Together, Really, Enjoying, Education

Each Monday, your students will receive a T.R.E.E. Activities sheet to be turned in on the Monday following each day of school all year long.

- Choosing to learn has nothing to do with being in school; it's about the choice to engage.
- There is no learning that isn't accompanied by the right sorts of work, it's just not.
- Engagement is a social work with other people that has to do with making choices.
- Learning should be a social work with other people that has to do with making choices.

Learning is a social work with other people that has to do with making choices. It's not about the choice to learn, it's about the choice to engage.
