Overcoming Challenges Eldona S. Davis, 2025-07-30 Overcoming Challenges What's Bad to You Isn't Always Bad for You is an autobiographical journey about the long term impact of the struggles a female faces from a teenager into adulthood but she eventually learns not only the hard way but the long and wrong way Eldona talks about the financial struggles she experienced as a teenager such as living without utilities simultaneously and how boys and men took advantage of her because she did not have the protection of her father which resulted in the birth of her firstborn She talks about her struggles as a single parent her exposure to AIDS and her experience as a USC student It includes her poem Why Should I Suffer which is based on her teaching experience in the inner city and exposes the true reasons students fail She completes her autobiography full circle ending with marrying her teenage sweetheart after being separated for twenty five years and starting over giving birth to a baby boy in her early forties

Youth Ministry in the 21st Century (Youth, Family, and Culture) Chap Clark, 2015-08-11 There are many philosophies and strategies that drive today's youth ministry To most people they are variations on a single goal to make faithful disciples of young people However digging deeper into various programs books and concepts reveals substantive differences among approaches Bestselling author Chap Clark is one of the leading voices in youth ministry today In this multiview work he brings together a diverse group of leaders to present major views on youth ministry Chapters are written in essay response fashion by Fernando Arzola Greg Stier Ron Hunter Brian Cosby and Chap Clark As the contributors present their views and respond to each of the other views they discuss their task and calling giving readers the resources they need to develop their own approach to youth ministry Offering a model of critical thinking and respectful dialogue this volume provides a balanced irenic approach to a topic with which every church wrestles

Collision of Worlds Charles R. Colwell, 2008-05 An Episcopal priest maintains that earth becomes the womb of heaven so that God may be born in the manger of human experience This book blesses the earthy and calls the church to cease being so lofty and pious It encourages us to remove the wall that designates a church building as holy and the local bar as secular Serving as a clergyman for over 45 years Charles Colwell has seen first hand how the Christian walk can be a bumpy trail and how those bumps become places of great blessing Doubt becomes merely another facet of faith not its opposite and is to be honored Even our most desperate moments have a way of readying us for a discovery of God's power in our weakness as the gift of God's radical grace transforms us from broken people into empowered pilgrims on the road requiring us to challenge our myopic views of those of other faiths Collision of Worlds separates what is essential rock from what is shifting sand as the author fearlessly addresses dogmatism the interpretation of scripture the gay issue hell and believe it or not the presence of ghosts This book is fresh daring and offers a challenge to believers as well as those who may
