expressed contested and compromised by distinctive individuals under particular circumstances in complex and varied relations with others Novels plays and short stories can take us into the workings of a rational or irrational mind and show how the inner world of cognitive activity is shaped by external events Perhaps most importantly literature can prompt us to ask searching questions of ourselves it can unsettle and disturb and in so doing can make an important contribution to our educational formation An original and thought provoking work Education and the Limits of Reason offers a fresh perspective on classic texts by Dostoevsky Tolstoy and Nabokov and encourages readers to reconsider conventional views of teaching and learning This book will appeal to a wide range of academics researchers and postgraduate students in the fields of education literature and philosophy

Monster/Beauty Joanna Frueh, 2001-02-19 This book is as seductive as the phenomenon that it explores. With courage, love, and joy, Frueh crosses into unexplored terrains of beauty and pleasure where she finds a grotesquely captivating creature. Monster Beauty. By illuminating her journey with thoughtful insight and engaging prose, she encourages readers to join her in her quest to articulate fresh ways of thinking about the aesthetic and the erotic and of theorizing the flux of lived experience. John Alan Farmer, senior editor of Art Journal. Monster Beauty is a daringly provocative experiment in personal and erotic writing and an important book for anyone interested in breaking normative codes of beauty, pedagogy, and authorial methodology. In a richly self-revealing text, Frueh proposes nothing less than a Rabellaisian re-ordering of aesthetic embodiments within social relations. Mira Schor, author of Wet On Painting. Feminism and Art Culture. Giving new meaning to embodied writing, this book goes farther than any other toward getting the body into the text. Joanna Frueh is a performance artist; first, she is also an art historian, a singer, a poet, a bodybuilder, a professor, an academic celebrity of modest fame, but her performances collapse these distinctions. Frueh's intensely personal, intensely physical prose brings an aura of presence to the book that rivals the effect she achieves on stage. Robyn Warhol, co-editor of Feminisms. This book is monstrous, full of gorgeous, hypermuscular women, step mothers, and vampires, full of ravishing, muscular sex, classroom erotics, splendid aging. It is a performance in which Frueh explores and celebrates her body, its powers and beauties, and those of her friends and lovers. Alphonso Lingis, author of Excesses, Abuses, and Dangerous Emotions. A welcome voice in contemporary feminist theory, Frueh's Monster Beauty reminds us of the pleasures of thinking, teaching, and creating in wholly embodied, sensual, and passionate acts. Frueh poetically enacts the self as an aesthetic, erotic project, affirming the many different and beautiful selves we can become. It is a joy to read. Marsha Meskimmon, author of We Weren't Modern Enough. Women Artists and the Limits of German Modernism. Joanna Frueh is a hero. I sleep better knowing she's out there writing and thinking. Michael Cunningham, author of The Hours.
