Greek view of moral conduct and the incorporation of experts into governmental bureaucracy By honestly tackling the legitimacy and consistency of various positions this volume sheds much needed light on the theoretical dimensions of a controversial and pervasive practice Contributors Alvin I Goldman Don Ihde Edward Said Evan Selinger and John Mix Evan Selinger and Robert P Crease H M Collins and Robert Evans H l ne Mialet Hubert Dreyfus John Hardwig Julia Annas Paul Feyerabend Peter Singer Scott Brewer Steve Fuller Steven Turner

A Critical Study of Philip Guston Dore Ashton,2023-12-22 Dore Ashton has updated the bibliography and added a new concluding chapter to her classic study of the paintings and drawings of Philip Guston the only study of his work completely authorized by the artist Philip Guston 1913 1980 was one of the most independent of the painters whose work was loosely linked by the term abstract expressionism during the 1950s and he baffled admirers of his lushly beautiful abstract expressionist paintings by moving abruptly in mid career to gritty figurative paintings in an almost cartoon like style One of the few critics who saw this at the time as a progressive development in his work was Dore Ashton who here analyzes Guston s paintings and drawings in the context of the cultural milieu in which he worked illuminating the dilemma facing artists who try to live with understand and express both the ideals of art and the reality of the world Dore Ashton has updated the bibliography and added a new concluding chapter to her classic study of the paintings and drawings of Philip Guston the only study of his work completely authorized by the artist Philip Guston 1913 1980 was one of the most Aspects of
