

Families from Around the World

Teachers' Notes

Across the world, children are growing up in many kinds of families, with diverse experiences of accommodation, food, cultural expectations and traditions. Some families have had to flee their homes due to conflict and war.

This PowerPoint, aimed at a Key Stage One audience, presents simple information about typical families from cultures across the world.

It is intended to raise all children's awareness of differing family values and experiences in order to prompt discussion.

Please remind children to be aware that such examples may contain generalisations and oversimplification and as a result, are not representative of all families from these areas.

Planning Families in Nepal Jan Brunson, 2016-03-29

Based on almost a decade of research in the Kathmandu Valley Planning Families in Nepal offers a compelling account of Hindu Nepali women as they face conflicting global and local ideals regarding family planning Promoting a two child norm global family planning programs have disseminated the slogan A small family is a happy family throughout the global South Jan Brunson examines how two generations of Hindu Nepali women negotiate this global message of a two child family and a more local need to produce a son Brunson explains that while women did not prefer sons to daughters they recognized that in the dominant patrilocal family system their daughters would eventually marry and be lost to other households As a result despite recent increases in educational and career opportunities for daughters mothers still hoped for a son who would bring a daughter in law into the family and care for his aging parents Mothers worried about whether their modern rebellious sons would fulfill their filial duties but ultimately those sons demonstrated an enduring commitment to living with their aging parents In the context of rapid social change related to national politics as well as globalization a constant influx of new music clothes gadgets and even governments the sons viewed the multigenerational family as a refuge Throughout Planning Families in Nepal Brunson raises important questions about the notion of planning when applied to family formation arguing that reproduction is better understood as a set of local and global ideals that involve actors with desires and actions with
