Family And Succession Law In Zambia:

Family and Succession Laws in Zambia Chuma N. Himonga, 1995 Himonga describes and analyzes the major developments in succession and family laws since the country's independence and places them against the background of changing social and economic conditions. The operation of the law, its application by the courts and other institutions in the informal sphere and popular responses to the law are a major focus of the book. The book also attempts a critical analysis of the operation of the law and legal institutions in a pluralistic society. Gender and Identity in Africa Mechthild Reh, Gudrun Ludwar-Ene, 1995 Law and Anthropology: International Yearbook for Legal Anthropology René Kuppe, Richard Potz, 1994 Volume 7 of Law and Anthropology brings together a collection of studies that discuss legal problems raised by cultural differences between people and the law to which they are subject. This volume developed from the idea that it can be useful to consider current discussions in various legal systems facing issues of cultural difference that cannot be regarded as legal problems related to indigenous societies alone. The book focuses on contradiction between national law and complex and diverse kinship structures which are essential for the cultural identity of both indigenous groups and cultural minorities. The social construction of gender relations and gender conflicts is an important theme in many essays. Some of the essays examine the area of conflict between cultural practices and universal human rights standards. The demand for cultural rights may collide with human rights standards especially with the principles of gender equality. This volume will be of great interest to academics and to all those with practical involvement in the field of cultural pluralism. Previously published by VWGO Verlag in Austria, Law and Anthropology will be published and distributed by Martinus Nijhoff Publishers from Volume 7 onwards. The Uncertain Promise of Southern Africa York W.

Bradshaw, Stephen N. Ndegwa, 2000 In the 1970s and 1980s Indiana University Press published a series of books edited by Gwendolen Carter and others on economic and political conditions in Southern Africa during the apartheid era. The Uncertain Promise of Southern Africa is a return to that successful format in the post-apartheid era. Leading scholars analyze the economic, political, social and cultural conditions in Southern Africa and the prospects for the region. The first part of the book examines the current political and development situation in six countries: South Africa, Namibia, Botswana, Zimbabwe, Angola and Mozambique. The second part focuses on issues of enduring importance in the region: education, health, gender, the law, intra and inter-regional power relations, international commerce and popular culture. Inequality in Zambia Caesar Cheelo, Marja Hinfelaar, Manenga Ndulo, 2022-01-31 Coming together from across several disciplines, the contributors to this book reflect on the considerable problem of inequality in Zambia, comparing it with other countries both in the region and more broadly. The World Bank consistently ranks Zambia among the countries with the highest levels of poverty and inequality globally, but the problem is not widely studied and the studies that do exist tend to focus solely on economic measures of inequality. This book uses a multidimensional analysis of inequalities, highlighting the ways in which certain social groups and geographical locations are more likely to suffer multiple inequalities It investigates key issues around poverty healthcare income law disability and power inequalities Particularly showcasing the work of local researchers this book will be of interest to researchers of African studies development economics and politics Towards Negotiated Co-management of Natural Resources in Africa L. B. Venema,1999 Within the field of management of natural resources this book focuses on the various approaches of policy formulation and implementation The question central to this book is how to co operate with people the various categories of residents as well as non residents in the rural areas in a top down a participatory or a contractual co management way On the basis of a comparative analysis of 12 case studies in the book these three approaches are thoroughly discussed and their internal and external constraints examined The book starts with an editorial chapter discussing the recent administrative and political developments in Africa as well as the new opportunities which they offer for policies in the field of environment and development The question is brought up whether the recent processes of decentralization democratization and empowerment of local organizations have indeed created new opportunities or that they have only superficially changed the political culture of the countries concerned In the concluding chapter of the book the approaches are contrasted to each other as logical models each with its own potentiality and limitations Conclusions are formulated why the top down approach must result in improvization to escape from failure and why the participatory approach risks to end up into a mixed balance Special attention is given to the conditions and the prospects for the contractual or co management approach which has been introduced into Africa only recently Under certain conditions this approach seems rather promising Land Tenure, Housing Rights and Gender in Zambia ,2005

Children's Rights in Africa Julia Sloth-Nielsen,2016-05-23 This collection is anchored in an African conception of children s rights and the law and reflects contemporary discourses taking place in the region of the children s rights sphere The majority of contributors are African and adopt an individual approach to their topic which reflects their first hand experience The book focuses on child rights issues which have particular resonance on the continent and the chapters span themes which are both broad and narrow containing subject matter which is both theoretical and illuminated by practice The book profiles recent developments and experiences in furthering children s legal rights in the African context and distils from these future trends the specific role that the law can play in the African children s rights environment The Future of African Customary Law Jeanmarie Fenrich,Paolo Galizzi,Tracy E. Higgins,2011-07-18 Customary laws and traditional institutions in Africa constitute comprehensive legal systems that regulate the entire spectrum of activities from birth to death Once the sole source of law customary rules now exist in the context of pluralist legal systems with competing bodies of domestic constitutional law statutory law common law and international human rights treaties This book promotes discussion and understanding of customary law and explores its continued relevance in sub Saharan Africa The volume considers the characteristics of customary law and efforts to ascertain and codify customary law and how this body of law differs in content form and status from legislation and common law It also addresses a number of substantive areas of customary law including the role and power of traditional authorities customary criminal law customary land tenure property rights and intestate succession and the relationship between customary law human rights and gender equality

