Reflection of Love Alan Hines,2020-06-09 To reflect knowledge wisdom and understanding conveyed in Poetry

Reflections in Poetry Glennnell Chatmon,2010-06-09 Reflections in Poetry Reflections in Poetry was first thought about when I was working down in the Gulf of Mexico Twelve hours a day five days a week I use to write during my lunch break or back at the motel I put together some material in a legal pad and left everything in the Motel under the mattress When I relocated back to Sumter SC it was very hard getting started with so many things on my mind I asked God to give me the peace of mind that I needed to put my thoughts on paper I stayed up one night until four in the morning writing I needed that to get a lot of stuff off my chest and off my mind I really enjoyed putting Reflections in Poetry together it reflects on those that have passed on good people whose memories I ll always treasure and will never forget Friends that I met over the years our paths crossed and we connected platonically They inspired me in their own unique way to write about them in poetry Reflections in Poetry are collections of treasured thoughts from my heart to yours Enjoy Glennnell Chatmon Only a Girl ...

coexistence and love The Breaking of the Storm Friedrich Spielhagen, 2020-08-18 The Breaking of the Storm is one of the best known works by the German novelist Friedrich Spielhagen. In this novel, the author links the storm tide at the Baltic Sea in the autumn of 1872 with the great crisis of the financial industry widely known as The Panic of 1873 that triggered an economic depression in Europe and North America during the 1870s. Since there was no causal connection between financial actions and the weather events, Spielhagen succeeded with this construction to build on certain collective fantasies of the readers. The metaphor of the flood was certainly present even in economic circles.
