Scented Heaven Virginia Alison, 2015-09-21 Eleven years had passed and the sleeper remained out of reach however eyelids fluttered as the new occupants stepping beneath the withered vine set the wheels of destiny in motion. This was his twenty first year and apart from disturbing dreams of late which he put down to too much work drink and too many women life was good. Simple pleasures were all he required and certain that he had a few more years of fun left before he met the perfect girl marry settle down and have a gaggle of rug rats Josh breezed through life without a care in the world. Fate though had other plans as the tendrils of change curled beneath the door of the old cupboard. Housing memories of past generations it unsettled the dust and disturbed the cobwebs which mostly remained untouched by human hand. Few ventured into the dark hole in the center of the ranch where the red box now a mere memory silently waited for his coming of age. Serendipity called as the arrowhead awakened a new love which waited just around the corner over the hill.

What's more she's regarded her with suspicion and hostility especially by Olivier's playboy cousin Xavier. Will she run for the hills as fast as her high heels can carry her.
