Family Protection Guide Always The Victor Never The Victim:

Family Protection Guide Craig Fox Huber, 1995 An Anthropological Guide to the Art and Philosophy of Mirror Gazing Maria Danae Koukouti, Lambros Malafouris, 2020-09-03 Looking at one's face in the mirror and finding one's self in the mirror are not the same. The former capacity is something we share with other animals; the latter is a skill something we have to learn. What does it mean and what does it take to find oneself in the mirror? This book provides a comparative anthropological enquiry into the unity and diversity of mirror gazing. The reader is encouraged to reflect upon and experiment with different mirror gazes through a range of case studies. Koukouti and Malafouris weave together anthropology with philosophy and draw on examples from literature and experiments from psychopathology in a way that has never been attempted before. The master metaphor is that of the mirror as trap. Mirror gazing is viewed on a par with hunting. Mirroring signifies the hunt for self-knowledge. In a time obsessed with the digital self-image, Koukouti and Malafouris reflect on the structures of consciousness that underpin the different ways of looking at and through the mirror. Combining metaphor, comparison, and estrangement, they gesture towards a therapeutic alliance between body and mirroring. This allows us to look in the mirror and think of our shared humanity differently.
