Lincoln, 2019-09-25 Religious truth has always been in dispute but there are certain times and places in which the debate has been more intense. One such period was the first century CE when the rapid spread of Christianity with its claims about Jesus produced considerable ferment. The Gospel of John, written late in that century, presents that dispute with greater clarity than any other document of the time. John presents a Jesus who claims not only to tell the truth but also to be the truth. And yet as the Roman magistrate asks Jesus in John's gospel, what is truth? Two millennia later in the Western world, pluralism and postmodernism radically challenge traditional notions of truth. Is there any truth beyond the formal logic of merely analytical propositions? And if there is, do humans have any way of knowing it? Many who have a postmodern perspective deny that either rationality or imagination can give us access to the truth. Instead they adopt a throughgoing incredulity toward metanarratives. Truth is again on trial. Days of Heaven Upon Earth and Other Sermons Alexander Macleod (D.D., of Birkenhead.), 1878 California. Court of Appeal (5th Appellate District).

Records and Briefs California (State)., Lord, Make My Days Count, 2018-01-20 This is the true story of a young Jewish man who leaves Russia for America in the early twentieth century. Told in a series of heartwarming anecdotes and observations, it covers his arrival in New York, his early business success, his struggles to develop a series of shoe stores in Pennsylvania, his long and happy marriage, and the raising of his children. Triumphs and tragedies are mingled together in the rich texture of his life. Time and again his deep religious faith helped him to overcome seemingly insurmountable obstacles. His intimate knowledge of both Old World Jewish culture and small town America in the early and middle twentieth century adds an important historical dimension to this personal narrative. This is a vivid portrait of one man's struggle to share in the American dream. Prayers for Cleansing Ancestral Bloodlines in the Courts of Heaven Bruce Cook, 2024-09-20 The prayer templates and legal insights in this powerful book provide a field-tested, proven revelatory blueprint from heaven for how to repent of personal and generational sin, effectively cleanse your bloodline thoroughly, and obtain and receive a favorable verdict in your case from God, the Supreme Judge. Praying these prayers has resulted in increased, typically massive freedom for many Christians globally. Find your breakthrough into a new level and dimension of spiritual freedom and get unstuck by using these prayer templates for repentance of sin as a guide to pray effectively and efficiently in the Courts of Heaven.

(God) After Auschwitz Zachary Braiterman, 1998-11-23 The impact of technology-enhanced mass death in the twentieth century argues Zachary Braiterman has profoundly affected the future shape of religious thought. In his provocative book, the author shows how key Jewish theologians faced the memory of Auschwitz by rejecting traditional theodicy, abandoning any attempt to justify and vindicate the relationship between God and catastrophic suffering. The author terms this rejection

Antitheodicy the refusal to accept that relationship It finds voice in the writings of three particular theologians Richard Rubenstein Eliezer Berkovits and Emil Fackenheim This book is the first to bring postmodern philosophical and literary approaches into conversation with post Holocaust Jewish thought Drawing on the work of Mieke Bal Harold Bloom Jacques Derrida Umberto Eco Michel Foucault and others Braiterman assesses how Jewish intellectuals reinterpret Bible and Midrash to re create religious thought for the age after Auschwitz In this process he provides a model for reconstructing Jewish life and philosophy in the wake of the Holocaust His work contributes to the postmodern turn in contemporary Jewish studies and today s creative theology