Sovereignty, Legitimacy, and Power in West African Societies Emile Adriaan Benvenuto van Rouveroy van Nieuwaal,1998 Non-State Actors as Standard Setters Anne Peters, Lucy Koechlin, Till Förster, Gretta Fenner Zinkernagel,2009-09-24 This analysis of globalised standard setting processes draws together insights from law political sciences sociology and social anthropology to assess the authority and accountability of non state actors and the legitimacy and effectiveness of the processes The essays offer new understandings of current governance problems including environmental and financial standards rules for military contractors and complex public private partnerships such as those intended to protect critical information infrastructure The contributions also evaluate multi stakeholder initiatives such as the Extractive Industries Transparency Initiative and discuss the constitution of public norms in stateless areas A synopsis of the latest results of the World Governance Indicator arguably one of the most important surveys in the area today is included

Contemporary Gender and Sexuality in Africa Wakana Shiino, Mbabaz Mpyangu,2001-08-26 Africa has fostered a rich culture of gender and sexuality from which non African societies can learn Most African traditional sexual customs differ greatly from Western colonial thought which prioritises an individualism that respects the individual's free will and way of life Regardless of the existence of various images of Africa globalisation and conflict have made it inevitable that African people today must respond to sudden changes in the political environment and norms due to the influx of new thoughts and ideas From colonial tensions to the consequences of globalisation women easily have to sacrifice their sexualities Also the reader can observe that the Japanese African ethnographic surveys in this book are influenced by the researchers personal backgrounds including their religion social class and sexual orientation Women, Law and Human Rights Fareda Banda,2005-10-04 Africa with its mix of statute custom and religion is at the centre of the debate about law and its impact on gender relations This is because of the centrality of the gender question and its impact on the cultural relativism debate within human rights It is therefore important to examine critically the role of law broadly constructed in African societies The book focuses on women's experiences in the family This is because the lives of women continue to be lived out largely in the private domain where the right to privacy is used to conceal unequal treatment of women which is justified by invoking custom and tradition The book shows how law and its interpretation is used to disenfranchise women resulting in their being deprived of land and other property which they may have helped to accumulate It also considers issues of violence within the home reproductive rights and examines the issue of female genital cutting The role of women in development is explored as is their participation in politics and the NGO sector A major theme of the book is a consideration of the linkages of constitutional and international human rights norms with local values This is done using feminist tools of analysis The book considers the provisions of the Protocol to the African Charter on Human and People s Rights on the Rights of Women which was adopted by the African Union in July 2003 An Intellectual Giant Marja Hinfelaar,O'Brien Kaaba,Pamela Towela Sambo,2025-04-13 For several decades this Harvard and Oxford trained legal luminary has had a great range of achievements as legal scholar law school teacher and international public servant Mumba Malila Chief Justice of Zambia An internationally acclaimed legal scholar Muna Ndulo has made an outstanding contribution to constitution making in several African countries East Timor and Afghanistan and to global governance institution building human rights international trade and legal education Pamela Towela Sambo Lecturer in Law at the University of Zambia and environmental activist An Intellectual Giant Essays in Honour of Muna Ndulo doubles as an account of the exemplary professional life of a globally renowned Zambian legal luminary Muna Ndulo and also as a versatile exposition towards understanding the global demands placed on professionals particularly legal scholars This collection of academically inspired essays demonstrates how Muna Ndulo has contributed towards building global social justice human rights and good governance The essays in this book dissect global and national concerns such as constitutionalism and constitution making women s rights legal education transitional justice and fair international investment law These areas of the law are directly linked to the public scholarship that has earned Muna Ndulo immense international acclaim and continue to inspire upcoming professionals Land, Law and Politics in Africa Jan Abbink,Jon Abbink,Mirjam de Bruijn,2011-11-11 This book offers a series of new studies on the dynamics of political and legal culture as well as of conflict management in contemporary Africa taking inspiration from and honoring the scholarly contributions and impact of Prof Gerti Hesseling 1946 2009 in African Studies Law & Anthropology René Kuppe,1994 African Law Hilda Kuper,Leo Kuper,2022-05-27 This title is part of UC Press s Voices Revived program which commemorates University of California Press s mission to seek out and cultivate the brightest minds and give them voice reach and impact Drawing on a backlist dating to 1893 Voices Revived makes high quality peer reviewed scholarship accessible once again using print on demand technology This title was originally published in 1965 Country Reports on Human Rights Practices for 1995 United States. Department of State,1996 Country Reports on Human Rights Practices ,1996 The International Survey of Family Law Andrew Bainham,1999-04-21 The International Survey of Family Law published on behalf of the International Society of Family Law is the successor to the Annual Survey of Family Law It provides information analysis and comment on recent developments in Family Law across the world on a country by country basis The Survey is published annually and its subtitle reflects the calendar year surveyed Where a country has been regularly surveyed each year the developments discussed correspond to the year in question If certain countries have not been surveyed for some years the contributions will usually attempt to cover the intervening period If countries are being covered for the first time then more background information will be provided about the state of family law in the country in question The Survey also contains an article dealing with the more significant developments in international law affecting the
