Transition Margaret Robinson, 2018-05-30 Based on the 1996 Family Law Act this book looks at how the therapist can work with the different professions involved in a divorce how children might be consulted and ways in which vulnerable family members can be protected 78 pages      Counselling in Schools Robert Bor, Jo Ebner-Landy, Sheila Gill, Chris

Brace, 2002-06-28 This book will be of use to counsellors seeking to develop existing skills in school settings The authors present clear descriptions of various counselling skills and practical ideas around working with secondary aged pupils Education Psychology in Practice Robert Bor and his colleagues have produced a book which will be of great value both to professional counsellors and to practising school teachers The wisdom of the authors based as it is on practical experience brings a welcome realism balance and accessibility to the text Head teachers and all those concerned for the pastoral care of school pupils will find a wealth of advice on issues such as traumatic incidents and disaster recovery plans bullying sibling rivalry anxiety and sexuality The reader is allowed to eavesdrop on the consultations of school counsellors There is a particularly useful chapter on setting up and maintaining a school counselling service which sets out the questions to be faced in advance by the Head and by the counsellor I commend the book very warmly Stephen Baldock High Master St Paul's School Barnes Counselling in Schools is an excellent resource for students in training professionals already working in schools and those thinking of setting up a counselling service Heather Jones Head teacher Yardleys School Birmingham Counselling in Schools is a practical contemporary guide to providing effective counselling support within school settings Recognizing the very specific nature of this area of counselling practice and the uniqueness of every school the authors provide a flexible framework and guidelines for working collaboratively with pupils families and colleagues The authors do not aim to give prescriptive responses to all the problems which pupils may bring to counselling rather to help counsellors develop their skills in responding to each individual in the most appropriate way They emphasize the need for counsellors to be resourceful and creative in their approach and stress the reality that change is always an inevitable feature of working in schools Written from a systemic and solution focused perspective and illustrated throughout with vivid case studies the book examines the need for school based counselling services the range of problems with which pupils present legal issues involved in counselling children the role and skills of the school counsellor specific challenges faced in school settings The book provides a practical toolkit for counsellors including advice on setting up a new counselling service a framework for evaluating the service and accepted guidelines on key issues such as confidentiality and providing access to records
Counselling in Schools is an invaluable resource for anyone wishing to provide counselling support for pupils in secondary education Counsellors teachers social workers and education welfare professionals will find it a source of practical information and creative ideas      Multicultural Family Art Therapy Christine Kerr, 2014-12-17 How does the family art therapist understand the complexities of another's cultural diversity What are international family therapist's perspectives on treatment These questions and more are explored in Multicultural Family Art Therapy a text that demonstrates how to practice psychotherapy within an ethnocultural and empathetic context Each international author presents their clinical perspective and cultural family therapy narrative thereby giving readers the structural framework they need to work successfully with clients with diverse ethnic backgrounds different from their own A wide range of international contributors provide their perspectives on visual symbols and content from America Canada Britain Ireland Australia Israel Russia Singapore Taiwan Japan Korea Trinidad Central America and Brazil They also address a diversity of theoretical orientations including attachment solution focused narrative parent child and brief art therapy and write about issues such as indigenous populations immigration acculturation identity formation and cultural isolation At the core of this new text is the realization that family art therapy should address not only the diversity of theory but also the diversity of international practice Case

Incidents in Counseling for International Transitions Nancy Arthur,Paul Pedersen,2008 International Work Transitions International Student Transitions Immigrant and Refugee Transitions Military and Peacekeeping Transitions Handbook of Innovative Career Counselling Jacobus G. Maree,2019-07-20 This book examines a topic widely regarded as the most pressing in career counselling today i e how to ensure that everyone receives career counselling and that all workers have the opportunity to engage in sustainable decent work The author holds that career counselling should not only advance workers self and career construction helping them design successful career lives and make social contributions and live purposeful lives it should also expound new theoretical approaches and interventions Furthermore the book criticizes global society for overlooking the basic needs of many workers especially the most vulnerable and disadvantaged An important feature of the book is its emphasis on promoting a creative and innovative approach to career counselling so as to better answer contemporary career related questions It offers guidance on how to advance entrepreneurship and help workers develop critical thinking curiosity creativity collaboration and communication skills In this way the book promotes innovation in career counselling and maps the way forward in a theoretical and practical manner that helps clients flourish rather than merely survive in turbulent times impacted by the fourth wave in psychology career counselling the economy as well as the 4th industrial revolution Work 4 0 Transitions in Vocational Education Jürgen Seifried,Eveline Wuttke,2013-10-02 This volume focuses on the different passages and transitions in Vocational Education and professional work life Exploring the personal experiences of coping with the transition from school to vocational education vocational education to work and finally within work life the book takes account of the rapidly changing conditions under which these processes take place

A London Bibliography of the Social Sciences ,1931 Vols 1 4 include material to June 1 1929 Counselling in a Multicultural Society Stephen Palmer,Pittu D Laungani,1998-12-10 The book aptly describes explores and hits the core of very complex issues around race racism culture difference dual identity stereotypes immigration and alienation It is also very thought provoking raising questions about one s own ability to work more flexibly in the consulting room with clients of different backgrounds It is excellent for a directory of resources useful for training purposes and an enabling role model for good practice in counselling in a multicultural society I enjoyed it It should be a required handbook on the shelf of every caring professional working within a multicultural environment or setting Transformations The PCSR Journal This book examines the many complex issues surrounding counselling and therapy in a multicultural society It aims to sensitize readers to the cultural and racial setting in which counselling occurs and to raise awareness of the specific counselling needs of those from differing backgrounds The book explores the impact of culture on identity and of cultural differences on interaction It looks at how one might take a client's cultural context into consideration or deal with racism and provides a sophisticated account of the salient value systems of Western and non Western cultures Contributors also challenge the suitability of a client centred approach for clients from non Western backgrounds and explore the possibilities for transcultural culture centred and multimodal models of counselling in the West
