Rauwerda, 2014-01-10 What does Ian McEwan have in common with Barbara Kingsolver Or The Shack s William Paul Young with The Way the Crow Flies Ann Marie MacDonald All four spent significant portions of their formative years overseas as expatriates all four are third culture kids These authors share experiences of cultural and geographical displacement that fracture constructions of home and identity as their fiction attests This study surveys 17 authors with expat backgrounds to define third culture literature a burgeoning yet unrecognized branch of international writing characterized by expressions of dislocation loss and disenfranchisement By explicating how the shared cultural details of these writers emerge in literary themes and images this work introduces third culture literature as a separate field reinterpreting the work of major writers from across the globe      Counseling International Students Nancy Marie Arthur, 2013-11-11 This book is a useful resource for designing and delivering culturally responsive counseling services for international students It introduces readers to contributions made by international students in higher education and supplies in depth information about the nature of cross cultural transitions including initial entry to the host culture as well as the return home A framework of multicultural counseling competencies is applied case examples are provided and the book is filled with practical information for counselors and other mental health professionals      The Sage Handbook of Intercultural Communication Shuang Liu, Adam Komisarof, Zhu Hua, Levi Obijiofor, 2025-01-16 The SAGE Handbook of Intercultural Communication offers a global interdisciplinary and contextual approach to understanding the complexities of intercultural communication in our diverse and interconnected world The handbook brings together established theories methodologies and practices and provides a comprehensive exploration of intercultural communication in response to the challenges and opportunities presented by our global society Featuring contributions from leading and emerging scholars across multiple disciplines including communication studies psychology applied linguistics sociology education and business this handbook covers research spanning geographical locations across Europe Africa Oceania North America South America and the Asia Pacific It focuses on specific contexts such as the workplace education family media crisis and intergroup interactions Each chapter takes a contextual approach to examine theories and applications providing insights into the dynamic interplay between culture communication and society From managing cultural diversity in the workplace to creating culturally inclusive learning environments in educational settings from navigating intercultural relationships within families to understanding the role of media in shaping cultural perceptions this handbook delves into diverse topics with depth and breadth It addresses contemporary issues such as hate speech environmental communication and communication strategies in times of crisis It also offers theoretical insights and practical recommendations for researchers practitioners policymakers educators and students The handbook is structured into seven parts beginning with the theoretical and methodological development of the field before delving into specific contexts of intercultural communication Each part provides a rich exploration of key themes supported by cutting edge research and innovative approaches With its state of the art content and forward looking perspectives this SAGE Handbook of Intercultural Communication serves as an indispensable resource for understanding and navigating the complexities of intercultural communication in our increasingly interconnected world Part 1 Theoretical and methodological development of the field Part 2 Intercultural communication in workplace contexts Part 3 Intercultural communication in educational contexts Part 4 Intercultural communication in family contexts Part 5 Intercultural Communication in media contexts Part 6 Intercultural communication in crisis contexts Part 7 Intercultural communication in intergroup contexts      Chinese Marriages in Transition Xiaoling Shu, Jingjing Chen, 2023-09-15

Outdated models of Chinese gender roles marriage and family transitions portray these changes as streamlined and unidirectional from traditional to modern public to private collective to individual Chinese Marriages in Transition documents the complex nuanced and multidirectional nature of these cultural transformations Using complex and large scale historical national data as well as comprehensive data from multiple countries Xiaoling Shu and Jingjing Chen demonstrate that while the second demographic transition is unfolding in many advanced Western societies it is not necessarily a normative form of societal transition Working instead from a framework of new familism Shu and Chen show that Chinese new familism consists of both old and new values including the persistence of some traditional beliefs and practices accompanied by a transition to modern perceptions of gender and adaption to some modern forms of family formation This book is freely available in an open access edition thanks to TOME Toward an Open Monograph Ecosystem a collaboration of the Association of American Universities the Association of University Presses and the Association of Research Libraries and the generous support of the University of California Davis Learn more at the TOME website available at openmonographs.org
